

Northampton Hi Ram Tracks

By JOURNALISM CLASS

The senior class voted this week to name the ten superlatives in the class instead of electing the ten outstanding seniors. The consensus in the class leans toward choosing a boy and a girl for each superlative quality.

The senior class, at a meeting on Thursday, considered also class flower, color, motto, and mascots. These along with the superlatives will be used in the NorColan, school yearbook.

The Future Farmers of America will meet during the first period on Friday to elect a president, chairman of nine big committees, and six delegates to the district planning committee in December.

Audio-visual lessons are numerous at NCHS at present. Films and records may be heard in geography, biology, physical science, and English. The one record player in working order around school has been mounted on a wheeled cart and is whizzed from classroom to classroom almost every period.

Glee Club members held special sessions for the whole group, readying for the performance before the county teachers and guests at the banquet Wednesday night. The junior class served the meal for the teachers at this annual dinner meeting.

Student council members and Glee Club are still in the magazine-selling business. The drive will be concluded at the end of Thanksgiving holidays.

The Thanksgiving holidays will begin Wednesday of next week at two o'clock and extend through Sunday, November 28. These two days with no school will climax the second six-weeks. Tests for the second reporting period should be over before the vacation begins.

Winston Hoggard of the class of 1965 visited NCHS last week suited up in his Air Force blue. He is at home on leave.

Mr. Jones attended the North-eastern district meeting on pupil transportation in Williamston Monday and Tuesday of last week. The conference, sponsored by non-school agencies, touched on safety, licensing of drivers, and responsibility, among other things. Mr. Jones discussed the organization of a new bus system for a consolidated high school.

Basketball practice began for Northampton Ram basketballers on November 1 with about 35 boys out for either the JV or varsity squad. There are still about 15 boys who play football that the coaches anticipate coming out for the "round ball" sport.

Back from last year's squad and already pounding the basketball hardwood are: Butch Askey, Walter Brown, John Parker, Sam

ANOTHER SALE—Cheerleader Beverly Watson sells NCHS coach Sidney Ellen a Rams license tag while another cheerleader, Dianne Britton (l) and basketball player, Glenda Carroll, hold two more of the 75 tags to be sold during the Thanksgiving weekend. Sponsored by the Girls Monogram Club, the project is under way to Stephenson, and Bennett Bryant. Up from last year's successful JV squad are: David Draper, Vickie Glover, Tim Boone, and Quinton Jenkins.

Also, a boy that was not out last year, Billy Warwick, is working with the squad. There appears to be some fine freshmen prospects this year with several boys remaining from last year's JV squad.

The Rams will play a 20-game schedule, Class 3-A Roanoke Rapids against the opponents.

Lanny Bridgers, second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps, had lunch at NCHS last week. He was visiting his mother, Mrs. Maggie Bridgers, as he transferred from Norfolk to Beaufort, S. C., after special study in Norfolk.

Lanny was a star athlete and Morehead scholar who graduated at Jackson High School.

The ICT Club officers and Mr. Stokes attended the district leadership conference of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America in Goldsboro, Saturday, November 13.

Bobby Lassiter, president of the NCHS club; Tommy Lee Johnson, vice president; and Judy Martin, secretary, attended the all-day session in which district officers were elected and work-

This was an aptitude test and was not given for the purpose of enlistment. Those taking the test were: Joseph Jenkins, Sonny Goodwin, Johnny Conwell, William Overton, Carey Parker, J. Vann, Larry Ricks, Jerry Lassiter, Pell Lassiter, Mike Howell, Charles Martin, E. G. Harvin, Kenneth Smith and Gilbert Jenkins.

Give Historical Books To Chowan

MURFREESBORO — E. Franklin Stephenson, Jr., of Severn, 1962 graduate of Chowan College, has given the college library four volumes of historical significance to the area, it was announced Thursday.

They included: The Colonial Records of North Carolina, volumes 1 and 2 of "The Papers of John Willis Ellis," and Clement Hall, A Collection of Many Christian Experiences.

Stephenson and his wife, the former Margaret (Peggy) Long of Richmond, have demonstrated their deep interest in North Carolina history, with their recent purchase of Murfreesboro's historic Meredith home which they plan to restore.

Mrs. Stephenson, who also is a 1962 Chowan graduate, teaches mathematics and science at Murfreesboro High School. Her husband is U.S. history teacher and guidance counselor at Southampton County High School, Courtland, Va.

PHILADELPHIA — A two-year-old girl, Margaret Kelly of Orelan, Pa., strangled when she put her head through the back window of a power-operated car. She was pronounced dead on arrival at the Chestnut Hill Hospital.

CHEVROLET WORKPOWER

WITH DOUBLE-STRONG CONSTRUCTION

Chevy pickups for '66 are built strong to stand up to tough jobs. Cabs, for example, have double-wall roof construction, a rigid double-wall cowl and husky framing around door openings. Lower side panels of Fleetside models are also double-walled. Chassis, too, is designed for extra strength. You can get a 6½-, 8-, or 9-ft. body and a big new 250-cu.-in. Six. Or specify a rugged 327-cu.-in. V8. Get a double-strong pickup that's a glutton for work!
