Investigating Highway Patrolman Charles Ayscue of Ahoskie.

The collision occurred at the intersection of N.C. 305 and N.C. 35 at Minton's Store, six miles east of Rich Square when Linda Lane Sumner, 22, of Rich Square driving a 1965 Ford and Andrew Roger Hildreth, 29, of Richmond in a 1964 Ford halted vehicles for a school bus making a left turn off 305 into 35 at 8:10 a.m. David Chester Bridgers, 45, of Conway, in a 1945 Ford pickup hit the 64 Ford which was telescoped into the 65 Ford with $200 damages to the truck, $800 to the 64 Ford and $300 to the 65 Ford.

There were no injuries.

REDISTRICTING

Washington County was previously represented in the Senate by Sen. Ashley Futrell of Washington.

It is expected that both Senatorial seats will be contested during the May primary. Former Sen. Perry W. Martin of Rich Square is expected to oppose Sen. Harrington. If Sen. Winslow files for the other Senate job, he will probably have opposition. Among those thought to be considering running is former Sen. N. Elton Aulet of Elizabeth City.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hollowell and children of Fayetteville and Miss Addie Elliott were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Lucy Hollowell and Hugh Hollowell.

Beth and Jeff Bolton of Elizabeth City spent a few days with their grandmother, Mrs. Ray Bryant last week. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bolton of Elizabeth City were weekend guests.

Mrs. Bruce Spivey of Roxobel visited Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Womble Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Tyler and son and Mrs. Beulah Smith spent Saturday in Fayetteville with Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Tyler and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lovegrove and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Felton and children in Colerain Sunday.

Mrs. Bennett Hughes and daughter, Mary Beth of Jackson were Sunday supper guests of Mrs. M. A. Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Barnes and daughter, Janice of Hampton were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leggett.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Johnson visited his mother, Mrs. Mamie Johnson in Edgecombe General Hospital in Tarboro on Sunday.

Sunday guests of Mrs. Cella Chappell and family were Luther Britt of Hobbsville, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Gilbert and son, Edward of Murfreesboro and Jack and Jimmy Boyce.

Suspended Sentence Given On Pig Stealing Charge

JACKSON — Judge Ballard S. Gay sentenced three men, charged with stealing pigs, to 12 months in jail, assigned to work on the roads, in last week's session of Recorder's Court.

The judge suspended the active sentence, however, on the following conditions: (1) that each defendant pay the court costs (2) each be placed on probation for two years (3) and that each man pay a total of $40.35 restitution to Miland Hines for the pigs stolen.

James Harris, John Thomas Maggatte and Floyd Tamm, all of the Rich Square area, had been arrested for pig stealing and charged with larceny. They allegedly stole some pigs from the farm of Miland Hines, also of the Rich Square area.

Other matters heard during the day's session were routine and were dominated by the usual motor vehicle violations.

Bennie Newman Parks, Jr., of Rich Square, charged with reckless driving, was given six months on the roads, suspended on payment of a $50 fine and the court costs after Judge Gay found him guilty as charged.

R. J. High of Skippers, Va., was given a 90-days road sentence, suspended on payment of the court costs and payment of $15 restitution to the prosecuting witness, after being found guilty of assault and pulling a knife on Lorenzi Smith (no address). The $15 was to go to Smith for payment of a coat.

Lewis Craine of Garysburg, assault on a female, nol pros on payment of the court costs.

Thomas Day of Margarettsville, nonsupport, nol pros.

Junis Louis Bedrow of Garysburg, making movement with a motor vehicle without due caution, fined $25 and the court costs.

Thomas L. Burns of Conway, failure to see an intended movement with a motor vehicle could be made safely, and failure to report an accident, taxed with the court costs in each case.

Laurie Jenkins Vann, Jr., of Route 1, Conway, failure to report an accident and failure to sound horn before overtaking another vehicle, taxed with the court costs in each case.

David Earl Coggins of Route 1, Conway, making a movement without due caution, prayer for judgment continued on payment of court costs.

James M. Gatling of Jackson, speeding 70 mph in a 60 zone, fined $10 and the court costs.

King Harris of Garysburg, failure to maintain proof of financial responsibility (no liability insurance), nol pros.

Ronald Harrison of Route 1,

Seaboard, speeding 70 mph in a 60 zone; fined $10 and court costs.

George Lee Coleman of Scotland Neck, speeding 70 mph in a 60 zone, fined $10 and court costs.

George Lee Coleman of Scotland Neck, speeding 70 mph in a 60 zone, fined $10 and court costs.

Richard B. Rook of the Star Route, Emporia, Va., driving while drunk, warrant amended by the court to read reckless driving, defendant found guilty and fined $25 and court costs.

Raymond Spruill of the Star Route, Rich Square, no operator's permit, taxed with the court costs.

Red Velvet Ball Given At Armory

RICH SQUARE — The first Red Velvet Ball sponsored by the Silverlites Club of Rich Square was held in the National Guard Armory in Woodland on December 27.

A red, white and green color scheme was used in decorating. Each table was covered with a red cloth and held holly rings, centered with lighted red and white candles. A white Christmas tree with red balls was placed in the center of the floor.

Boxes of white matches with "The Silverlites" lettered in gold were presented guests as souvenirs.

Mrs. Vera Cross of Norfolk, the orchestra's vocalist, presented the following club members:

Mrs. Beatrice Strayhorne, Mrs. Jeanne Moore, Mrs. Elsie Winfrey, Mrs. Willis Scott, Mrs. Janice Drew, Mrs. Pecola Boone, Mrs. Bettie Briley, Mrs. Mollie Casterlow, Mrs. Zeophia Casterlow, Mrs. Doris Pope, Mrs. Bernice Scott, Mrs. Thelma Shoulers and Mrs. Anne Wright.
