The Glee Club performed for the district meeting of the school boards held at NCHS Thursday, January 26, from 4 to 8 p.m. The club, directed by Mrs. Horne, sang for the approximately 135 visitors at the dinner hour in the cafeteria. Calvin Woodard, who accompanied the group, was especially complimented by members of the audience, according to Mrs. Horne.

The Glee Club program consisted of "He," "The Bells of St. Mary," "Bali Hai," "This Is My Country," "Sound of Music" and "Climb Every Mountain."

Mrs. Horne said she was pleased with the performance. Mrs. Benthall and Mrs. Bullock supervised the serving of the meal provided by Whitley's Barbecue of Murfreesboro.

The guidance directors, officially hosted by Mrs. Burgwyn, county director, assisted by Mrs. Futrell, NCHS counselor, met at NCHS last Friday.

About 27 visitors arrived. They met in Miss Edwards' homeroom, toured the building and went to the Red Apple Restaurant for lunch.

Tim Coggins was named the editor of the NCHS magazine to be published by the journalism class. David Draper was elected assistant editor. The name of the magazine will be announced at a later date.

The spring edition of the magazine will include work of the journalism class and that of other students and teachers at NCHS.

Next Monday about 170 teachers and principals of this county and adjoining counties will meet at NCHS in an area conference of the North Carolina Education Association.

Miss Nell Martin, president of the Northampton unit, will be official hostess, assisted by teachers and principals at NCHS and other members of the county unit.

Supper will be served cafeteria-style in the cafeteria by the Beta Club, its sponsors and parents of several Betas.

Mid-term examinations ended on Friday, January 20, after three days of exams with two scheduled each day.

As the term ended, the third six weeks ended also. Report cards were given out Monday, January 30. Two sets of grades and an examination grade appeared on them.

REALLY FLIPPED! A 1964 Corvair rests bottom-up in a swampy area off Highway 258 between Rich Square and Scotland Neck after it turned over Monday injuring a passenger. State Trooper Glenn Swanson said the car, driven by Richard Garcia Jr. of Pope Air Force Base, went out of control after colliding with a second vehicle, driven by Herbert Jordon of Northampton County. Mrs. Garcia was treated at Roanoke-Chowan Hospital for a broken collar bone. No charges were preferred.

Devils Take Double Win Over Littleton

By MARY BETH PRUETTE
MURFREESBORO — Murfreesboro took a double win from Littleton's Blue Jays Tuesday night when the two teams met on Murfreesboro's home court.

In the girls game, the Devilettes, going into overtime, sliced a 35-33 victory margin over their competitors while the boys overcame the visiting Jays, 53-46, Girls Game

Littleton took the lead in the first quarter by pulling ahead of the fighting Red Devilettes seven to five. Dianne Parker scored all five points for the red team while Cathy Clark and Mary Lou Robertson were the scorers for Littleton.

Littleton picked up to 12 points in the second quarter while Murfreesboro dropped in seven points. Josie Ferguson and Patty McLean also added to the scoring this quarter for the red ladies. Cathy Clark scored five of Littleton's points.

The halftime score was 19-12 in Littleton's favor.

The Red Devilettes dropped in eight points in the third quarter while Littleton slowed down to six points. The same three Devils scored. At the end of the third quarter the Blue Jays held a five-point lead over the Devils, 25-20.

Murfreesboro picked up to their usual game in the fourth quarter by topping the Blue Jays five points, 11 to six. Lavinia Vann dropped in six of the Devils' 11 points. This brought the score to 32-32 when the final buzzer sounded.

Murfreesboro now went into its first three minute overtime of the year. Murfreesboro did an excellent job of holding the ball. Littleton finally decided to foul in hopes of getting the ball in their possession but the Devils were as strong on their rebounding as they were on stalling the ball.

Lavinia Vann, Cecille Liverman and Patty McLean all shot free throws in the overtime to bring the Devils' score to 35, while Littleton only made one of their four free throws. The final score of this unbearably exciting game was 35 to 33 in the hot Devilettes favor.

Dianne Parker was high scorer for Murfreesboro with 13 points. Patty McLean had eight points, Lavinia Vann, seven, and Josie Ferguson, six points. Cathy Clark was high for Littleton with 16 points.
