ELIZABETH CITY —The ninth annual Albemarle Craftsman's Fair will be held here April 19, 20, and 21 at the National Guard Armory. The fair will be open from noon to 9 p.m. each of the three days.
Northampton County will be represented among the 55 craftsmen by Mrs. R. O. Harris of Garysburg. Mrs. Harris will be showing feather, fabric and straw hat making.
Mrs. Harris is a member of the Garysburg Extension Homemakers Club and has been making hats for years. She received some training at a workshop held in Northampton County in 1959 on straw hat making and one held on fabric hat making. Mrs. Harris later attended the district craft workshop in Greenville and learned to make feather hats. "She has always put into practice what she learned and is an unselfish leader who has conducted many workshops in our county, teaching others how to make hats. We are especially pleased that Mrs. Harris has been accepted into the craftsman's fair this year," commented Mrs. Autrey B. Jenkins, Northampton County home economics extension agent.
The Conway 4-H'ers under the leadership of Mrs. Lynnore Gay and Mrs. Linwood Ward will be featured in the Youth Center. These boys and girls will be demonstrating on Thursday, April 20, from 5 to 9 p.m. steps in copper tooling. They will also have their finished products on display. Youths from 10 other counties will be demonstrating the other two days of the fair.
Admission will be charged. Some of the crafts to be seen are weaving, caning, cornshuck dolls and mats, wood carving, cooper tooling, wheel thorn stoneware, crewel embroidery and hat making.

READY FOR CRAFTSMAN'S FAIR — Mrs. Raymond O. Harris of Garysburg shows off several of the hats she'll have on display at the 9th annual Albemarle Craftsman's Fair, to be held in Elizabeth City April 19-21.
