

Edwards-Garriss Vows Spoken In St. Johns

ST. JOHNS - In a double ring ceremony Saturday, June 14, performed by the Rev. Nathan L. Modling Jr. of Aulander Baptist Church, Miss Rachel Garriss became the bride of William Howard Edwards of Ahsokie.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mrs. Bertha Garriss of Conway. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Edwards of Ahsokie.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, W. H. Blowe.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Bill Robinson, sister of the bridegroom, of Winston-Salem. Bridesmaids were Cindy Liverman of Ahsokie and Shirley Morris of Aulander.

Mrs. J. J. Rhea, sister of the bridegroom, was mistress of ceremony.

The bridegroom's brother, Whit Edwards, served as best man. Ushers were Bill Robinson of Winston-Salem, Clarence Greene of Ahsokie, Mike Lassiter and Ray Rawls of Aulander.

Flower girl was Sandy Blowe, niece of the bride, and ring-bearer was Douglas Blowe, nephew of the bride.

Music was provided by James Farmer of Aulander, soloist, and Royce Overton of Ahsokie, organist. The bride is a graduate of Ahsokie High School and is employed by Kellwood Corp. The bridegroom is a graduate of Ahsokie High School and is employed by Ahsokie Tire Service.

After a wedding trip to the Outer Banks the couple will reside in Powellsville.

COURTESIES
May 16 - Miscellaneous show-er at St. Johns Community Building given by friends. The bride was presented a corsage and many useful gifts.

June 13 - Mrs. J. J. Rhea and Mrs. Clarence Greene entertained the couple and the wedding party at a cake cutting at the St. Johns Community Building.

DO

...go in for some old-fashioned bargain hunting! Comparison-shop your usual markets and department stores. Look for "in-season" meats, fruits, vegetables. Set a monthly food budget and stick to it. How? Buy staples first and when you get down to the end, it's budget meals instead of filet mignon to finish out the week. Do the same thing with family trips.

Mrs. William Howard Edwards

ENGAGED - Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt C. Gay of Seaboard announce the engagement of their daughter, Melinda Sue, to Robert Henry Gay Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Gay Sr. of Seaboard. An August 10 wedding is planned.
