From Roanoke Valley Nursing Home

All of the Christmas decorations have been put away and we have started another year. The patients wish to thank all of you for the gifts, cards, fruit and flowers and each visit. Much happiness was enjoyed the past year from your love and thoughts.

We would like to welcome our newest staff member, Mrs. Pam Johnson, who will work as a nurses aide.

Mrs. Minnie Hall was given an orchid corsage by Mrs.

Lucy Taylor. The orchid is a homegrown one from the Taylor's hot house.

All of the patients enjoyed snow cream made in the kitchen Monday from the first snow this year.

The Rev. Harold Rumpf, pastor of Rich Square Baptist Church, held Sunday morning worship services. He was assisted by Miss Sadie Futrell at the piano.

The singing was led by Mrs. Florence Conner and Anita, Nelda and Tressa Conner.

Lasker Baptist News

A Youth Choir directed by Miss Donna Elks and made up of the young people from the Lasker Baptist Church and the New Hope United Methodist Church December 20 gave a program of Christmas music, both secular and spiritual at the Roanoke Valley Nursing Home in Rich Square and the Pine Forest Rest Home in Potecasi. They also carolled at several places of shut-ins in Rich Square, Dusty Hill and Lasker. The young people on their return were entertained at a Christmas party at the Baptist Church. Adults accompanying the group on their caroling tour were: Mrs. Blannie Britton, Mrs. Martha White, Mrs. Clarine Outland and the Rev. Jack P. Morgan.

The WMU Society of the Lasker Baptist Church under the direction of Mrs. Essie Warren, president and Mrs. Frances Daughtry, Community Missions chairman prepared and distributed Christmas cheer baskets to all the area shut ins and persons above 70 years young.

The Lasker Youth Choir under the direction of Miss Donna Elks presented a program of Christmas music at the 10 a.m. worship service at the New Hope United Methodist Church Sunday, December 14. The same program was presented at the 11 a.m. worship service at the Lasker Baptist Church.

The Rev. Jack P. Morgan, pastor of the Lasker Baptist Church is delivering during the 11 a.m. worship service a series of messages based on the Ninth Chapter of the Book of Isaiah, Verse 6.

Due to the efforts of the WMU of Lasker Baptist Church, all the Sunday morning worship services are recorded on tape and used in a ministry to shut-ins who are unable to attend church services. A regular schedule is followed on Sunday-Thursdays to make the tape available to the shut-ins. Anyone wishing to hear or use the tape on Friday or Saturday of any week should contact either Mrs. Alise Askew, Mrs. Blannie Britton, or the Rev. Jack P. Morgan.
