A LITTLE MORE.

Again have we tried to arouse the proper authorities to the necessity of taking steps toward removing the accumulated filth from the town, and again has our note of warning fallen upon deaf and unbelieving ears.

We do not know who constitutes the board of health in this town, and we have no desire to trample upon or wound the feelings of any man, but we do know that the village is in a filthy, dirty and unhealthful condition, and it is not being cleansed.

We might rest easily upon our oars, doing nothing, but every day that we procrastinate, only serves to bring the danger closer about our lives and firesides.

The newspapers of Chicago know how to censure and to give advice, and if they are so desirous of freeing the negro from Southern oppression, why did they not call out the chivalry of Chicago to protect those three hundred negro miners who were met outside the city by a shot-gun mob and forbidden to enter?

We ask that the town authorities look after this matter in conjunction with the health officers, and we hope to see the condition of this town materially changed in the next few days.

IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

The State Democratic Executive Committee for South Carolina met in the city of Columbia last Thursday evening, July 25th and passed the following resolution:

Whereas the Hon. John L. McLaurin, junior United States Senator elected to represent the State of South Carolina in the national Congress, has by his affiliation and votes in that body, ignored the national Democratic platform and thereby misrepresented his State and his Democratic constituency who elected him. Therefore be it

Resolved, That it is the sense and convictions of the State Democratic Executive Committee that Senator J. L. McLaurin, from the standpoint of honesty and self-respect should tender his unqualified resignation, immediately.

This resolution is couched in no very uncertain language and it shows plainly that a part, if not all, of the South Carolina Democracy is antagonistic to McLaurin and the doctrines and principles enunciated by him.

But, however this may be, the resolution does not have the effect of reading him out of the Democratic party, because the attempt to exercise such a power would be an attempt to exercise that which does not belong to the committee. The committee did not elect the junior Senator to his office, and therefore it has no authority to demand him to resign.

The resolution is nothing more than a request of an organization, indicative of adverse sentiment it is true, but should McLaurin refuse to accede to it, in that instance the committee would be perfectly powerless to enforce it.

THE NEGRO IN THE NORTH.

The press of the North is forever deploring the pitiable condition to which the negro in the South is consigned by the relentless white man, and they never miss an opportunity to score as upon our cruelty. If there were any consistency in them—if they followed out the strict way of perfect fellowship that they prescribe for others, there might be some little reason in the extraordinary tirades of their editorial pens.

The newspapers of Chicago know how to censure and to give advice, and if they are so desirous of freeing the negro from Southern oppression, why did they not call out the chivalry of Chicago to protect those three hundred negro miners who were met outside the city by a shot-gun mob and forbidden to enter?

A special to the Atlanta Constitution from Charleston says in effect that the action of the Democratic State Executive Committee against Senator McLaurin, has greatly strengthened the McLaurin faction in that State, and that his campaign is now being managed by experienced politicians.

Having been appointed and having qualified as administrator of J. L. J. Sycamore, deceased, late of Rutherford county, N.
