Ratherfordton

RUTHERFORDTON, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1901.

"Impossible. They are the crowning | in sight. barbarity of war." "But, general, that one," pointing to world brings you here?" Captain Ringold, "he helped us." "Ah! I had forgotten that." Then, cheeks, her eyes looking anywhere exturning to Ringold: cept on me. Her horse was restive, the "If set at liberty, how long will you two making a picture by no means require to get out of my lines?" quiescent.

"I will go at once." "Go, and if you are seen about here after 'tattoo' this evening you will follow your men." country.' The reprieved man sprang toward Jaqueline, seized ber hand and kissed long to me?"

"I am a changed man," he said as he kissed her hand.

"From this moment 1 am a changed en's, that were glancing about wildly, to a comrade who had been shot in the eyes and kind heart have done it." In of retreat. Bending forward without | "Go out and find my left leg and that honor to request me to act as his best Confederate cavalry came down to man, Jaqueline doubtless having infu-enced his choice. I gladly accepted, tering of the birds in the trees beside hoping that, since Helen was to serve the road. The touching of our lips, ger's banjo and ten minutes after she At last she suddenly disengaged her-

D-0-0-0-0-0-00-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0 "Helen Stanforth! What in the CORPORAL She drew rein and sat with flushed McFADDEN'S LEGHNH "The manner of your leaving the By John Winthrop Green.

Tribune.

"Do I take with me what does not be-Copyright, 1901, by John Winthrop Green. "You are going with our enemies." 9-6-0-0-0-0-60-60-0-0-

I was puzzled. She knew that I was a Union officer and that my duty lay with the departing army. Besides, to remain in the country after its reoccupation by Confederate troops would be as much as my life was worth. I was pany B put $360 in the bank. The more than puzzled; I was irritated, bank was his shoe-the one on his left

"I am not satisfied."

"With what?"

treatment. said."

needs"-

She paused and bit her lip.

my hand on her horse's neck, stroked among a hundred other wounded men. it for a moment till I had quieted him. The loss of his money occurred to him Monawhile my eyes were fixed on Hel- at once, and he made the fact known man," he said to her, "and your bright as if endeavoring to find some means shoulder, a word, I put my arms about her and $300, and I'll give you half the money," Captain Stanforth was soon exchang- drew her to me. Her head sank slow- said the corporal, and the man agreed. ed and before leaving to join his regi- ly, at last resting on the embroidered | It was easy enough to find the "scrap heap" of legs and arms, but not so easy

"Sweetheart, I love you, and I believe to identify a left leg. There were

There was silence, save for the runfluttering or irregular pulsations are an indication of weakness of the nerves or muscles of the heart. A weakness long continued produces deformity PHEN the Sixteenth New and organic disease. If your York marched with Grant into the Wilderness, Corheart action is weak, make it strong. Build up the muscles and strengthen the nerves with the greatest of all heart reme-dies, Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

$1.00 A YEAR.

"Her wife suffered greatly with palpication of the heart, smoth-ering of its and loss of sizep. Size found immediate relief from Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and after a thorough course her trouble all discourse her trouble all disappeared." CAPT. THOS. F. GEORGE. Atheus, Ala.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure

quiets the nervous heart, regu lates its pulsations and builds up its strength as nothing else can. Sold by druggists on a guarantee.

Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Inc.

Notice.

By virtue of the Superior court of Rutherford county, made in the specie proceedings entitled "A, B. Flack, at ministrator of M. H. Flack, L. R. F. and others, the heirs at law of M. Flack," I well sell on the premisepublic anction, on Saturday, September 21st, 1961 at 12 o'clock, noon, about 87 acres of valuable land, lying within the conject limits of Forest City, and her on the east side by Second Bread on the south by the lands of Mrs. Marry, one the west by the lands of B. Thorn, on the north by the lare Wm. Martin. Said land will be socreate assets for the payment of debt against the estate of the said M. Flack, deceased, and will be sold on following terms, to-wit: Ten per coin cash on the day of sale and tweet per cent, on the 15th of November as thirty-five per cent, of the parcha money price to be yaid the 15th of Mar-1902, and thirty-five per cent, to be paion the 1st of November, 1962. Said ferred payments to i.e secured by a new with approved scendity, and to heav terest at the rate of vis per cent. Indate of sale, and the ticle to be retained till all the purchase money is paid. 'But there's something inside the sock," August 22nd, 1901. A. B. FLACK Administrator of M. H. H. H. McBrayer & Justice, Attorneys.

will bring you permanent relief. Console yourself with the knowledge that 1,000,000 women have been completely cured by Wine of Cardui. These women suffered from leucorrheea, irregular menses, headache, backache, and

VOL. I. NO. 35.

STOPS PA

Athens, Tenn., Jan. 27, 1901. Ever since the first appearance of my menses they vere very irregular and I suffered with great pain in my hips, back, etomach and legs, with terrible bearing down pains in the abdomen. During the past month I have been taking Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Drangett and I reased the pompth-burning the of Cardui and Tacalora s taking Wine of Cardui and Tacalora s Black-Draught, and I passed the month-ly period without pain for the first time NANNIE DAVIS.

What is life worth to a woman suffering like Nannio Davis suffered? Yet there are women in thousands of homes to-day who are bearing those terrible same

Athens, Tenn., Jan. 27, 1901.

bearing down pains. Wine of Cardui will stop all these aches and pains for you. Purchase a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui to-day and take-it in the privacy of your home.

For advice and literature, achivess, giving symp-The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga,

Notice.

On Saturday, the 28th of September, ed his invitation. 190L, I will sell at the court house door in Rutherfordton, for each at public outcry, all the right, title, interest and estate of L. C. Robins in and to the following described pieces or pareels of land lying in 'intherford county, on the drink one glass of wine to show that but to protect." ed, bounded as follows: Beginning at a strong southern impulse, angered if I lowing an error?

menstrual pains in silence. If you are I want to see," she said enthusiasticalone of these we want to say that this "Golly!" cried Buck behind me. Turn-WINE or CARDU ing, I saw what had surprised himthe guerrilias riding by as prisoners. her uncompromising fury. I was be-They had been conducted to Shelby- wildered, entangled in the meshes of ville by the company of cavalry which her beauty, her relentless will power. had captured them and were now a Then suddenly a cold chill swept over took both her hands in mine.

a moment upon hers. The advancing army moved rapidly on and was soon a mingled mass of guns and horses in the distance. The sun touched bayonets and flags flashed for an instant, then were lost in a turn in the road. The region which had so suddenly been enlivened relapsed into the quiet of the country.

Jaqueline begged me to go into the house. I declined. Mr. Stanforth add-

"Thank you, Mr. Stanforth, but I must rejoin my regiment at once. This "You shall come in long enough to

SWEET

Copyright, 1897, by Harper & Brothers

Fortunately at that moment I espied little Ethel looking at me wistfully and, taking her up, hid my face and ing up, 1 saw that Jack was waiting for me, and, going upon the veranda, I

"Yo're the only Yankee in the world

my anguish in her tresses. Then, look- end?"

REVENGE

Captain F. A. MITCHEL,

"Coward?' cried Helen.

I turned to her scornfully. "Who

"Who now begs for her brother's life

"1? Never!" She sprang between

She stood glaring at me, beautiful in at the hands of a southern renegade?"

bade me pursue this man to the bitter

"Who promised to aid me?"

me and her brother. "Fire!"

Author of "Chattanooga," "Chickamaug in east Tennessee a party of Unionists wedding took place at the Rutland on their way north were ambushed by plantation. The groom did me the you love me."

"I."

"1."

said, turning, "that on a certain night ment was united to Jaqueline. The leaves that denoted my rank.

citizens with shotguns. A body of their assistance. You, captain"-"It is false. I led my company to another moment he was cone.

the scene you mention not to attack, as first bridesmaid, our being thrown her heart beating against mine, stray together might heal the breach be- strands of her hahr falling over my waters of Main Broad river, it being the you are our friend." I saw that he It was now my turn to stand stupe- tween us. Ten minutes before the cere- wrist, the moisture in her eyes, bring lands of which Rhillip Robins died seiz- would be not only hurt, but, with his fied. Had I been all these months fel- meny Jaqueline was strumming Gin- a new warmth to usy heart even today.

deployed, with a hundred other regi-"I spent my time rescuing a renegade." ments, to face them. Skirmishing had "I see no occasion for you to come only begun when Corporal McFadden after me to hurl that taunt anew. We had his leg shattered by a bullet. Of smarting as 1 was under her recent foot. In due time the Confederates were found in line of battle across the "This is not what dissatisfies you," I line of march, and the Sixteenth was

poral McFadden of Com-

of Main refused, and I reluctantly consented to runs thence with lines of the same south mer host. 154, west 97 poles to a small persimmon.

corner or same; thence south as west 29 and was turning into the library, of that terrible night I shall always tion in which they held their young parting kiss, then I let her go. As she west 31 poles to a pine; thence same where I had passed my time while remember-a murder that 1 punished mistress. course 50 poles to two post oaks on top wounded, when Jack guided me into with my own hand. I saw a woman I was disappointed in my hope that her: of ridge; thence north 32 west 6 poles to the parlor opposite. Helen left us and flying for protection to a man who the festivities would thaw the obdurate "You forgive me for threatening your a small pine on the old line; there with went into the library. Lib came in stood near her. A cowardly car beside heart of the woman I loved. She re- brother, for trying to compel you to it south 35 west 112 poles to a stake on bearing a decanter and glasses. I me fired, and she fell through her pro- mained cold even when her hand was beg for his life?" the Speculation line; thence with the bearing a decanter and glasses. I me fred, and she fen through her pro-named cold even when her hand was old hne; thence with it and south 62 cast 118 poles to a pine on McKinney company, promising that during the shot the murderer dead." Ine at the edge of old field, crossing the occupation by the Union forces I would "You shot the murderer?" branch north 18 west 70 poles to a stake use my influence to gain them every I had no tongue for other words. "Have you not one kinds word for in the road; thenee with said road north favor and protection. I had drained This man, dear to Helen, dear to Juck. me?" I asked. 27 cast to a stake at white oak in the my glass and, setting it down, was dear to all this household, was not only "Not one. I can respect a northern | fork of the branch ; thence north 83 poles about to go out to mount my, horse innocent of the crime f had imputed to soldier, not a southern man who wears "there is no inconsistency, no incongrato a stake; thence north 5212 east 82 when Helen came out of the library him, but was my averger. I took one the blue." poles to a persimmon; thence north 21_{2}^{1} when Helen came out of the library him, but was my averager. 1 took cast 41 poles to an ash on bank of the river; thence up the same to the begin. with an officer in Confederate unlming, containing eighty-one and three form. His forehead was bound with a handkerchief, he walked with difficulquarters acres, more or less.

That the said interests of L. G. Rob- ty and, I judged, had been severely been for these two women 1 would at Shiloh and our own bloodless con- against Thomas at Nashville, but it time. The messenger made a selection ins in the said lands will be sold by vir- wounded. Jack sprang forward and have shot you down where you stand." quest of northern Alabama were not was not till after the surrender at Ap- and removed the shoe, but there was the of a mortgage deed with full powers seized the other hand.

of sale executed by L. G. Robins and wife to the undersigned on the 5th day "my brother." of February, 1893, and registered in Book H of Real estate mortgages on page

382, now on file in the Register's office emvi for Rutherford county, to which refer-ence is hareby made. This Aug. 27, 1901. ANNIE BRISCOE, Mortgagee. As at night by a flash of lightning distinct in all its details, so I saw again

McBraver & Jostice, Attorneys.

Land Sale.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a mortgage deed, made on the 26th day of March, 1897, to J. B. Steadman, the undersigned mortgagee, by Ed Duncan and Lorenzo Duncan, I will sell to my hand to my revolver. house door in Rutherfordton on a certain tract of land described in said mortgage deed and lying and being in shoot an unarmed man?" the county of Rutherford, and more parabout four links north of it, marked as peared as her brother. Book "H" at page 127, to which reference is hereby made for a more full acber 5th, 1901.

Monday, October 7th, 1901,

J. B. STEADMAN, Mortgagee. Eaves & Rucker, Attorneys.

NOTICE!

The undersigned, H. H. Hicks, having applied for and obtained letters of ador this notice will be pleaded in bar of still, her face denoting the smothered recovery on claims not presented within fires of a volcano. the time herein named. This July 23rd, 1901. Admisistrator of Ceily D. Haney. McBraver & Justice, Attorneys.

The undersigned has been appointed barism should have come to me at this the same time. and has qualified as administrator of the critical moment when of all others 1 "Are these the men?" he asked.

"I came on the ground," Captain had become a bride was standing on telf and, as though ashamed of he Broad river, corner to lot No. 3, and spare a few minutes to pledge my for- Stanforth continued, "just in time to the rear gallery tossing presents to a surrender, turned her horse to move witness the most diabolical sight I growd of black people below, whose away. I caught her and held her long corner of same; thence south 58 west 29 I entered the house supporting Jack ever saw in the south. One incident upturned faces indicated the adora-ceremony. Later, finding her apart from the others, I approached her.

"No."

"Be it as you wish." Mounting my horse, I rode back to camp with a heavy heart. The advantages gained by our force again when Hood was marching dred, with the heap growing all the I stroke to the door, rushed down the vigorously followed up. The enemy pomnttox that she consented to a un- no money. He tried again and again, "Major Branderstane," said Helen, patch to the gate, mounted my horse withdrew to Tupelo, Miss., where he ion that was to be simultaneous with but did not hit it. Then he gave up

> General Bragg through Chettanooga mained a secret between me and my slightly wounded in the head came into Kentucky.

One morning in September orders to her that during the war I performed and said to bimself:

"Who was that?"

"My sweetheart!"

THE END.

A Glib Talker.

TAUGHT the troops just as they northward. Bragg was advancing, ing my papers she one day came upon it would be a pity to bury them with third about 16% acres. were entering the city. All that marching on Cincinnati or Louisville. a document got up in red and black legs and feet. I'll change mine for a we could have wished for was ac- thus compelling the abandonment of ink in the form common in the army. better pair." complished. The whole territory the territory we had acquired in the "What's all this about?" she asked. In overhauling the relies he came was surprised and defenseless, and a spring and requiring us to hasten to "'Gallant and meritorious services in upon Cerporal McFadden's left'leg. He assetts with which to pay duits again-And now before me stood the man with hundred miles of railroad fell into our the protection of the threatened cities. the capture of Huntsville, Decatur and removed the shoe and found it a fit. the smoking pistol. Involuntarily 1 put hands. Machine shops, rolling stock in After making my preparations for the Stephenson Junction.' I thought that Then he found a right one and was abundance, telegraph and all other move I left the command, intending to when the Yankees surprised Hunts- provided for. Grant moved by the lands may bring the lest price. On the bighest bidder for cash at the court "I am your prisoner, sir," he said paraphernalia for operating the line join it on the march, and rode over to ville you were at our house." were among the trophies, and on the the Stanforths to take my leave. Jack- "That?" I said, taking the paper and did the same. The field was left in pos- quired on the day of sale and one this morning after the capture the men who son announced me, and I sat down in pretending to scrutinize it. "Oh, that session of the Union forces. Next on the first day of Junnary, 1902, a Helen's eyes flashed. "Would you had been employed under the direction, the little library I had occupied three was for capturing a rebel."

of the Confederate government went months before while my wound was "What rebel?" to work for the United States. And now followed a rest for three friends. I was startled by the voice of you remember the scene in which your Fadden sent word to the sergeant in months, a longer stay in one place than | Buck coming from above:

any I experienced during the war. -It "Lib, doggone it, whar's my swearin "Do you mean to call drawing your "He's evazy," replied the sergeant. 1, and running thence with line of lot No. 1 north 28 west 17 33-100 chains to moved not, spoke not, but stood star-No. 1 north 28 west 17 53-100 chains to moved not, spoke not, but stood star-had it not been for my estrangement what Major Brandystone tole me to and meritorious act?"

links to a stone in Briscoe line; thence with his line south 70½ cast 82 links to stone, his corner; thence with his line north 26 east 5 20-100 chains to stone in pursue, against whom she had even to me, though Jack and Buck loved me face became radiant, and, jumping into another rebel more rebellious than into the pit, and the men began shovelhis line; thence south 341 east 23 chains voluntarily pledged herself to aid me as 1 loved them. Helen remained ob- my arms, he hugged me like a young your brother." to a stake and pointers with a black gum in my revenge, had now suddenly ap- durate. In vain I sought to soften her bear. The others soon entered. Mr. by those attentions' with which men Stanforth, who by this time had openly corner in Briscoe line; thence south 80 "I was wounded," said the officer. seek to entrap a woman's heart. She avowed his affection for the Union, her. would not even treat me with indiffer- parted from me with regret, not unence. I was to her a renegade to the mixed with apprehension lest upon the south, an unpardonable offender. . return of the Confederates he might I reported the case of Captain Stan- suffer for his attentions to our troops. forth to the general and secured from Mrs. Stanforth bade me adieu with him a parole, which enabled him to di- motherly affection. Little Ethel put vide his time between his father's her arms about my neck and wonderhouse and the Rutland plantation with ed. Buck for the moment in his affechis fiancee Jaqueline, who soon nursed tion for me forgot that he was a Conhim back to health. Captain Beaumout federate sympathizer and insisted on was brought to Huntsville under guard, going with me. Helen stood aloof and ed to say something, but the bore wavand I interested myself in securing for at the last moment seemed more bitter There was a brief murmur among him an early exchange, which, after than ever. There was a flush upon her ministration on the estate of Celly D. those looking on, then they stood hearing of Jack's engagement, he was cheek and a bright spark in her eyes.

ga, vowing that he would give his life | "Never to an enemy," she replied.

too manly and chivalrous to cast the 'tion at her act, but I did not listen to slightest blame on Jack for his disap- it. Turning on my heel, I left the room and the house and in another moment

One morning I took my friends from was galloping away. Mr. Stanforth's-excepting Helen-into My regiment was moving on a road but calm, "why you desire my death?" headquarters and introduced them to leading northward and to the east of "The wrong, the brutal wrong you the general. He was aware of our the main pike, so I was obliged to ride coming and had directed that the out- across country to rejoin. Large armies

"I'll come when the Union is saved." "When the Confederacy is acknowledged," and the shot around the bend out of sight. "I believe," I mused, as I rode on, ity, that does not enter into the composition of woman."

We met again a year later, shortly before the battle of Chickamauga, and rights and lefts to the number of a hua-wife. I have never ventured to confess along and looked the "scrap heap" over came for us to break camp and march one act of sceret service. In overhaul- "There are some good shoes here, and 31 acres, another about 40 acres and said Smith

flank that night, and the Confederates third of the purchase price will be re-healing to await the appearance of my I hesitated, then prevaricated. "Don't amputated arms and legs Corporal Mebrother bore an important part?" charge of that detail about his $300.

> legs, all looking alike, and how are we "Oh, they complimented everybody to pick out his?"

ing in the dirt. As they worked away the sergeant suddenly said: I put my arms about her and kissed "Here, now, but you've overlooked that leg in the bushes. You, Smith, haul it out and dump it in." "But there's something inside the sock." said Smith. "Hoid easy, now, till I see what II is."

A rather distinguished man had one evening a visitor who began to speak the sock, and there was the corporal's cause, if they be living, will take nabout a certain branch of science. The greenbacks, tonly three of the party host, perhaps a dozen times in the saw the money. They winked at each space of two hours and a half, gave a other and pocketed the find and inter preliminary "Hem?" because he want- on made a divide. That closed the in- in Rutherford County and fully as a ed him down with a suave "One mo- McFadden was sent to a hospital in the said defendants, if they be baner ment, if you please!" What the gagged Washington and soon rallied. The solman wanted to say and eventually did diers who had gobbled his money went required to appear before the clerk of say was that his caller's lecture, though to the front, and one day before Petersinteresting, was perfectly familiar to burg Smith was mortally wounded. ty, at his office in Rutherforder, the To ease his conscience he told about the "You are, in fact," he concluded, "dis- "divide," and a chaplafn wrote down coursing on my own special subject." Such a statement should have dis-concerted a man who had talked with story. A surgeon and a staff officer be-M. O. DICKERSON, C S. J. concerted a man who had talked with story. A surgeon and a staff officer beone even flow for the space of 150 min- came interested with the chaplain on utes, but not at all! With the placid one side, and the captain of Company confidence of the thorough paced bore B, the colonel of the Sixteenth and he sweetly remarked: "Ah, well, you see how copiously 1 iy enough, the soldier who stole Me-others took up the other side. Curiouscan talk on that subject! Next time 1 Fadden's shoe came forward and accall you shall see that I can be quite as knowledged it, but it was a long time in this instance we had entered upon dear"

The weight of the neaviest horse this time colonels, brigadiers and major parties having claims against will even

Notice.

On Monday the 7tth day of October "iny brother." and without once looking back at the formed a new army, which early in the reunion of the states. and searched no further. Soon after gaping crowd behind me galloped down the fall marched under the Confederate One important fact has always re- he let go a soldier who had been coart house door in Ratherfordien, he C., three pieces or parcels of hand cortaining from 50 to 90 acres, being a parof the lands known as the Boseweitic lands. One parcel containing a

> The said lands will be sold under decree of the Superior Court of Ruil ford county for the purp. of creater said estate, and will be offered first . separate lots and afterwards as a when and will be sold in that way that the morning the work of burial began, the remaining one-third on the first While a big hole was being dug for the of April, 1992, the two orferred to ments to hear interest frem date of sal and to be secured by notes with appo ed scenrity. The title will be return until purchase money is fully paid.

Plats or maps of said land, with fr J. F. FLACE, Ad'mr. of W. S. Hill. dec

McBrayer & Justice, Attorneys.

Notice

NORTH CAROLINA. (In Superior Course Ratherford County, \ Before the Cle. % Isabella Lane and others, Novi -

$3. Ellison Clements and others. Mrs. Nancy Wallace, Joseph Clement-Mrs. Nancy Goffey, and Mrs. Sugar With his knife the soldier ripped up | Wilkie, defendants in the above enti-

that an action entitled as above has a commenced in the Experior Court of Rutherford County before the Cle 4 soll certain lands for partition. siten will further take notice that they the Superior Court of Ratherfeed Cea 30th day of September, 1901, and a set or demar to the petition on file. CT petitioners will apply to the coast f

McBrayer & Justice, Attorneys for Petitioners.

NOTICE!

The undersigned having one ific administratrix of the Estate c Toms, deceased, notice is hereby persons indeleted to said estate to forward and settle some at once. in to the Confederacy if he could find a turning away.

pointment.

"You have been mistaken?" "So far mistaken that had it not the road after the advancing army.

CHAPTER XXIR. THE UNION SAVED.

"Thank God!"

the events of the night of the massacre. There were the flashing shotguns, the soldiers coming down the hill, a figure with garments streaming in the wind running to me for protection.

quickly. "You do not need your weap-

Jack, mute with terror, staggered to ticularly described as follows, to-wit: the gray clad figure and clung to it, Beginning on a stone and pointers in her expressive eyes bent on me, a min-Briscoe line, also the corner to lot No. gled flame of reproach and wrath. a stone corner; thence north 3934 east 90 ing at the group that stared at me. from Helen Stanforth. Though I was git."

count of said mortgage. This Septem- hunting for you for months." "Me?" "You." "What for?"

west 8 57-100 chains with it to the be- "at Fort Donelson and was brought ginning, confiaining 13 59-100 acres. Said mortgage has been duly recorded in the office of the Register of D eds in to endure the fatigue of flight: therefore I am compelled to surrender." "Captain Stanforth, I have been

A hush came over all, as if about to listen to a sentence of death. "To kill you."

Haney, late of Rutherford county, here-by gives notice to all persons indebted to in what promised to be a tragedy. Set the lines to Chattanoo-hand to her. the same. Also all persons holding Only Helen knew what my words claims against said estate are hereby re- meant. I saw a spasmodic quiver pass quired to present the same duly authent- over her as I had seen death touch a Yankee bullet to assist him. He was | There was a murmur of disapprobaicated to the undersigned for payment comrade who had been shot in battle. on or before the 23rd day of July, 1902, Then, gathering her forces, she stood

> "May I ask, sir," said the officer, pale H. H. HICKS, did."

NOTICE! I know not why some demon of bar- laws should be brought before him at necessarily move slowly, and, although forced marches, I knew that I had the estate of Mrs. Mary Nabors, deceased, should have shown gentleness and "Yes, general," I replied. plenty of time. I was riding leisurely ever known was 3,000 pounds. This generals had become interested, and are required to LICS ET THE FAIL Corporal McFadden's name was a authenticated to the understape late of Rutherford county. All persons magnanimity. Here was an opportuni- To an officer of the guard he said: through a lonely road when I heard Clydesdale horse was exhibited in New household word in the Army of the Po- payment or of before toth day a indebted to said estate are requested to ty to make a graceful acknowledg- "Take them away. I don't wish to see the sound of horse's hoofs behind me. York in 1889. It was 2012 hands high, independence in requestion in the requesting requestion in the requestion in the req tomac. At length the guilty private by, 1902, or this write will be plet bur of their recovery. This September was crazed by Helen's treatment. 1 what they meant, turned pale. She coming of friend or foe. My pursuer It was of perfect proportions, with a of the army. Between them they had MeBrayer & Justice, afterneys. h, 1901. J, F. FLACK, Administrator of Mrs. Mary Nabors. drew my revolver and brought it to begged the general to spare them. He turned a bend in the road but a short bear on my unarmed enemy. shock his bead. 4th, 1901. Sabs tibe for THE TRIBUNE. [CONTINUED ON FOURTH PAGE.] distance from me and suddenly came