

of a woman's health and happiness from youth to old age. It helps her safely into womanhood.

It sustains her during the trials of pregnancy, childbirth and motherhood, making labor easy and preventing flooding and miscarriage. It gently leads her through the dangerous period known as the change of life.

WINEGECARDU eures lencorrhoa, falling of the womb, and menstrual irregularity in every form. It is valuable in every trying period of a woman's life. It winforces the nervous system, acts directly on the genital organs and is the finest tonic for women known. Ask your druggist for a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardai.

Belesville, Ala., July 11, 1900. I am using Wine of Cardel and Thed-on's Black-Draught and I feel like a ent woman strendy. Soveral la-bare keep the medicines in their all the time. I have three girls and they are using it with me.

Mrs. KATE BROWDER, For advice and literature, address, giving infonts, "The Lattics" Advisory Depart-at", The Continuousa Medicino Company, Land Sale.

Under and by virtue of a decree of the Superior court of Rutherford county, rendered by the Clerk of said court on the alst day of July, 1901, in the case of Geo. C. Justice, administrator of Sarah car Justice and others. I, as such admin-

Monday, November 4th, 1901, valuable lands: One tract consisting of glass and stunned the bearer, and then, of a train bearing two companies from cool promounde along the front, calmly about 50 or 60 acres and belongs to the almost as though in relief and rejoic- the south, and then came a funny estate of Satah A. Justice, deceased, and lng, a shout went up across the stream thing. Linkenfelder could have shown lies in said county on the waters of Cath- from which side the train was now in them all about "loading in nine times," ey's and Cherry creeks and adjoins lands wlonging to the estate of John A. Justice, acceased, and is a part of what is generally known as the "Justice place" on Cathey's creek, which place lies adjoining the lands of Alex Forney, Mrs. Morris and the Soloman Geer lands. The other tract consisting of about two bridge, it settled to a crawl and soon ming, impatiently pacing the platform hundred acres of land belonging to the came to a full stop. Bending over the and reading dispatch after dispatch estate of John A. Justice, deceased, and brink, Melville and the sheriff could and occasionally dictating an answer s a part of the said "Justice place" on see some half a dozen lanterns dancing to his new and silent secretary, pressaid Cathey's creek and bounded by the lands of Mrs. Mary Morris. Alex Forney and others and adjoins the other mbove described tract.

The first tract will be sold for each and second tract will be sold for the purpose | night. of making partition of division among the heirs at law and tenants in common, tinctly?" and one-half of purchase price is to be paid cash down and balance in 6 months. The above described are fine lands and include some of the finest bottom lands in Rutherford county. There is about 60 acres of bottom land. This September 30, 1901. GEO. C. JUSTICE, Administrator and Commissioner.

Notice.

By virtue of an order issuing from the Superior court of Rutherford county in the special proceeding entitled "B. F Weast, administrator of S. C. Padgett vs. Arrie Hudlow and others, heirs at law of S. C. Padgett, I will sell at the court house in Rutherfordion at public ty," piped the answer.

Monday, November 4th, 1901, about 75 acres of valuable farming lands lying on the waters of Cathey's creek, adjoining the lands of Rollins, J. A. Mc-Farland and others. The said lands being the same on wich S. C. Pakgett lived | in consultation. prior to his death. The lands will be sold to create assets with which to pay debts against the intestate of the undersigned, and will be sold on the following terms: One-third to be paid in cash, one-third in twelve months and the remaining onetrained until the final payment of the purchase money. This October 2nd, 1901.

Administrator of S. C. Padgett. McBrayer & Justice, Attorneys.

Notice!

Superior court of the county of Rutherford, in the special proceedings entitled "M. G. Hawkins, administrator of J P. Tate, deceased, 's. Lon Tate, Edna Tate and others," I will sell at the court house in Rute erfordton at public auction on Monday, November 4th, 1901. about 30 acres of valuable farming lands. anjoining the lands of Laucaster, Patent, Harris and Kistler, lying on Floyd's creek. The lands will be sold to create assets with which to pay debts against the estate of the intestate, and will be This October 2nd, 1901.

M. G. HAWKINS, Administrator of J. P. Tate. McBrayer & Justice, Attorneys.

Noticet

The undersigned has been appointed and has qualified as administrator of the estate of Mrs. Mary Nabors, deceased, late of Rutherford county. All persons Administrator of Mrs. Mary Nabors.

Digests what you eat.

• TEN YEARS' TRIAL #

The Story of a Soldier's Struggle By Brigadier General CHARLES KING

In silence and suspense they walted. All voices were hushed along the rocky banks. For a few minutes even the Copyright, 1901, by Charles King.

from the gang of tramps, a velley of der's men as they stood in the depot at the company stood at ordered arms and ently clustered about a single spot, was wandering and looked at him inbey had come upon the east end of quiringly. the obstructing cars. Then the sher-

"Aye, aye!" was the answer after a moment's delay.

the gentleman in charge."

Melville perceptibly started and bent hadn't been deffling long. But in five more eagerly forward. It rang out en minutes langeon had the eight nonthe night deep and resonant, in mark-commissioned officers present in a ed contrast to the "wimng" of the west- squad, the rest of the company eagerly erner's official tone.

"Who are you?" "Hawkins, sheriff of Brentwood coun-

A moment's page; then "All right-Mr. Channing will be up there present-

Ten minutes later the manager and Major Melville had clasped hands on the bluff, and four men were gathered

"You've got Langdon with you," were almost the first words Melville spoke.

"I knew the voice at once." "Yes, and he's a trump; helped us more'n I can tell you in the week he's third in twenty-four months, the two been with me. Hang those lumnties! deferred payments to be secured by note. They're firing rocks at the bridge now. with approved security, and to bear in- D'you hear 'em? And I've got to get terest from date of sale. Title will be re- on to Brentwood and save the rest of Ten minutes of counsel fellowed. The veteran major was for leading his men straight across on top of the kron cars. They could not step from girder to girder in the darkness. There were other reasons besides this that caused Mel-By virtue of an order issuing from the ville gravely to shake his head. In the glare of bonfires started by the framps up the track and well back on the west- From that position he meant to give the ward bluffs dark groups of the strik-Channing between his set teeth. "I expected that. But we'll show 'em!" sold on the following terms: Purchase the exertion of the climb, two of the exploit and the praise of this unknown money to be paid in cash on day of sale. four companies were lined up along the | soldier had gone through the train beindebted to said estate are requested to Then arose yells of glee, defiance and to say that "the boys wanted a man make prompt seitlement; and all per- delight from the dense groups of who was way up in the biz' if there tified to present same to the undersign- shore. There was a rush away from not that West Point fellow take com-

metallic jerks, at sound of which the rious mob ten three their number, hurlleaders gazed an instant at each other lng bricks and billingsgate and foul they dare not. There were two minutes of pandemonium, gradually dying away to silence, and then from across tracks rescuing cattle trains, from evthe deep ravine a voice they never for- ery direction tramps, toughs and the get spoke out, elear, deep and power- desperadoes among the strikers drop-

"Stand clear across there! We cover yen with 300 ball cartridges. Our workthat track. If you give them as much as a shot or a stone, I order 'Fire!'"

CHAPTER VII. Late that wintry night there steamed Into Brentwood a train laden with 300 state soldiery, who in silent array left the cars somewhere in the suburbs, thereby disappointing a big throng awaiting them at the station, marched rapidly under experienced guides to the armory of the local company, gave the mob guardians thereof the alternative of surrendering at once or being blown into flinders in less than five minutes, whereupon, as described in stores and coal chanks shaftered the Missouri Junction awaiting the coming "at ease," for Langdon continued his plain view. Above the mingled roar of as they did in the war days, but this waters and voices, sharp and clear, was a new company. He was an old could be heard the hiss of escaping officer, and the manual, minus the loadsteam. The engineer had shut off. The ings and firings, was all he had yet long train was slowing down, and taught them of the new breechlonder presently, 400 yards away from the when came the call to arms. Mr. Chanbriskly up the curving track and pres- ently saw that Langdon's attention

"Those men have never been taught for the purpose of making assets. The lar's voice was heard on the gathering to load and fire," said Langdon, "and their captain doesn't know how. There "Below there! Can you hear me'dis- will be trouble if they get into a snarl with rioters." "Then, for God's sake, you show them! Here, Captain Linkenfelder," "Then don't attempt to send men be continued impetuously, "my friend across yet. There's a mob waiting is a West Point oiliser. Let him help there. Major Melville wants to see you there." Linkenfelder knew Chanping well, as who slong the line did Silence one moment, and then uprose not? He wiped his brow and tried to a voice from below, at sound of which look pleased as be explained that they surrounding and looking on. In 20 minutes they had "got the hang" of

ers could be seen in excited conference. the most important parts. In an hour, Others still were clustered a few yards when the other train came sweeping west of the bridge, and the gleam of in, he had the whole company in line pick and shovel could be faintly seen. practicing "fire by company," "fire by "Cutting out under the track!" said rank," "fire by file," and never in a dozen drills had the Junction Light guard learned as much as they had that day. Another quarter of an hour of silent | "That fellow's a dandy drillmaster," preparation; then, panting a little from was the verdict, and the fame of the bluff facing the position of the strikers fore ever it reached the bridge. Next across the gulch. The other two, un- morning when Company G was told der command of the major, knelt in off for a possibly hazardous piece of the darkness on both sides of the track | duty and its captain was found to be and close to the bridge. The engine, still in arrest and "sulking in his tent" detached from the passenger car, ran a committee went to the peppery little quickly forward and amid shouts of major with the gray mustache and excitement not unmingled with warn- blinking eyes, not, as might have been ing coupled on to the train of flats. expected, to ask "cap's release," but first the massive train began to move, ping young fellows striding confident-Mocol Dyspensia Gure but instead of the sound of bang and by after him, rejoicing in the ring and there rose a quick, series of ringing. hour later they stood confronting a fu-in dismay, then led a rush for the abuse. At the point of the bayonet Their Ages at Inauguration -- Only One bridge. Too late! Channing had out- they had cleared the Big Horn shops witted them and instead of shoving the of strikers, driven them into the open train into the trap was drawing it into yards and the street beyond and opensafety on the eastern side. Follow ed a passage for a train of cattle cars. But by this time, noting that most of Melville's forces were afar up the force the expelled gang. Only 20 yards age at death 83, men must cross the bridge and repair away, just outside and along the picket fence, they crowded, clamoring, cursing, brandishing weapons and burling missiles, but these latter, having to be hurled high, generally fell short. Many among Langdon's new command were 56; cause of death, debility, age at death 5 per cent. of them in the United States. lads whose "nerve" would long since 73. were, up against the brown wooden at death, 80. walls of the freighthouse and then stood coolly forth ten feet in front of them, facing the raging throng without, semetimes quietly smiling as age at death 78. though he enjoyed the situation, some- President Van Buren, age at inaugulast as the clamor increased it became catarrh, age at death 79. evident that the meb was bent on a President Harrison, age at manguradash at the office building to their 68; cause of death, bilious plurisy, age tom goods a year, of which we supply the local press, "there was a squealing right, standing alone opposite the great and a scattering." Thence they bore wooden gates gates which gave dithe recaptured arms to the Big Horn rectly on the buildings containing the reundhouse and dispatched an engine most valuable local properties of the 51, cause of death, billions attack, age that with proper effort we could extend with a strong guard up the Seattle road. Big Horn road, excepting possibly the at death 71. to run back the exiles still "living:on locomotives in the roundhouse. It | President Polk, age at inauguration, the country" 40 miles away, and be- was a moment of excitement. No 50; cause of death, bilious attack, age at na, though he does not discount our opfore long Melville had seven compa- man in the little band of defenders death, 54. nies of militia ready to do anything un- could estimate the extent of damage der such egol headed, accomplished that would unquestionably result if leadership. The strikers for a time that maddened throng broke through. seemed bewildered by the coming of . It seemed as though by this time all "We cover you with three hundred ball, the troop train and the return of certhe devilment of the disaffected was cortridges." tain weary stragglers of the band that concentrated here at one spot, for the tion, 49; cause of death, inflamation heard as the train burrowed through a set forth so boastfully the previous mob was vastly increased in size, and stomach, age at death, 64. deep cetting. Then, louder, clearer, day, all with tales of treachery on the the jeers, howls and curses were now President Euchanan, age at imagguranearer than before, it sounded on the part of their fellows and tremendous continuous. Small wonder that many tion, 66; cause of death rheumatic gout, lie almost within sight of our shores. night, and a confused murmur of odds on the part of the despised mili- a young state "guardsman" in the litvoices rose along the steeps. Angered tin-"militia with regulars to efficient the command felt a nervous thrill as he and desperate as they were, few of the them"-and there was ground for the gazed at the host of semisavage faces railway men could bear the thought of statement, for Melville bad hailed with peering in between the brown slats that train, freighted with human life, keen though repressed delight the com- and listened to the bideous threats of at death, 66. rushing on to destruction. A light as ing of the peppery little major, a veter- the leaders. "We'll have your heagts' President Lincoln, age at inaugura- out some determined and concerted efof a lantern shot suddenly into view on an of the civil war, and of Langdon, blood, you liveried dogs!" "We'll farn tion, 52; cause of death, assassination, fort on the part of our cotton manufacthe opposite bank. Somebody at the who, though in civilian dress, had been you tin soldiers a lesson?" "Burn down age at death, 56, said decree, will sell at the court house same instant, lantern swinging, darted "spotted for a soldier" even before the fence?" "Kill the murdering President Grant, age at inauguration, door in Rutherfordton to the highest down the bluff on the Big Hora side. they got to Guanison. Ball cartridges hounds!" "Cut their throats!" were ex-A hewl of rebuke and menace rose had been issued to Captain Linkenfel- purgated samples of the yells. But still > eving the howling mob, keeping wary watch upon the fence and gate, but ever and anon glaheing up the yardson search of support or re-enforcement, at death 49, for, to all outward appearance the coolground, his heart was filled with grave age at death 56. anxiety. His was by long odds the most critical position of any man, soldier or civilian, that day in all Ne-

For, now that he had time to face the facts and consider the position in all Its bearings, he realized that he had no authority whatever in law or facto enable him to discharge the gray duties of his position-not so much as a commission in the state troops, as even a warrant as a departy shorter. If the mob charged and to defend the lives of these men he was compelled to order them to five, an indistanent for murder would doubtless lie at his door It is one thing to do a man's whole duty with the law behind him; it is another to stand and face a thousand vot- face. ers and realize that every drop of blood that might be shed on either side would. in the event of success or failure, be charged up to him. And still he never seemed disturbed. But Langdon's heart bent quick when, just as it seemed probable that, neck or nothing, he should have to face the situation and fight, he caught sight of husbands to come home. Channing with the sheriff and a brace of deputies coming toward him on the run. The crowd having concentrated here, it was possible for the efficials now to leave other threatened points. He strolled, as it were, with almost exaggerated quiet to the right flank of it for the rest of their lives. his men to meet them. The mob redoubled its screams of defiance.

you're getting along," panted Channing

"Well, you see for yourself," said Eric, with a ned of his head toward he is. the fence. "Those fellows mean to burst through in a minute or two."

over their heads?" puffed the sheriff, seconds. egger and willing, but utterly inexperi-

"That's murder," was the cool reply. "A mob gains tenfold in daring and fire anything but blanks. You'll simofficer either of the troops or of the a warrant for my arrest." cial, wiping the sweat from his brow tirely." This remedy is for sale by Twit- Henderson county for stone to ballast despite the cold wind from the westward prairie. He gazed almost fearfully along that surging fence line. It Students of Wesleyan University, of from Asheville to Salisbury. This is resembled by this time nothing so Nebraska, have sent to Governor Odel necesary to prevent the recurrence of Money to Lencis much as one continuous cage of snarling, rearing beasts. It was plain the body of Croleror to the body of Croleror poor fellow was losing his nerve. "Me body of Czolgosz be buried at sea, so that rains. and my tamily couldn't live in this "his bones may not mingle with Amersons having claits against some are notified to present same to the undersign, show as the community and strikers on the northern was any fighting to be done and could say something to them. We Changing:

[CONTINUED ON FOURTH PAGE.] | Samples free.

OUR PRESIDENTS.

Ex-President Living.

President Washington, age at inauguration, 57; cause of death pneumonia, age at death, 67.

President J. Adams, age at inauguraped the devilment they happened to be President Jefferson, age at inaugura-

> President Madison, age at inauguration, 58; cause of death debility, age at have fled but for their leader's placid | President J. Q. Adams, age at inauguunconcern. He had backed them, as it ration 58; cause of death paralysis, age

President Jackson, age at inauguration 62; cause of death, consumption.

President Tyler, age at inauguration

President Taylor, age at inauguration death 65.

tion, 58; cause of death, paralysis, age kins, but says that these markets which county, made in the special proceeding

President Hays, age at inauguration 54; cause of death paralysis of heart, that direction.—Atlanta Journal.

age at death 70. President Garfield, age at inauguration 49: cause of death assination, age

President Arthur, age at inauguraest, most unconcerned person on the tion 49; cause of death Bright's disease, is well enough, sometimes, to see our Melton, registered in Book 56. No. 54.

President Cleveland, age at inauguration, 48, living. President Harrison, age at inauguraat death: 68. President McKidley, age at inauguaa-age at death 58. tion, 43, living.

Reflections of a Backelor. All is not old that embitters.

Marriages are not always unhappy.

force of circumstances.

the wires that sit up waiting for their is to our own people, and yet that we Wilkie, defendants in the above entitled people are in their way.

"Major Melville wants to know how finding out anything about his business, ist that he is likely to involve this coun- 30th day of September, 1901, and answ 1 as he hastened up, red faced, anxious. his wedding trip he shuts up talking Observer. about what a good judge of character

ply have to kill 50 then where five in the theatre when the heroine is pur- edy and that she could take a bottle of I will, on the would have sufficed in the first place. sued by wicked slander is the one who the remedy and after giving it a fair trial 4th day of November, 1901, No. sir. Ball cartridges or nothing. pulverizes the reputation of her nearest if she did not find it worth the money to sell at public anction at the court house And here's another point. I'm not an neighbor next day.—New York Press. | bring back the bottle and I would refund | in Rutherfordion, for each, three undirection of the transfer of the property of the transfer of the property is the first of the property of the property of the property is the property of the property of the property is the property of the propert law." And now Eric had to raise his "For three days and nights I suffered two the lady came back in company with the dower alloted to Mrs. N. H. Morrow. voice above the outer clamor. "I can agony untold from an attack of choicera a friend in need of a cough medicine and lying on the public read between Fore give the necessary commands and at morbus brought on by eating cucum- advised her to buy a bottle of Chamber- City and the Edand Ford, being the proper instant, and because on which N. H. aforrow, late the proper instant, and I can drive bers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the lain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a Rutherford county, resided, and no those howlers back in one volley if they attempt to force the gates, but district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I very good recommendation for the remark occapied by his widow. ron. Mr. Sheriff, must stand by my side thought I should surely die, and tried a edy." It is for sale by Twitty & Thom - Said three-elevenths (3-11) interest in the fifty-two (52) acres will be soid suband assume responsibility; otherwise dozen different medicines but all to no son. a week from now you'll be around with purpose. I sent for a bottle of Cham-"My God I can't!" said the civil offi- Remedy and three doses relieved me en- contract with the Balfour quarry in September 20th, 1901. ty & Thompson.

ed within 12 months of this date for payment, or this notice will be pleaded in large for their recovery. This September 4th, 1901.

J. F. FLACK,

Appring strator of Mrs. Mark Nature 1 and 1918 and 1 chagrin and baffled hate. Slowly at Eric across a maze of tracks, 70 strap-down at Bridge Siding; it was quite and relief and will prevent the attack if giv- instantly relieves that distressed feeling of 3-4 w. other to think of letting drive a deadly en as soon as the first indication of the after eating, giving you new life and volley into the breasts of a mob that disease appears. Frice 25 cents per box, vigor. Twitty & Thompson, The Flor-

TRADE WITH THE SCUTH.

Countries Adjoining the United States Present Great Opportunities for Cotton Manufactures.

Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte, a successful cotton manufacturer and one who has done much to attract attention tion, 62; cause of death debility, age at to the great resources and advantages of the South, is convinced "that the opportunity in the West Indies and South engaged in and came howling to re-en- tion 58, cause of death chronic diarrheon. America for cotton mill products is even better than in China, though at present our share in their trade is triffing." Chile, for example, imported corton goods to the value of $1,213,350 last President Monroe, age at inauguration | year, but bought only $210,938, or about Our proportion of such exports to Brazil is even smaller, being only about 4.3 per cent., or $5,887,202 out of a total of $12,021,440. We sell Argentine only per cent. of her imported cotton goods. A still more striking instance of neglected markets at our very doors is shown by the West Indies, where our times slowly pacing up and down. At ration, 55; cause of death, asthmatic cotton goods trade does not amount to 2 per cent, of the total

China buys $47,090,000 worth of cotabout one-fifth. There is good reason to believe the statement of Mr. Tompkins our trade much more easily in the West Indies and South America han in Chi-portanities there. Charleston is fortunate in having Mr. 65; cause of death, bilious fever, age at Tompkins as manager of the textile department of her big exposition. He will thus be given an opportunity to impress upon the cotton manufacturers of the South the immensity of their opportunities in this hemisphere, some of which Bradstreet's agrees with the estimate of these possibilities given by Mr. Tomp- from the Superior court of Ruth, for are properly ours, "cannot be wen with, cutitled "J. H. Long and others vs. Hui

To bring about such an effort is one 2nd day of November, 1901. Exposition and there is every prespect erford county on the waters of Fithat it will accomplish a great

The opinious expressed by the foreign scription. The second tract, containful press of President Roosevelt are interesting and some of them are acute. It from G. W. Peinter and wife to Jane L. own people through others' eyes. The which reference is made for description London Spectator, perhaps the ablest of and then as a whole, and sold in the the British papers, discusses him i fer- way that brings the best price, and w estingly in relation to his views on the be sold for partition among the partic tion, 55; cause of death pneumonia, age at mangaration, 55; cause of death pneumonia, age proper foreign policy for America, and the following terms: 20 per cent of the attention of the following terms: 20 per cent of the parchase paice to be paid in cash on day thus: Mr. Roosevelt is neither for nor of rate, 40 per cent in six months there tion, 53; cause of death assassination, against England, but merely for his own after, and the remaining 40 per cent rege at death 58.

President Roosevelt, age at inaugura
(England) any harm, but he would not date of sale. The rents arising from the America even in the smallest degree to be reserved. Title to be withheld anto help England. His sole desire is to serve the final payments of the purchase more Certainly this should be his attitude Penitence nearly always peeps be- if it is not. His first duty is to the tween the fingers which it holds to its country of which he is the President. but this does not constitute a reason The truth that is in wine is about as why he should be, causiesely, the enemy sincere as the lies that are in charity. of any other; and the Chicago-Record Rutherford County, (Before the Cler' People get engaged from force of hab- recalls that in his Minneapolis speech he Isabella Lane and others, it; and then they get married from stated his view of international relations Ellison Clements and others. "most happily" when he said that "we The only vigilent night watchman are have got to remember that our first duty Mrs. Nancy Claffey, and Mrs. Margecan bost get justice by doing justice," cause, if they be living, will take no. Engaged people are always in other and that "in dealing with other nations commenced in the Superior Court of people's way, but not so much as other benefits must be given where benefits Ratherford County before the Clerk, a are someht." If married people can hang on for the This was surely well put and by living in Rutharford County and fully describe first five years, generally they can stand up to these words in the administration the said defendants, if they be living of his office the President will win the will further take notice that they : A woman can respect her husband's approbation of his own people and soon required to appear before the clerk of business ability if he can keep her from remove whatever apprehension may ex- the Superior Court of Rutherford Count About the time a man gets back from try in foreign complications.-Charlotte or demar to the petition on file, or the

It Happened in a Drug Store.

The girl never was born who could "One day last winter a lady came to understand how you can love her with- my drug store and asked for a brand of "Can't you scare 'em? Fire a volley out telling her so twice every fifteen cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the pop-All a man has to do to make his wife ular druggist of Untario, N. Y. "Sho ask him suspiciously what he is think- was disappointed and wanted to know court of Rutherford county, may be ing about is for him to sit still for ten what cough preparation I could record the special proceedings entitled "W. J. Morle, administrator of B. M. C. Mor devilment when it sees you're afraid to minutes and keep his mouth shut. mend. I said to her that I could fively row, vs. D. F. Morrow and others, heirs The woman who sheds the most tears recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remark at law of B. M. C. Morrow, deceased, the price paid. In the course of a day or two (52) acres of land, the same being > berlains Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea The Southern Railway has made a ate assets for the payment of debts. This the Western North Carolina Railroad Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is not a mere Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is not a mere ties on decidedly better terms than a stimulant to tired nature. It affords have been able to do heretofore. Persone A new remedy for billionsness is now the stomach complete and absolute rest desiring loans on improved farming ence Mills, Forest City.

Thoughts

wander when the brain is tired. Overwork, nervous irritation, worry and mental strain exhaust the brain forces and diminish their thought power. Feed the brain, strengthen the nerves and build up new vigor, vitality and mental power. The greatest of all brain foods and nerve tonics is

Dr. Miles' Nervine. "I have used Dr. Miles' Nervice at various times for years. I have found it a period remedy in cases of nervous-ness and insomnia, caused by preracted mental strain and overwork liave also used it in my fami youd. R. H. Menrin, Charleston, V. Va.

> De. Wifes'

feeds and nourishes the brain and nerves, over comes irritation, and brings sweet, refreshing sleep. Sold by dragging on guarantee. Dr. Miles Medical Co., Eikhart, Ind.

Notice!

By virtue of an order of sale issuing da C. Brandle and others," I will rell . public anction on the premises of Jana E. Melten, late of Rutherford county, a. Saturday, the from P. N. Louis and wife to Jane Melton, registered in Book 58, No. about 37 acres, adjoining the above scribed parcel and fully described in dedream of sacrificing the interests of growing crops for the current year will ev and interest. This the 23rd day of

> B. A. JUSTICE, Commissione, McBrayer & Justice, Attorneys.

Notice.

NORTH CAROLINA,) In Superior Court,

Mrs. Nancy Wallace, Joseph Clements sell certain lands for partition, situat ty, at his office in Rutherfordton, on the petitioners will apply to the court for the relief ther in demanded. This A .-

gust 20th, 1991. M. O. DICKERSON, C. S. C. McBrayer & Justice, Attorneys for Petitioners. Notice.

By virtue of an order of the Superior

Said three-elevenths (3-11) interest in ject to the life estate of the widow, Mrs. N. H. Morrow, and will be sold to cre-W. J. MODE, Administrator. of B. M. C. Morrow, deceased McBrayer & Justice, Attorneys.

I am now presented to negotiate loson improved farming lands on five vetime in Cleveland or Katherford coop