VOL I. NO. 43.

The

RUTHERFORDTON, N. C., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1901.

$1.00 A YEAR.

Toe much housework wrecks women's nerves. And the constant care of children, day and night, is often too trying for even a strong woman. A haggard face tells the tory of the overworked housewife and mother. Deranged menses, lencorrhoa and falling of the womb result from overwork. Every housewife needs a remedy to regulate her menses and to keep her sensitive female organs in perfect condition.

WINE OF CARDUI coing this for thousands of

A merican women to-day. It cored rs. Jones and that is why she dies this frank letter:

Glendeane, Ky., Feb. 10, 1901. san ro glad that your Wine of Cardui a begind that your wine of Cardin ing me. I am feeling better than a felt for years. I am doing my ork without any help, and I d last work and was not one bit . That shows that the Wine is mo good. I am getting fisshier was being and one more than the shore of t ver was balore, and shoop good t hasney. Before I begin taking of Cardid, I used to have to hay the or six times every day, but but think of lying down through Mas. BICHARD JONES.

SLOO AT DRUGGESTS.

and Diversiture, address, mying symp-Ladies' Advisory Department', The a Medicine Co., Challan ega, Teinn. COLOR FOR THE PARTY COLOR

Land Sale.

Under and by virtue of a decree of the the company alone, and while Governrend rel by the Clerk of said court on so many citizens and voters by grantthe first day of July, 1901, in the case of strice, administrator of Sarah , deceased, and others vs. Osa destice and others, I, as such admin- of scores of others by demanding, as 0101055.

and commissioner named in urged by The Sun and the strikers, , will sell at the court house |"the resignation of the insolent officer Ruthe forgton to the highest who had dared to thwart the wishes of a community." The Banner rejoiced or 60 acres and belongs to the mob law in view and every citizen hand. "Oh, good evening, Mr.-er-ah-Colonel Cresswell," stammered the railway man in some confusion. "I didn't see you. I'm glad to see you. Can you tell me where I can find Mr. Langdon? I've knocked and hammered at the office, and these gentlemen say that he went straight home half an hour ago." before 10 o'clock."

TEN YEARS' TRIAL # # Soldier's Struggle hour of Channing!" CHARLES KING But that was vain. Copyright, 1901, by Charles King.

It was useless now for The Sun to hurl denunciation at the governor or at the rifles The law was supreme C:2-

$$$$$

The Story of a

By Brigadier General

lized 1'00m. ly the governor could make Langdon an officer, but even the governor could not make him a sergeant. The law gave the appointment of sergeants and corporals to the commanding officer of ing Langdon 'a commission neither would lie interpose against the wishes

Ratherfordton

been talking with the mayor and cer-

Missouri ready to be rushed by special Eric Langdon. Along toward morning apparently speaking to some one with party of prairie tramps not ten miles stimulates the digestion, intrain to Brentwood, but neither the po- Cresswell managed to tell his story, in the wagon, continued: "Now, fie still from Rosebud. The agent said he lice, posses nor militia had been mobi- and then the police went and routed if you value your life! Jump in, Jim, could restrain and control the Sionx Pondering anxiously over the situa- told a queer tale. When the doctors were lashed to a rust, and they clatter- charge of the settlers, but settlers have tion. Cresswell was walking slowly heard it, they looked oddly at each oth- ed away up the plac in the darkness. votes, Indians have not, and the govhomeward up Thayer street. He had er and agreed that it were best that About ten allantes later he heard the ernor would do nothing to intimidate Dr. Miles Medical Co., Eikhart, Ind. tain city fathers at the Brentwood and was stronger. It might unduly excite and after it had almost get beyond derers of the Indians, though well now wished to see Langdon, but Lang- him now. Cresswell said he left the heating distance to the west there known, were still unwhipped of jusdon evidently wasn't home, and the superintendent. Mr. Betts, on guard at cannot the short, quick single whistle, tice and bragging about the fronther office door was closed and doubtless revolver in hand, and that he should been somewhere about the long bridge commanding officer of the little cavalry strolled on toward the armory and be- gone. The superintendent said he had cion. Then when his copy of The Ban- wows. There was trouble ahead for Saturday, the came suddenly aware of the division met Mr. Cresswell casually on the ner told him about Langdon's disap- somebody. The dispatch reached Wash-his interference in behalf of the sol- and bidden to address the meeting transportation. They were determined, was that about women? No women dier they were beating to a jelly, and from the rear platform, which he es- they said, to do nothing to forfeit the were needed. It was no place for them in person at least they dare not act. sayed to do, the car speedily gliding good will of friends and fellow citi here. They should be at their firesides, "It isn't among the slums alone you away with him to the accompaniment zens. Their grievance was Brent- taking care of the children and the have enemies, Langdon," said Cress- of much derision and many decided cat- wood's and their oppressors the rival household, while husbands and fathers well. "The bitterest foes a man bas to calls, not to mention a few defunct railways. Violence of any kind, said hurried down to help the cause of guard against are those who have done quadrupeds and doubtful eggs. Mr the strike leaders, would be tolerated Brentwood. Here was the seat of him injury, and the men I'm after are Burleigh was given a sample of the only as a last resort. Yet here was ev- war, here the heart of the battle, here those who put up that safe robbery and running qualities of the fast mail down idence that even before beginning the must the fight be won or lost again. gained your discharge. Oh, for an the winding gorge of the Red Water strike assault, abduction, possibly mur- And the unions had summoned all who and spent the night in blasphemy and der, could be laid at the strikers' doors. could possibly come, even from the far bitterness of spirit at Gunnison. Not Cresswell still lay in grievous plight, Black Hills, to haste by special train Channing, he who commanded the even a farmer's buckboard could he and Eric Langdon could not be found. and join their brethren on the battle respect and confidence of the yards and find to take him back. He wired for Then evidence began to accumulate. A line. For over 50 miles the Eig Horn shops of the Big Horn, was sauntering the trainloads of substitutes across the two horse farm wagon, such as de paralleled the southern verge of the big discontentedly in the Riviera, doing as Big Muddy, and they were ditched ten scribed, was seen by other citizens Sioux reservation. Just across the Dahis doctors bade, utterly homesick, ut- miles from any town and had to build driving westward toward the open kota boundary it lay, and half the west terly unable to appreciate or under- bonfires out of the wreck until that prairie. A farmer came in and said bound freight the road carried beyond stand what he saw and only wishing was used up and then kept warm with that such a wagon stopped at the ford the Red Water was for the agents or himself back in the cab of a Baldwin, a few miles of snow fence that unare close to his place about midnight. His the traders at Rosebud, ct Pine Ridge, whirling "the limited" over the prairie countably went up in flames. The Se- wife woke bim, saying there was some. Sheridan and certain other points of 60 miles an hour. Channing knew ev- attle sent 60 Pinkertons on a special thing wrong down at the barn-the distribution and supply. Around the e ery mother's son in the Brentwood and thereby precipitated a sympathetic horses were stamping and snorting. guarded lines, winter and summer, yards by name. The new incumbent strike across the Missouri and the spe- He hurried thither and found every- there ever hovered dozens of dissolute knew not one of them. Channing cial into the shallows near the eastern thing secure, but could have sworn he whites, seeking to prey on the red man, argued. Burleigh bullied, and clash shore well up to the Pinkertons' mid- saw a light dancing away from the Pirates of the plains were these felwas inevitable. The management of dle. When finally rescued, these ama- barn in the direction of the ford as he lows, reckless and outlawed, and more of all. both roads had announced in unequivo- teurs were roosting on car roofs, cold, issued from the house. Curiosity there- than one hideous outbreak of the Sioux cable terms that they would not yield wet and bedraggled, an object of char- fore led him to investigate, and surely had been traced to their netarious to the demands of the men. The may, ity to the countryside. Then came the enough he heard voices. Two men deeds. Whisky was their stock in or of Brentwood was sorely frighten- order for troops, long withheld, and were talking in low tones. Cne of their trade, and many an untutored savage ed. The governor had been requested before it was issued the Brentwood ri- horses had picked up a stone, and, so in exchange for a bottle had parted to order troops to the scene and over- fles knew there would be no first ser- tightly was it wedged, they couldn't with robes, rifle and pony as well as awe the would be strikers and very geant to call the roll. Somewhere get it out. He gathered that one of his senses. Conflict was frequent. properly refused. For it is our good about midnight of the 27th, dazed and them had been to the barn in hopes of Troops were few. There had been bad American policy in dealing with one- bleeding, Colonel Cresswell had stag- finding a pick. The farmer was on the blood between the Indians and certain mics or insurgents, white, red or gered into the street in front of his of point of hailing them when the whistle settlers along the Chadaza all summer, brown, mobs, Indians or Tagalogs, nev- fice, feebly calling for help. The po- of the night freight sounded away In September two herders were found er to show fight until practically fore- lice found a pool of blood at the foot of down the valley toward Brentwood, scalped and mutilated just one week ed into it. The railway companies in the cellar stairs and splashes all along and he heard one of them say, "My after Spotted Elk and Iron Voice, two anticipation of the strike had gathered from near the top, but not a sign of God, there's No. S now, and we can't young braves of the Brule tribe, had some hundreds of workmen across the struggle elsewhere and not a trace of flag her this side of the bridge!" then, been slain in a drunken row with a

Tribune.

out the division superintendest, who quick!" And with that the horses provided the governor would take Cresswell shouldn't hear it until he freight manbling along up the valley, the sovereigns of the soil. The mur-

Sit up in bed.

When it becomes necessary to sit up in bed to get your breath; when the least exertion such as walking, sweeping, singing, talking or going up and down stairs, causes shortness of breath, fluttering or palpitation; then it is time to do something to brace up and strengthen your failing heart. Take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. It is best

> "I could not rest at night and often had to sit up in bed to breathe. The least exertion would make my heart palpitate dreadfully. Our doctor prescribed Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and it completely restored me to health." MRS. E. C. MCKELVEY, Palin, Tenn.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure

creases the circulation and makes weak hearts strong. Sold by druggists on guarantee.

By virtue of an order of sale issuing town clock had struck the quarter. The the cellar stahway in the back yard, the signal for brakes. That must have saloons of their cowardly deed. The from the Superior court of Rutherford county, made in the special proceedings catitled "J. H. Long and others vs. Hul locked, and Cresswell's keys were in have seen his (Cresswell's) assailants at the big bend. That was something, post not far from the Rosebud agency da C. Brandle and others," I will cell at his workaday pockets at the house, when they made their escape at the unusual, and, coupled with what he wired that the indians were datacing public auction on the premises of Jane Confident of meeting Langdon, he rear, the only way they could have heard the men say, it excited his suspi- night after night and helding hig pow- E. Melton, late of Rutherford county, on 2nd day of November, 1901, superintendent of the Big Horn talk- street, inquired for Mr. Langdon and pearance he felt sure what it all meant ington the day the Pinkertons and training with two of the boys. Cresswell went with Cresswell to the office to and therefore came in to Breatwood to Icads of outside workmen were dump-Minory, November 4th, 1901, and applauded. The Examiner was st-didn't like that official, but for reasons find him. They knocked until they be-tell his tale. And it was this that en into the ditch, the very day, more-Proad river, the first tract containing didn't like that official, but for reasons find him. They knocked until they be-brought confusion to Betts and the appeal for through the appeal for through the superintendent desired to brough t him. He stopped and held out his and he (the superintendent) desired to Brentwood strikers, for it was now evi- troops to protect property and open from P. N. Long and search elsewhere, but Cresswell was dent that Langdon had been spirited the roads. The answer to the frontier Melton, registered in Book 58, No. 143, fort was a telegram ordering the post, to which reference is made for full dewait while he went round and tried That foul means and force had been with its women and children, to be left scription. The second tract, containing "with a suitable guard" while the com- about 37 acres, adjoining the above de oblige the colonel; "didn't like to of-could doubt. That railway men were mauding officer, with all available men from G. W. Painter and wife to Jane E. fend him." The fact was he noticed the perpetrators the words overheard the had only three treops of cavalry, Melton, registered in Book 56, No. 54, to that the colonel had been drinking a by Farmer Hawley gave presumptive averaging 55 effective each, to march which reference is made for description. at once to Banner Butte, the western Said lands will be sold first in parcels terminus of the Yaniton road, and and then as a whole, and sold in that there take the train for Omaha. This way that brings the best price, and will be sold for partition among the parties left the fert to be held by the post quartermaster and some 23 men, when the following terms: 20 per cent of the to the above entitled proceedings, and on runners came, with troubled eyes, to runners came, with troubled eyes, 10 say the Sioux would "jump" before the of sale, 40 per cent in six months theresetting of the sun. after, and the remaining 40 per cent in Much of this had been told in the lo- twelve months from date of sale, the decal papers, but so engrossed was every- ferred payments o lear interest from body in the strike that little attention date of sale. The rents arising from the erowing crops for the current year will from a clear sky, therefore, feil the next announcement from the Eps of the final payments of the purchase monwas paid to it. Like a thunderchip Echiface as he turned, with alcost September, 1901. ashen face, upon the silent through B. A. JUSTICE, Commissioner, "My heaven," he said, "the Sioux have McBrayer & Justice, Attorneys, swooped on Roschud Station and scalp

"How about that other train the

"Cut off somewhere Luck of Resebud.

are ordered there as fast as cars can

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

It Saved Her Life.

Gooch's Mexican Syrup has accom-

Gooch's Mexican Syrup cares a sim- 0, 3-4 w.

JUSTICE & MARTIN.

Attorneys for W. Z. Moore.

ple cough as if by magic, and is the best remedy for whooping cough. Price 25c.

Notice!

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, /

RUTHERFORD COUNTY.

special with the men?" gasped a burly engineer.

"arch A. Justice, deceased, and pledged to law and order knew instantcounty on the waters of Cath-'ly what it meant that the rifles had Deer creeks and adjoins lands falled to fill the vacancies. The lieuor to the estate of John A. Jus- tenant commanding would figure as ease , and is a part of what is the advectory k which place lies ad-m Cutter, rock, which place lies adiands of Alex Forney, Mrs ration and finally its command in the orn- and the Soloman Geer lands, event of a fight would all develve upon The of a tract consisting of about two lits gritty first sergeant, Eric Langdon. as af land belonging to the Two evenings later Cresswell, with state of John A. Justice, deceased, and anxious eyes, looked up at the window an entry of the said "Justice phace" on of the second story room over his of-- creek and bounded by the fices on Thayer street, the main thor-Mary Morris, Alex For- oughfare of Brentwood. It was after amilian P sy and others and adjoins the other 10, bet all was darkness there, and concribed tracf.

I et will be sold for cash and Langdon's invariable rule was to rein. o of making assets. The turn at once from drill and go early to and use will be sold for the purpose bed, for, winter or summer, he was an of making partition of division among he have and tenants in common, the larty riser. The clerk and assistant half of purchase price is to be who formerly occupied those humble and alance in 6 months | quarters had married, moved west to described are fine lands and the hills and thrown out his own shinne of the finest bottom lands gle, and Langdon thankfully had movin Statis good county. There is about gd in. The street was still allye with confidentially, of source. They want footing and fallen hendlong. It could of barran land. This Septem- people, but the lights in the rifles' ar-STRO, DML. GEO. C. JUSTICE, mory, two blocks away, had been ex-

Administrator and Commissioner. tinguished before the stroke of 10 at the city hall. In his hand Cresswell Notice.

held a crumpled half sheet of note pa-By vivine of an order issuing from the per that had reached him through the Superior court of Rutherford county in finall. It centained only the words: he speciel proceeding entitled "B. F. "Your man laughs at warning and des other scrape. You must feel gratified Brentwood. That might he, said the Wtaw, administrator of S. C. Padgett fies the people. If he hasn't left this at being the bearer of such a message. shrewd and somewhat envious lawyer Arzie Hudley and others, heirs at town by midnight, he'll never get a have of S. C. Padgett, I will sell at the chance again." wart house in Kutherfordton at public By midnight, and it was now after netion on

100m

10! Only that morning in reminding Monday, November 4th, 1901, Langdon that the chief of police had about 75 acres of valuable farming lands not only issued permission, but advised lying on the waters of Cathey's creek, him, to go armed Cresswell had asked beining the lands of Rollins, J. A. Mc- him if more warnings had reached Parland and others. The said lands be- him, and the new first sergeant took ng the same on wich S. C. Pakgett lived from his breast pocket a little note. It give to his death. The lands will be sold rescate assets with which to pay debts was a woman's hand that penned this and the door was fast. But who left the tending the inevitable strike this inciand will be sold on the following terms: this. You do not know what minute On third to be paid in cash, one-third in may be your last if you insist on stay-cwelve months and the remaining onebird in twenty-four months, the two effected payments to be secured by note ith approved security, and to bear ina not until the final payment of the purthas money. This October 2nd, 1901. B. F. WEAST, Administrator of S. C. Padgett, MeBraver & Justice, Attorneys.

Notice!

By virtue of an order issuing from the inniniar court of the county of Rutherand, in the special proceedings entitled M. G. Hawkins, administrator of J P. l'at . deceased, vs. Lou Tate, Edna Tate and others," I will sell at the court house in Rutherfordton at public auction on Monday, November 4th, 1901, about 30 acres of valuable farming lands

adfining the lands of Lancaster, Patent, Harris and Kistler, lying on Floyd's creek. The lands will be sold to create assets with which to pay debts against ibs estate of the intestate, and will be sold on the following terms: Purchase aoney to be paid in cash on day of sale This October 2nd, 1901.

M. G. HAWKINS, Administrator of J. P. Tate. McBrayer & Justice, Attorneys.

THE RUTHERFORDTON

Bonding Warehouse Co.

"Odd," said Cresswell. "Suppose we waiting a few minutes just to assure walk over, Mr. Superintendent." They did, and they knocked and he hurriad away about his own busihammered for two minutes without ness. Had he heard no sound of fall response, and then Cresswell bethought | or struggie? was asked. Not a sound him of the renr door. queried he of the official, with doubt in of course, it was the colonel. In fact, his tone.

"Yes. The road sent me an impor- and that under the circumstances the tant message. I may as well tell you- colonel might later have missed his him to go to that meeting that's in full not be conceived possible that Mr. blast at this minute. They think the Langdon would brutally assault his men will listen to him."

friend and benefactor. "I see," said Cresswell, with sarcastic Now, Cresswell had taken three or emphasis. "Having kicked him out in- four nips of his favorite beverage that to the cold for another man's crime, evening, but Boniface swore he was damage or violence had been charged they want him to help them out of an- perfectly himself when he left the However, come on. We'll try the employed by the Big Horn as counsel. back." and yet might he be "under alien influ-

An alley parallel with Thayer street ences." One of two theories, said the divided the block, and Cresswell's of- railroad lawyer, could be derived from fice buildings covered about half the the facts, and only two. Mr. Cresswell lot. Wood, coal and ice were delivered had fallen down stairs under the influby way of that alley, which accounted ence of one of two forces. Bourbon or for the worn path to the open cellar- a blow. If a blow, who gave it but way, but not for the footprints in the | Eric Langdon? No one else was known snow on the steps leading up to the to have entered those doors that night. back door. Cresswell tried the knob, In all the tense, pent up excitament atcellar steps uncovered? "Have you a dent was discussed with bated breath. gun?" he asked, and the superintend- Men who knew Cresswell and saw him

ent faltered, "Yes." Gripping his own revolver, a faith- in liquor as to fall down stairs and ful friend of Kentucky days, Cresswell | therefore believed the story of assault, cautiously descended the steps and felt | Men who knew Langdon swore he was his way through the dampuess and incapable of assaulting Cresswell. dark. He had no match, and lighting What could possibly be his motive? would only reveal him to prowlers if The safe stood securely locked. Desk there were any. He knew the prem- and drawers were intact. There were ises thoroughly and quickly reached no reasons why Langdon should go exthe lower hall and the steirway to the cept the threats, which he held in conground floor above him. It was dark tempt, and every reason why he should as Erebus, and he, breathing heavily. stay. The railway lawyer hinted at refelt his way up the creaking flight un- newal of proceedings by Perrigo's bank something fell with stunning force and danced before his eyes, and he went reluctantly testified that that incident crashing back the way he came, boundthe stairs. 5 CHAPTER XIII.

They knocked and hammered for two minutes without response.

5

12

03

e.

5

0

03

orazia.

2

ing here. These men are desperate," | ceeded in getting in to replenish them. 10 o'clock and drove out again about Cresswell had read it with compressed So did not the trains, freight or passen- 10:40, when it had two more men in it lips and advised its being given at ger, on either Big Horn or Seattle, for who were bending over something in once to the police. Far and wide the the rails were a lather of soap, the boil- the bottom. These two jumped out edict of the employees had gone forth. ers a reek of foam. The casualty list when it reached the street. They went

If assurance that the old wages would in the motive power showed 23 en- one way, the wagon the other. Then be restored from and after Nov. 1 fail- gines "killed," and the only wheels to uprose the solid men of Brentwood there. "Is that train in with those peoed to reach them by noon Oct. 2S every revolve east or west were those trun- save the few whose souls were mort- ple from Rosebud and the other sin-somewhat persistent that Betts should away.

the back way. Betts went just to resorted to no one who knew Langdon little, and at such times, as was well known, the Kentuckian was apt to be evidence and that the abducted man "It is true," said one of the young a bit dictatorial and to take offense was sorely needed developed in the soldiers. "I saw him go in there just rather easily. Betts said he knew the course of that very night.

Observant of his counsel, the rifles at colonel had been at the bar of the Brentwood that evening, and after the first intimation of another strike had kept a guard at the armory, and this guard was increased to a lieutenhimself the colonel was safely within ant and 20 men at noon on the 28th. Moreover, it was made up of men who would light, and the scouts of the strikers sent to reconnoiter and report of that kind. He had heard some one "You wish to see him personally?" moving about in the hall and thought. on the feasibility of again seizing the arms and equipments returned and "reported adversely," Two days later, sotto voce, he added he thought so still determined to wipe out the stain of their military misadventure the previous year, fully 60 members promptly assembled at the call and awaited ored every soul in the place! Three was ders at the armory, and still, barring no train to bring the troops from Rob-the banishment of Mr. Burleigh in one hison? direction and the presumable taking of: of Langdon in the other, no deed of to the strike. The sheriff had engerly accepted the theory that Langdon himself was Cresswell's assailant and had they're praying for help. The rities fled to escape consequences. This "made him solid" with the strikers and take 'em. The strike's off." warranted a certain inaction. But now the business men had taken matters in hand. The Banner "ripped him up the back," as his friends expressed it, and the governor himself was on his way to Brentwood, coming up from the cap-

Union Pacific, and matters were near- which has astonished the people. Miss occupied by his widow. ing a clinax. The Grays were at the Davis was given up to die by her attend. Said three lovenths (3-11) interest is and four companies, feeling its cauthat night knew he was not so far gone the Missouri. If the strikers refused bayonet? That was the absorbing house. They at once began to give the question. The mayor said yes. The Syrap in doses one hour apart, and fremen thundered no. and Brentwood quently bathed her ches with the Quick held its breath and waited. Meantime Relief. Before morning she was better, the orders for the rifles were to sleep on their arms at their quarters. It was the policy of wisdom. And now, "If no new complications And now, "If no new complications inter mising the team, and the finite desiring bans on improved farming lands arise," said the mayor, "we can hope tablished the reputation of Gooch's desiring bans on improved farming lands for a quiet night, but it's the calm be- Mexican Syrup here as a cough remedy: with please call on the in prison and oring with them their title deeds. This Octofore the storm. I wonder if that we can sell nothing else. train's in with the re-enforcements J. & H. SANDS, Trimble, Athens Co., O. BOBERT L. RYBURN, Attorney, from up the road?"

"I'll telephone and ark," said Eoni face, leading the way to the rotunda. It was filled with men, talking its low, cautious tones, glancing nervously being considered neutral. The strong men of the antistrike party, irrespective of ja litics, had attended the meeting and come out in the wake of Boulreporters hore down on them at once. Court for Rutherford county for mun- writed lands but Beniface, begged, them to wait and bling, and rentenced to the jublic roads escorted the mayor behind the desk of Union county for the term of six and rang up the superintendent of the months. This October 24th, rent Big Horn. A quavering voice answered that the superintendent wasn't tions?" asked Boniface, and people be-

Wire for Sale! NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC :- All perions

Notice.

By virtue of an order of the Superior court of Rutherford county, made in the special proceedings entitled "W. J. Mode, administrator of B. M. C. Morrow, vs. D. F. Morrow and others, heirs at law of B. M. C. Morrow, deceased," Only a few of them have guns, and I will, on the 4th day of November, 1901, sell at public auction at the court house in Rutherforditon, for cash, three undivided elevenths (3-11) interests in fiftytwo (52) acres of land, the same being the dower alloted to Mrs. N. H. Morrow, lying on the public road between Forest City and the Island Ford, being the lands on which N. H. Morrow, late of ital by a cross country spar of the plished a cure in this neighborhood Ratherford county, resided, and now ing and advised to discontinue his med- ate assets for the payment of delts. This iciae, as it was doing her no good, Her September 20th, 1901.

W. J. MODE, Administrator, of B. M. C. Morrow, deceased, McBrayer & Justice, Attorneys.

Money to Lend!

I am new prepared to negotiate loans on improved farming lands on five years and rfter using a few bottles of each. time in Cleveland or Rutherford connshe is almost al well as ever. It was al- tics on decidedly better terms than 1 most like raising the dead, and has es- have been able to do heretofore. Persons [hor 1st, A. D. 196]

Shelby, N. C.

Sale of Land for Taxes

The following tracts and parcels of land, hereinafter named, have been levied on for taxes due for the year 1900. Notice is hereby given that application which still remain due and puppid ; has been made, or will be made, to the therefore, for the satisfaction of said tax Governor of North Carolina for the par- due, I will sell at the court house door don of W Z. Moore, convicted at the in Rutherfordton, N. C., on Monday, face and the nuryor. A little squad of September Term, 1901, of the Superior November 4th, 1901, the following de-

E. A. MARTIN, Tax Collector,

COOL SPRINGS TOWNSHIP.

G. W. Washbern, 2 acres land, taxes and cost, $3.44.

Mrs. Mary Morrow, 55 acres land, taxcs and cost, $2.75.

SUTHERFORDTON TOWNSPIP.

was closed, satisfactory settlement baying, rolling and sliding till he brought ing been made, and so it had in Laugup senseless and bleeding at the foot of , don's behalf by the big hearted Kentuckian and his friend the mayor. No:

nothing but threats against Langdon's life could be heard of as a cause about from group to group. Many were Noon of Oct. 28 struck on the deep of Langdon's disappearance, nothing strike sympathizers, several were law toned bell of the city hall, Brentwood's whatever until the second day of the and order man, most were desirous of pride, and sharp at the sound every strike, when two people appeared who hand in the railway shops, sheds and said that if guaranteed protection they yards followed suit and went out. So would tell something. The something did the fires in the furnaces in the proved to be that an open two horse course of the night, for no man suc- wagon drove into the alley just before til within reach of the top. Then to recover certain sums with interest. The bank, however, being questioned.

station at Gunnison waiting for the ing physician. She had lung fever The (the fifty-two (52) acres will be sold sub troop train, with Major McConville doctor said she would die before morn-and four community facility its can, tious way over culver and trestle from to disperse at the beck of the governor. parents had a bottle of Gooch's Mexican would they flinch from the prick of the Syrup and Gooch's Quick Relief in the INVITES YOUR PATRONAGE. Induced and nonce Cresswell had noticed and insured and nonce Cresswell had noticed to owner. Each provide to owner were they when you last heard? For the provide to owner, the provide towner, the provide to owner, 15cts for delivering per bale. We pay all insurance and storage room. D. F. MOROW, J. C. WALKER. the premises, but the police well knew afar and staid there. Mr. Eurleigh fully guarded by the details from their women't i den't understand." D. F. MOROW, J. C. WALKER. Kodol Dyspopsia Cure the barreem binekguards who had came to threaten and commond, was own number. People and been treated Py U-is time half the men is the fals evented still 1000 A DO A NET. President. Custodian. Digests what you cat. threatened vengenace on Langdon for 'promptly heisted aboard a bacgage car with civility even if densed merrs of by had gathered about the desk. What Ratherfordton, N. C. their Excition to Hoard.