IN THE DESERT.

This business began a few short years ago in a small way, with the aim first of ingratiating itself firmly and for all time into the confidence and good graces of the trading masses of Western North Carolina. This end accomplished, the next move was expansion, and a third incentive was the set determination of stopping short of nothing less than the biggest

DEPARTMENT STORE

ANNOUNCEMENT!

By 10th November we expect to be moved and have things humming. An invitation is hereby extended everybody to come and help us make glad the day of removal from a small crowded, one-story building to the handsome, convenient, well lighted and roomy Department Store. Remember we do not arrogate to ourselves all the credit for these grand results. You stood by us with loyalty and unflinching patronage. It is now becoming and proper that we recognize you as stockholders in our new home, as heretofore. This shall be your home store, headquarters for all. When you can't come, send your children, who will receive the same uniform and kind treatment.
