

Athens, Tenn., Jan. 27, 1901. Ever since the first appearance of my enses they was very irregular and I with great pain in my hims, During the pass menta I have been alting Wine or Cardui and Thedfor Ps Black-Draught, and I pan of the month-yperiod without pain for the first time

What is life worth to a woman suffering like Name Davis suffered? Yet there are wemen in thousands of homes to-day who are bearing those terrible manstruct pains in science. If you are # one of these we want to say that this will bring you permanent relief. Con-I sale yoursuit with the knowledge that 1,000,000 we non have been completely cured by Wing of Cardui. These womon suffered from leucerrhoea, irregular monses, headache, backache, and learing down pains. Wine of Cardui will stop all these aches and pains for you. Purchase a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardyi to-day and take it in t and to a still introduce, not been spicked by mp-us. Then I have survey Indoorship in A Ch. H. sanga Medicine too, Chattanooga, the privacy of your home.

Land Sale.

Instice, decembed, and others vs. Occ ... stice and others, I, as such admin-

Manning, December 2nd, 1901. a'clack, the following very or his or his nerves and belongs to the tate of Sarah A. Justice, deceased, and regiment formed line for final review. lies on said a anguon the water of Cath- and in great numbers civillans, soldiers be a Character and adjoins lands and women fair were assembled to witeduction the estate of John A. Jus- ness the ceremony. The Columbias had vally answer as the Justice place." on Cather's creek, which place lies ad-joining the londs of Mex Form y, Mrs state of John & Justice, deceased, and its way without steeping for a parting is a time of the said "Justice place" on leaft and cheer at Langdon's camp. The said to y or ad bounded by the commanding general and his staff, es- Ethel Grahame stood paring after the de and First Mary detris. Alex For- corted by a troop of envalry from the the sand its and remarks in common, soldierly they looked despite the relaxand another of purchase price is to be ation of the long homeward voyage and raidea a dawn and balance in 6 months. the days of waiting about the city. To ! The at we described are fine lands and lade some of the finest bottom lands in Radia riord county. There is about 60 acres of bottom land. This Novembers, 1961. GEO. C. JUSTICE, Administrator and Comunicationer.

Notice.

et I will seil at public auerion at the the charmed circle, the space parceled court house days in he berfordton. N. C., three pieces or parecis of land conining from 30 to 50 seres, being a part of the lands known as the Besewell-Bos-Il seres, as ther about 40 acres and the "I had hoped to have you ride with us third about 1sts geres.

decree of the Superior Court of Ruther- Miss Grahame, I saw you in saddle in ford cours, for the purpose of creating the park yesterday, and I envied your asserts with which to pay debts against said estate, and will be offered first in separate for, and afterwards as a whole, and repute-accosting him with scant with emotion, strove to say to the lov- and repute-accosting him with scant third of the par have price will be re-red veteran and gazed impressively at heart of the whole regiment went with promptly froze, but Cresswell warmed mired on the day of sale and one-third Miss Grahame and glanced at Lang- the beautiful sword they gave him in to his work. the first day of February, 1902, and don, sitting erect half way across the parting tribute. Close to the colonet of May, 1900, the two deferred payments to bear interest from date of sale and to be secured by notes with approved security. The fide will be retained pressed. until purchase money is fully paid.

tie undersigned. This Nov. 1st. 1901.
J. F. FLACK, Adimr. of W. S. Hill, deceased. McBrayer & Justice, Attorneys.

Notice.

Ev virtue of an order issuing from the Specific court of Rutherford county in the special proceeding entitled "B. F. Weast, administrator of S. C. Padgett vs. Arrie Hudow and others, heirs at law of S. C. r. deett, I will sell at the coart hease in Retnerfordton at public Monday, December 2nd, 1901, about 75 neres of valuable farming lands lying on the waters of Cathey's creek, adjoining the lands of Rollins, J. A. Mc-Parland and others. The said lands beto create assets with which to pay debts by to the spot, and in one minute after came to speak of the future, of the against the intestate of the undersigned, his appearance on the scene of violent severance of the soldier ties that third in twenty-four months, the two deferred by months and the colonel deferred by months to be secured by note it was who settled the question. "We like the ple cough as if by magic, and is the best was who settled the question." We the approved security, and to bear in- galloped back to his post. Three horse the honors still in store for him, and to you, sir." terest from date of sale. Title will be re- men presently rode slowly back toward here the Washoes broke loose and roar. And the colonel majestically lifted haven't a moment to spare if we're to tained until the final payment of the par- the garrison, and a curious crowd sured and acclamation, and then his bat and strolled magnificently go with this beat, Eric," he whispered -Subscribe for The Tribune and get chase money. This November 4th ,1901, rounded a little knot of angered and came the time to say farewell, but away. Of course that rencontre was as he grasped his arm and then led him the news when it is news. It is pub-

Administrator of S. C. Padgett. McBraver & Justice, Attorneys.

Physician and Surgeon, Rutherfordion, N. C. Office in Residence on Main stree Phone No. 22.

TRIAL #

The Story of a Soldier's Struggle By Brigadier General

CHARLES KING Copyright, 1991, by Charles King.

Largdon had cordially greeted and who had held aloof in his days of trou- | you!" How could she go there? The Na- corporal had come with a rush. thans were taking the mountain air un at Taboe, waiting for the volunteers to his satellites were now less clamorous his order&'for speedy settlement of their papers CALLED TO THE STATE OF THE STATE OF after all, "it wouldn't pay for the regi- der"wouldn't have their arms and their for many a day. The young man in Under and by virtue of a decree of the equipments, etc., all having to be turnrecord of Eintherford county, ed in at the Presidio, so it would hardif a by the Clerk of said coast on by be like a military parade. All though et day of July, 1901, in the case of considered, it would be just as well for C Justice, administrator of Parah the boys to scatter at Prisco and each choose his own homeward way." So carry, and represented named in the military nutborities bent their en-rid dertee will sell at the court house ergies toward getting rid of those regior in Dakarforatea to the highest ments whose statesmen were clamerous, and thus it happened that the Nathens returned while the Washees were still in camp, and it might have been Ale hands: One trace consisting of better had that leave been extended. One glorious autumn morning the percent, and is a part of what is been paid off to the last man and given their discharge, but several of their officers still lingered about the city. The The and the Soloman Geer lands | Evergreens had been welcomed home the start and consisting of about two and feted and fensted to their hearts' andred her seef hand a longing to the content. Not a company and gone on he purpose of the long assets. The of the center of the long, statuesque partition of davision among came out in klock, and very fit and and an aid-de-camp had ridden to General Melville's with the compliments of the department commander and an inand so it happened that Mrs. Melville off by sentries for the immediate party of the reviewing officials. The general left his station and rode up beside so has is. One parcel containing about them and doffed his plumed chapeau. today, Melville," said he, "but I sup-The said in I, will be sold under a pose the doctors must have their way. escort." The general was nothing if > riages, escorted by three or four horse- though by some spontaneous impulse, safe robber." men, came sweeping over the brow of were gathered hundreds of other solthe northward height. Impatient eyes diery, regulars from the batteries, vol. than to a gross indignity," interjected glanced thitherward, and presently univers still serving in the neighborhalf the waiting line in khaki and doz- ing camps, and all were hushed and amiss yonder?" for all on a sudden the ing a adership, of his almost fatherly ries had stopped at the sentry line, and en. Vehemently the statesmen applaudexcited men. All in that brief space of here their orator broke down. "Speak in the morning papers, and so at last away.

time an odd thing had happened It seems that Nathan had tendered can't say another word." Carroll W. Downey, and his attendant officials, that there down on their commander in a tumultu- few of the officers, commissioned in piers. The passengers, as was their county. had been a champagne breakfast pro- ously cheering torrent, officers and men new regiments, were to return to Ma- wont, were gathered within the glass louged beyond the limits, that Nathan, | grasping his extended hands, unasham | nila, certain others were to remain | inclosed "saloon" of the upper deck, his adjutant and orderly essayed to es- ed of the dew that dimmed their eyes, awhile in San Francisco, but the bulk of some few braving the breeze toward cort the carriages of their guests to the unafraid of rebuke or regulation, and the men would scatter for home soon the bows, but Langdon stood gazing oe!" said Nathan, flushed and angry. of he spoke, "but my orders are imper- soft eyes swimming in tears. ative. The governor and the state officials can pass in their carriages. Ali others must keep off the field."

"This is insolence!" shouted Nathan only two weeks. The Washoes were sentry in the guard tent?"

not yet determined. The governor and sir," began the corporal. "Those were hard hater and as hard a hitter. Na. under you by a private soldier? I'll warrant that parting soldiery. esy and other burracks and greeted by the thunder of civilian dress darted in and landed a which the different and the garrison guns, took place in front scientific swing on the jaw that dropped the luckless officer like a log Are well to said for the purpose line. For the last time the Washoes | Nathan lay for a moment stunned, then looked up, dazed and helpless, into the of staff that afternoon, came sauntergrave face of Eric Langdon.

"Get your major home at once," the colonel replied to the adjutant's hurright and left of the reviewing point ried, embarrassed explanation. "The were scores of carriages from town, matter shall be fully investigated. Who-who struck you?"

"I did. General Laugdon," spoke up the assailant, with blood in his eye vitation to draw up close to the staff. and wrath on his tongue. "Captain fice at Brentwood. You were satisfied where a far better view could be had. Martin, late Second Columbias, sir. of the innocence of Mr. Langdon, beand I'm ready to answer for it to him On Monday the Aday of December, 19- and Ethel Grahame sat smiling within or to anybody-here or anywhere. He by the Big Horn you tendered him as lashed a sentry in the discharge of his good a position on your road. Is not duty, and if that isn't enough, by heaven- Well, you heard what he Barclay flushed. He was a man acsaid?" And the young captain ap- customed to dictate and to be anpealed to the crowd.

"Hello!" said the general. "What's of the colonel for his men, of his dar-reviewing point and that when they when at last they were dispersed and efter the final ceremony the governor back over the seething flood and the

 coco  coco  reached the sentry lines a brown cheek. I gone and had cheered to the echo his and his advisers having decided against ed, stalwart young fellow had present | few brief, heartfelt words of thanks the parade. Melville at breakfast time ed arms to the governor, but lowered and farewell and May and Melville and read the sensational account in The Inhis bayonet and said "Halt!" to the the comrades of the old, old days had vestigator and the more conservative "I'm escorting the governor of Wash- again to see what had become of that hour be was at Langdon's tent and "So I see, sir," said the Washoe pri- somehow to Ethel Grainame, who stood ing of his soldier goods and chattels. vate, a university lad who knew where- gazing after the departing soldiery, her Each knew what was uppermost in the garrison close at hand, but there was tent. flushed with wine and furious at the strange hush at Nathan's, whose plaz- "That fellow is still in close arrest." detention, with the consequent humilia. za rustled as a rule with the silks and said he, "and I cannot reach him until received certain of the old regiment tion. "Go on, driver! Out of the way, satins of society. Investigation of the he is released." morning episode had been prompt and "And then?" asked Melville thoughtble, but who came to blin frankly and The coachman whipped up, knowing searching. The commanding general fully, told him of their contrition and regret. no better. The major spurred. His had seen the fracas from afar. His "Then-I shall cowhide him." They had wronged only Langdon. Tor- powerful horse sprang forward, but in own staff officer made report, his own "Langdon," said the general after a rance had spoken disdainfully of a in a second the lithe westerner had orders had been defied, for, thanks to moment's reflection, "that's what brave girl whose offense in the eyes of scized him by the bit and, bearing him an overeager crowd at a previous core brought me out here so early. Read the small such element at Pawnee was back, yelled lustily for the corporal of mony, the chief of staff had written this first." that she stood by the sorrowing man the guard. Mad with rage, Nathan that, except such persons as should be It was a letter in Nathan's handwritand thought him despitefully used, and lashed with his handing crop at the personally bidden, only the general, his ing. Langdon took it slowly and with now would Langdon be apt to forgive young soldier's head, but in another in staff and escort, with the state officials, obvious repugnance, his eyes the while an affront to Ethel Grahame? Mrs. stant two men, one in the uniform of should be allowed within the line of resting with inquiry and eagerness up-Torrance, after the new captain sailed a lieutement of infantry, the other in sentries. Nathan's self appointment as on another missive, a little note that for Manila, wished to take rooms with civilian dress, sprang to the gid of the escort to the governor failed of confir- the general still retained. Opening the these pleasant army people at their fa- sentry. One of them seized Nathan's mation. The sentinel had acted strict- first, however, be read as follows: verite carayansary. She loved society, left foot in both hards and by an old ly in accordance with his orders. The but everybody knew her husband had and well known trick, suddenly heav- major had committed one of the grav- how fries less is, in the army, unless how has been knocked flat by Laugdon for im- ing, tumbled the raging, red faced offi- est crimes known to military law, first gone pertinent mention of Miss Grahame, cer headforemost out of his saddle. He in refusing to obey and second in darand, though it happened ten years be- landed heavily, but labored presently ling to strike the sentry. Captain Marfore, the breach had never been healed, to his feet, choking with fury and tin and his associates, late of the Co-Torrance had never sought pardon, well nigh bereft of his senses. The lumbias, were interregated by the judge advocate of the department and "Arrest these men!" roared Nathan, bidden to bold themselves in various a "They've attacked me-an officer on to testify before the court that would disperse, but the major's leave was for duty-escorting a governor! Put that be convened forthwith, for Major Nathan had been placed in close arrest. still in camp and the day of muster out | "The sentry was only doing his duty, But that wasn't all. Cresswell was a you think to have your horse backed almost from than's vile lasult had been audible to a "Orders from that safe robbing dozen bystanders, and, though Langand somewhat given to suggestion that, scoundrel of a militia colonel out you. don had not been allowed to thear of it. They've about convinced Mr. Earthay that the Cresswell followed up the rumor and least I can lock for is dismissal unless I are go ment to come to the capital. They: Whack! That was Nathan's last hit got the exact words. In formulating I was hasty, or I suppose I ought to say violent wise to refer to them. There was quite enough to dismiss him from the service without allusion to his insane outbreak, but Cresswell wasn't satisfied. He had never abandoned his theory that young Betts was the culprit, and soon after the senior's transfer to anand the young man fled from Brent. us. Here's another note." wood between two days, no one knew talk at the time, for the road made no effort to run him down. It was learnwould end the matter.

Perhaps it might have done so but for Nathan's reiteration of the old slander, and there was a scene in the lobby of the Palace hotel one evening just within the week of the episode, when the president of the Senttle, who had hastened from Chicago in response to "wires" from the Nathans and who had had a long interview with the accused officer that morning and a short one-a very short one-with the chief ing down in evening dress to dinner, a brace of magnates with him. The trio were suddenly accosted by Judge Cresswell, who presented his card and delivered himself substantially as follows: "Mr. Barclay, you were general manager of the Scattle at the time of a certain safe robbery in the Hig Horn ofcause immediately after his discharge this true?"

proached only with much show of def-That evening there was a never to be erence. Triple doors and keepers forgotten scene in front of the colonel's guarded his office against intrusion. tent in the camp of the Washoes. Six and a most bey reserve of manner dishundred strong, officers and men, mass- couraged all attempts at conversation ed in solid phalanx, silent, bareheaded, except among his chosen intimates. there stood the two battalions, while But here was this confounded Kennot gaffant. "Wonderful how some their spokesman, his voice trembling tuckian-he knew him well by sight and may bring the best price. One- in battle," continued the double star- ed and honored commander that the ceremony in a public place. He

"I see it is and that you distinctly he re calle in cone-third on the first day field. It seemed to the commander that on one side were grouped the governor, remember it. Moreover, you know he had put it very neatly, though the his staff and state officers and on the that young Betts has been a fugitive lady failed to appear profoundly im- other a large party of officers and la. from justice for months and that his dies, Melville and his household in shortages, including the $600, were She wished to know the cause of the their midst. Rodney May, with one paid by his father, now in your em-Plats or maps of said lands with full delay, for the Washoes were now stand- arm in a sling, had tendered the other, ploy. I know this, because Mr. Burdescription may be seen by calling on ing at case. "Oh, the governor and hardly knowing what he did, to Ethel leigh of the Big Horn has frankly told some of his people!" explained the Grahame, who unaccountably had me that he long since told you, and yet chief, with slight annoyance in his taken it. Hovering about the skirts of your precious kinsman, whom you tone. "It seems they have been enter- the crowd an old darky, bowed and have hastened here to save if possible. tained over at the post, but they're decrepit, was whimpering with joy, dared last week to publicly speak of coming now," he added as two car. On the flanks of the battalions, as my partner, General Langdon, as the

"Your partner subjected Major Na-

Barelay ieily. "My partner did not, sir, and it is my ens among the carriage loads of look- all were hanging on the words of the belief that you know he did not; that ers on were aware that there was a soldier spokesman as he told of the the order Major. Nathan refused to hitch of some kind up toward that end scenes of battle across the wide surges obey was that of the commanding genof the ocean, of the never failing care eral." And now Colonel Cresswell's voice resonuded through the echoing lobby. "A gentleman, sir, from my carriages of the approaching dignita- devotion to their wounded and strick- section of the Union can't soil his hands by chastising a coward, as Majing the same on wich S. C. Padgett lived there were running and commotion. ed every telling point, and the soldiers or Nathan is held to be, and the proprior to his death. The lands will be sold Then Langdon was seen to spur rapid- followed suit, but presently the major tection of his wife's perticoats prevents my getting him where I can There was only one way to silence their brand him as a liar, but as you are his and will be seld on the following terms: scuffle matters were straightened out. bound them, of the love and trust and next of kin, by marriage at least, I officials were striving with all their we can sell nothing else. One-third to be paid in cash, one-third in The carriages, with some fluctered faith with which their hearts would have taken this opportunity of making power to herd the enthusiastic crowd J. & H. Sands, Trimble, Athens Co., O. are hereby notified to make immediate pressed his hands and he could turn story of The Carbuncle. Within an beautiful sword it had found its way found the colonel supervising the pack-

The sound of cheering borne on the mind of the other, and Langdon bade his orderly excuse him to visitors a few evening breeze swept through the bow- moments, sent Hurricane to the camp ered row of officers' quarters in the postoffice and let down the flaps of the

I, and in the present exaggerated feeling as the relative next of the columeers and reguby was. I merely lost my temper and said and though that were indefensible, I suppose, But just courself in my place. I have reason to believe Colonel Langdon would have used the ash quickthan I did. In fact, I hardly struck the sentry at all. But, of course, it's useless to tall of the charges against the officer it was and I'm willing to do anything you say to make considered both unnecessary and un-amends, both to the soldier in the case and to the colonel. A written apology, I suppose, is what they'll want-

Put Langdon's indignation rose with every line.

"Why do you show me this?" he asked, "It's a contemptible letter. It's long years after the occurrence and unworthy the faintest consideration." "Well, would you cownide a man other road there leaked a story from whose words were unworthy of considonly so long as Betts was influential, away from him tomorrow and come to

And the general sauntered out into whither. The matter caused no little the sunshine to chat with the gathering at the time that one could know how officers and to smile kindly and genialed later that a shortage of upward of of rendering honors to their colonel's heard that Washington was dead, shut $1,000 was "squared" by relatives of friend. He thought to give Langdon his store, as a matter of course, with the fugitive, and that, it was supposed. time to read his own letter, but little was needed. The dainty note when business was stopped. opened contained but the single word: "Don't."

That night in the crowded station at Oakland pier the home going Washees. seemed bent on raising the roof. Two longings were stored aboard, but the word had passed that Langdon was there to see them off, and the raseals wouldn't go. Out they piled on the platform, shouting like mad, and surrounded him in tumultuous acclaim. They had hoisted him on a baggage truck, and there was only one way to silence their clamor. That was to speak. On the gaffery and staircase stood a throng of people-men, women and children-sympathetic witnesses of the stirring scene. Melville and his wife in their midst, Ethel Grahame, with flushed cheeks and shining eyes and with bands that trembled as they clasped the rail, bending forward as though she would not lose a word. Instinctively and as of old the Washoes hushed at his uplifted hand.

"I could not speak to you today," he said. "I cannot do you justice now. Your faith, your loyalty, your-yes, I dare say it-your affection, I prize beyoud all power of words to tell you, and the sorrow of parting would choke who have served so closely together as soldiers in the year gone by are to live ing. together as friends and comrades and fellow citizens of a beloved state, please God, for many a year to come." Another uproarious cheer broke in I suppose that is the rule." upon and drowned his words. Railway for yourselves, boys," he choked. "I Langdon heard of Nathan's language. A moment later the buge ferryboat rast dimming lights of the ferryhouse, his eyes on the last vestiges of the regiment, scores of whom had chased after him for a final cheer, his thoughts going back over the year of active service, of battle and campaign, he and those brave lads had spent together.

But little by little the gaze relaxed and turned, following his heart, to the girl standing silent there at the rall. She was listening, breathless, to the cheers and farewells. She had marked the deep emotion in his eyes and in those of the tried and trusty commides now fading from view. Stealthily, silently, Mrs. Melville had led her general with in doors and told him the night air was too raw for a wounded veteran.

"How about Erie?" quested the coneral, with twinkling in his eyes,

"Leave him to-Ethel," was the ga swer of superior wisdom.

And so, ten years after the sad event that sent him adrift upon the world Langdon turned as the last faint cheer followed them across the racing waters, marked her as she stood like one absorbed, entranced, threw one quick glance about him, then as quickly stepped to her side and seized within his own firm grasp the siender hands that were trembling at the rall. Then she, too, gave one startled look, saw that they were alone, and even under the pallor of the moonlight her brow flushed erimson. Lids and inshes dreoped and velled her swimming eyes, for the woman in her told her that, without a word, she stood confessed in the presence of her master, even though that master were looking imploringly into her downcast face, and the voice that stilled or swayed at will those hosts of stalwart men was trembling in its plea, adoring and passionate, for the love he craved in answer to that he so long had given. What was there left for her to say? Her lips moved, but he heard not. Eagerly he bent, lower, lower still, and then shyly at last they were upraised and-told him.

THE END.

Washington's Death.

Mr. George Ticknor, who wrote "The History of Spanish Literature" and erfordion, N. C., at the close of business "The Life of Prescott," remembered on September 36th, 1361. distinctly the death of Washington, He

There never was a more striking or Leans and discounts, . spontaneous tribute paid to a man than | Overdrafts . . . the yards that had been suppressed eration, Eric? Think over that, Keep was paid in Boston when the news Furniture and Fixtures, came of Washington's death It was on Dec. 14, 1799, a fittle be. Due from banks and bankers, fore noon. I often heard persons say Cash on hand, far the news had spread by the closing ly at the men, who never seemed to tire of the shops. Each man, when he out consultation, and in two hours all Caiptal stock, - . $10,000.00

My father came home and could no er was alarmed to see him in such a Carhier schecks, . . . state natil he recovered enough to tell her the sad news. For some time every one, even the children, wore eraps on special trains were there to whirl them the arm. No bay could go into the away to the mountains. Their few be street without it. I wore it, though cial Eank of Rutherfordion, to selemnly only 8 years old.

A Pempous Ceremeny. An Interesting ceremony takes place

daily at Glicaltar. The town and State of N. C., Rutherford County. fortress lie at the end of a poninsula. about a mile and a half long, the mainland being Spanish territory. The gate this 11th day of October, 1901, leading to Spain is, every evening, locked at sunset and every morning unlocked at sunrise. Each day a company from one of the regiments per forms one of these functions. In the a band, marches to the commandant's tion, and the commandant bands out the keys on a velvet cushion. These cash on are received by the captain's orderly. the band strikes up, and the procession marches to the gate, which is unlocked the same ceremony, in the reverse order, is gone through. All suspicious

An Exception.

"I feel so depressed when it rains November 5th, 1954.
M. G. HAWKINS. hard," said Mrs. Snaggs. "But, then. "There are exceptions," said her hus-

"Yes: umbrellas are raised."-Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

It Saved Her Life.

which has astonished the people. Miss Snart, Marvel Padgett and others, A Davis was given up to die by her attending physician. She had lung fever The ject to the dower rights of Mrs. Ina doctor said she would die before morn- Roberson. The land will be sold for ing and advised to discontinue his med- partition among the heirs of J. G. Rob icine, as it was doing her no good, Her 1991. parents had a bottle of Gooch's Mexican Syrup and Gooch's Quick Relief in the house. They at once began to give the Syrup in doses one hour apart, and frequently bathed her chest with the Quick Relief. Before morning she was better, pointed by the court as administratrix, and rfter using a few bottles of each, with the wills annexed, of Isaac S. Roand rfter using a few bottles of each. she is almost al well as ever. It was almost like raising the dead, and has car tates of said deceased are hereby notified tablished the reputateon of Gooch's to present them on or before the 7th may Mexican Syrup here as a cough remedy: of November, 1962, or this notice will be pleaded in har of their recovery. All twelve months and the remaining one- looking civilians, were driving down follow their soldier leader, of the pride known my sentiments to you. You about the two looking civilians, were driving down follow their soldier leader, of the pride known my sentiments to you. You about the two looking civilians, were driving down follow their soldier leader, of the pride known my sentiments to you. You about the two looking civilians, were driving down follow their soldier leader, of the pride known my sentiments to you. it was who settled the question. "We remedy for whooping cough. Price 25c.

lished every Thursday.

Notice! People who are indebted to me, will ber 1st, A. D. 1901.

J. R. WASHBURN. | o. 3-4 w.

Palpitation,

fluttering or irregular pulsations are an indication of weakness of the nerves or muscles of the heart. A weakness long continued produces deformity and organic disease. If your heart action is weak, make it strong. Build up the muscles and strengthen the nerves with the greatest of all heart remedies, Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

"My wife suffered greatly with palpitation of the heart, smethering spells and loss of sleep. She found immediate relief Irom Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and after a thorough course her trouble all quiets the nervous heart, regulates its pulsations and builds up its strength as nothing else can. Sold by druggists on a guarantee.

CAPT. THOS. F. GEORGE. Athens, Ala

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure

Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

COMMERCIAL BANK.

Report of the condition of the Commercial Bank of Rutherfordton, at Buth-

RESOURCES.

Revenue on hand, $18,546.08 LIABILITIES.

Undivided profits, - - 975.62 speak, he was so overcome. My moth- Deposits subject to checks, - 27,559.46 Total, - - $38,546.08

I, J. F. Flack, cashier of The Commer-swear the above statement is tree to the best of my knowledge and belief. J. F. FLACK, Cashier.

Sworn to and subscribed before me

M. O. DICKERSON, C. S. C.

Notice!

By virtue of an order issuing from the morning the company, fully officered, Superior court of the courses of Ratherwith colors flying and accompanied by ford, in the special proceedings entitled "M. G. Hawkins, administrator of J P. Tate, deceased, vs. Lou Tate, Edna Tate house. The company comes to atten- and others," I will sell on the premises near Floyd's Creek church for one-half

Saturday, December 7th, 1901, about 30 acres of valuable farming lands with great ceremony. In the evening adjoining the lamis of Laucaster, Putcat, Harris and Eistler, lying on Fleyd's teriek. The lands will be sold to create assets with which to pay dolts against my utterance did I not know that we characters are put out of the town be the estate of the integrate, and will be fore the gates are locked in the even- sold on the following terms: One-bulf the purchase money to be paid in cash, the balance on a credit of twelve months to bear interest from date of sale. This Administrator of J. P. Tate. McBrayer & Justice, Attorneys.

Notice!

On Monday, the 2nd day of December. 1961, I will sell at public agetion, for cash, at the court house door in Katherfordton, N. C., the ollowing tract parcel of land lying near Festic sta-Gooch's Mexican Syrup has accom- tion, known as the James G. Roberson skished a cure in this neighborhood lands, adjoining the lands of A. L. tract contains 62%, abres more or less, This tract of 62%, acros will be sold suberson, deceased. This November 4th.

B. A. JUSTICE, Commissioner. McBrayer & Justice, Attorneys,

Notice.

Having duly qualified and been apland and of Sarah S. Roland, deceased, all persons having claims against the es persons indebted to the estates aferesaid

MISS LIZZIE B. ROLAND, Administratrix. Eaves & Rucker, Attorneys.

Money to Lend!

I am now prepared to negotiate leans on improved farming lands on five years The formal muster out of the Wash- was sending a foaming rush of moonlit -THE TRIBUNE is all-home print, and time in Cleveland or Rutherford coun certain bospitalities to the governor And "the boys," breaking ranks, bore oes was to occur that afternoon. Some waters sternward against the receding the only paper published in Rutherford ties on decidedly better terms than I desiring loans on improved farming lands will please call on me in person and bring with them their title deeds. This Octo-

ROBERT L. RYBURN, Attorney, Shelly, N. C.