MORROW--POLLOCK.

A Pretty Marriage at Blacksburg, South Carolina.

Yesterday evening at 7 o'clock at the First Methodist church of this place, the marriage of Miss Zulpha Pollock and Mr. Marvin H. Morrow was celebrated. The church was tastefully decorated in yellow and green, the colors selected for the occasion, and was comfortably filled before the appointed hour by the relatives and friends of the young couple. The ushers were Masters Hill and Fred Cox, who very skillfully performed the duties assigned them. Their sister, Miss Marion Cox, presided at the organ and as the sweet strains of the wedding march filled the church the bridal party entered in the following order: Miss Lillian Bolin, of Columbia, with Mr. J. C. Penny, of Blacksburg; Miss Ethel Fenmet, of Marion, S. C., with Mr. C. M. Smith, of Gaffney; Miss Ida Penny, of Rock Hill, S. C., with Mr. Phil Freeman, of Blacksburg; Miss Bonnie Morrow, of Rutherfordton, with Mr. Robt. Swafford, of Gaffney; Miss Lucy Pollock, of Blacksburg, with Mr. John McAlister, of Gaffney; Miss Mary Pollock with Mr. J. W. Pollock, of Blacksburg, each couple taking their places on either side of the altar. Then came the groom with his best man, Mr. J. F. Cliff, of Louisville, Ky., and immediately following came the lovely and graceful bride leaning on the arm of her dower, Mrs. C. F. Geer of Rutherfordton. She was met by the groom and under a beautiful floral bell, Rev. H. W. Bays, of Rock Hill, S. C., assisted by Rev. Mr. Clarkson, in an impressive manner performed the ceremony, which united two loving hearts into one. The bride was attired in a white silk dress with tulle veil and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The dame of honor and bride's maids were very prettily dressed, alternately in yellow and white organdie, each carrying bouquets, carnations and ferns. The groom and groomsmen looked very handsome in full evening dress. A reception was held at the home of the bride on Cherokee street for the relatives and special friends. This morning the happy young couple left on the early Southern train for Washington and other Northern cities. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Pollock of our town, and is a very sweet and accomplished young lady. The groom is the son of the well-known banker and business man, Mr. D. F. Morrow, of Rutherfordton, and is cashier of the Bank of Blacksburg. They have a host of friends who wish them much happiness.—Blacksburg Special 2nd, and Charlotte Observer.

Gedger Will Win the 10th. Raleigh Correspondent to Charlotte Observer 7th, says: Locke Craig was here today. He looked particularly well and chatted in a bright way. In response to inquiries he said that he was much pleased with the joint canvass with Senator Pritchard, felt well and would tomorrow begin the last series of speeches, at Statesville. This series ends at Asheville next Saturday. Requests that he and Pritchard make speeches together have come from at least a dozen counties, but he says he does not think any will be granted, and that the discussion will end Saturday. He says that the biggest crowd so far was at Pittsboro and that the best discussion was at Fayetteville. At Raleigh though surely neither speaker ever had a finer audience, neither was at his best. Mr. Craig was joyous at the prospect in the tenth district and said: "Gedger will surely win. I have no sort of doubt of it. He and Moody have had a joint canvass and all agree that Gedger got the best of it." Mr. Craig left on the afternoon train.

Man Shoots Himself. A farmer by the name of Henry Campbell shot and killed himself in his barn near Lattimore Wednesday morning. The shot penetrated his body above the heart, severing a large artery, and his death soon resulted. Family trouble is given as the cause for his committing suicide. For several days he was bent on taking his own life, and several times attempted to do so by jumping into the well at his home, but was prevented from doing so by members of the family. It is said that before he committed the deed, he told his wife and children that he intended killing himself, and asked his wife to go and see it done. She refused to do however. The deceased was about 62 years of age.

Attempted Lynching. Last Sunday morning about two o'clock a mob of about twenty men attempted to lynch the negro, Calvin Elliott who assaulted Mrs. Brown at Lincolnton last week. The jail was recently fitted up with steel doors and cages, and the crowd failed to latter down the doors before help was summoned, and were forced to abandon their design. A special term of court has been ordered for October the 20th to try the negro, Francis D. Winston will hold the court.

Mr. Gardner Here Monday. Hon. G. E. Gardner, of Burnsville, spoke to a small crowd in the court house here Monday. The whole of his speech was an attack upon J. F. Spahnour, the Democratic nominee for solicitor, but his efforts will not do him any damage here. He went from here to Forest City Monday evening.

Mr. Reid Has Appendicitis. Mr. Forest Reid left for the hospital in Charlotte last Tuesday for the purpose of undergoing an operation for appendicitis. Dr. C. W. Downey accompanied him. The operation has not been performed yet we are told.

Never Ask Advice. When you have a cough or cold don't ask what is good for it and get some medicine with little or no merit and perhaps dangerous. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar, the greatest throat and lung remedy, it cures coughs and colds quickly. Sold by The City Drug Store.

UNION MILLS, October 6th.—The voting place for this township, Camp Creek, has been changed from the Nabors store place near Britain post office, to this town. This is a more convenient arrangement than before.

There was a prohibition contest at the college Saturday night which was highly enjoyed by the large number present. The medal was awarded to Miss Ida Nannery.

Miss Lillie Hogue, who has been teaching in McDowell county for some time came home last week and will enter Westminster school, at Britain. Her sister, Miss Hattie, will enter the school at this place.

Otter Creek Items.

Correspondent of THE TRIBUNE.

OTTER CREEK, October 7th.—The little babe of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harris died at Old Fort on the 4th inst, and was interred in the Montford Cove cemetery on the 5th inst.

Heavy rains on last Saturday night. Killed, in the town of Rutherfordton, a rabbit by Brown's private secretary, on the 6th inst, a rabbit which was only prepared and served on Elder T. B. Justice' breakfast table with many other good things, the Secretary and a visiting Rev. being present. It is believed that the Secretary is carrying the feet in his pocket and politicians will do well to keep in favor with him and those on whom he confers this degree. He says he is going to give one to Brown and Copper Bill may feel in his inside left hand coat pocket for the treasure.

Some of our voters are out with the Dispensary and say down and out with it as the funds or proceeds promised for the public roads are not forth coming. The candidates for the Legislature will be called out to state how they stand on this question, so boys get your answers ready. Nothing short of good roads and a much less grade, but a high grade of Representative and county offices will satisfy this part of the county.

Public Speaking.

Hon. Thomas Settle and J. A. Logan, of Asheville, will address the people of Rutherford county in the court house Saturday on the political issues of the campaign. Mr. Logan was the Republican candidate for the Legislature in the last campaign.

Cherry Tree Cases Continued.

At the Federal court at Greensboro this week, the defendants were allowed to pay $5,000, and were recognized to appear at the next term in Charlotte, at which they are to pay $5,000 more.

Uriscol—Its Wonderful Powers.

Mr. Harry Isaacs, general baggage agent Santa Fe R. R., Los Angeles, Cal., the home of Uriscol, writes: "Having suffered from rheumatism and a torpid liver, I was advised to try Uriscol. It also cures kidney and bladder troubles caused by uric acid in the system. Druggists sell it at $1.00 per bottle.

No danger of consumption if you use Foley's Honey and Tar to cure that stubborn cough. Sold by The City Drug Store.
