BLACK-DRAUGHT STOCK AND POULTRY MEDICINE

I have had occasion to use your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and am pleased to say that I never used anything for stock that gave half as good satisfaction. I heartily recommend it to all owners of stock.

J. B. BELSER, St. Louis, Mo.

Sick stock or poultry should not eat cheap stock food any more than sick persons should expect to be cured by food. When your stock and poultry are sick give them medicine. Don't stuff them with worthless stock foods. Unload the bowels and stir up the torpid liver and the animal will be cured, if it is possible to cure it. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine unloads the bowels and stirs up the torpid liver. It cures every malady of stock if taken in time. Secure a 25-cent can of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and it will pay for itself ten times over. Hogs work better. Cows give more milk. Hogs gain flesh. And hens lay more eggs. It solves the problem of making as much blood, flesh and energy as possible out of the smallest amount of food consumed. Buy a can from your dealer.

CZAR'S REALM SAYS PUNISH REGICIDES

Official Note Is Issued From St. Petersburg.

KING PETER IS RECOGNIZED

Note Says It Is Incumbent Upon New Ruler to Avenge Assassinations. Dangerous to Tranquility of Servia To Leave Crime Unpunished.

St. Petersburg, June 18.—An official note was published in the Gazette today recognizing Prince Peter Karageorgievitch as king of Servia and acknowledging his accession. In brief the note declares that it is incumbent upon King Peter to avenge the assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga, and expresses the conviction that he will know how to severely punish the regicides, whose misdeeds should not be visited on the entire Servian nation or army. The note adds that it would be dangerous to the tranquility of Servia to leave the crime unpunished.

The text of the note follows: "A week has now elapsed since the day of the bloody revolution at Belgrade, an intimation of which could not be given to the imperial government in the customary form because the legal authority was lacking in Servia. Strictly adhering to her standpoint of non-intervention in the internal affairs of the Balkan states and at the same time finding it impossible to hold any intercourse with the persons who have arbitrarily usurped power, Russia has awaited the conclusion of the troubles in order to define clearly her attitude towards the events in the kingdom of Servia. The supreme and senate assembled in extraordinary session June 15, the legal order of things was re-established and Prince Peter Karageorgievitch was unanimously elected king. The prince, complying with the request of the national assembly, has consented to ascend the throne of Servia under the name of Peter I. Immediately after the proclamation of the new king telegraphed to the czar asking his imperial majesty to recognize him as king, whereupon confirmation of this was sent.

"The imperial government, while hailing the election of the new monarch, acclamation of a glorious dynasty, and wishing all success as the supreme head of the Servian people, who are allied to Russia by ties of religion, can nevertheless not refrain from expressing the confident hope that King Peter will be able to give evidence of the sense of justice and firmness of will by adopting measures at the outset to investigate the abominable misdeed which has been committed and to mete out rigorous punishment to those traitorous criminals who have stained themselves with the infamy of regicide. Of course, the entire Servian nation or army cannot be held responsible for the crime which revolts public conscience, yet it would be dangerous to Servia's international peace not to exact explanation for the revolution carried out with violence by the militia. Such neglect would inevitably react in an unfavorable manner on the relations of all the states with Servia and would create for Servia serious difficulties at the commencement of the reign of King Peter, the first.

"Their Russian co-religionists offer to God supplications for the repose of the souls of King Alexander and his consort, who have met an untimely end, and they invoke the blessing of the Almighty on the rule of King Peter for the welfare and prosperity of the Servian people."

King Loudly Cheered.

Geneva, Switzerland, June 18.—King Peter attended a Te Deum service today at the Russian church in honor of his election to the throne of Servia. He was loudly cheered.

CARDINAL VAUGHAN DEAD.

Archbishop of Westminster Dies After Long Illness.

London, June 20.—The Very Rev. Herbert Vaughan, cardinal and archbishop of Westminster, died at midnight. Cardinal Vaughan was born April 15, 1832. He became archbishop of Westminster in 1892. He has been ill more than three months. Late in March it was thought he could not survive more than a few days. The cardinal, who has been sinking for some weeks from heart disease and dropsy, died peacefully. His death was not expected so soon. Yesterday he was wheeled in a bath chair about the corridors of St. Joseph's college, which he founded with money which he collected in America and elsewhere. On the previous day he appeared in the college chapel in full cardinal robes, and made a farewell address to his bishops and priests. His remains will lie in state in the cathedral at Westminster and will be buried at St. Joseph's college.

SOUTHERN WILL LAY TRACK.

Traffic Too Heavy for Two Roads West of Chattanooga.

Chattanooga, Tenn., June 20.—It is understood here that the Southern railway is again considering the building of the Stevenson extension, a track from this city to Stevenson, Ala., there to connect with the present line of the Memphis and Charleston railway, which is controlled by the Southern. It is stated that the traffic over the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway, whose tracks the Memphis and Charleston uses between this city and Stevenson, has grown to such an extent that it is difficult to operate the trains of the two roads over the one track.

GRAND JURY INDICTS SIMS.

True Bill Returned Against Defaulting Collection Clerk.

Atlanta, June 18.—The Fulton county grand jury yesterday returned an indictment against G. H. Sims, defaulting discount and collection clerk of the Capital City National bank, charging him with embezzlement.

The indictment is based on an alleged embezzlement of funds by Sims while the bank was known as the "Capital City bank," a state institution, before it became a national bank. It is charged that before the institution was changed to a national bank Sims made way with funds to the amount of $21,899.55.

A warrant will be served on Sims at the federal penitentiary, where he is now serving a six years' sentence for embezzlement, having been sentenced from the United States court. The state indictment will become effective when Sims completes his present sentence and he can then be tried in the state courts.

DEATH OF PIONEER ATLANTIAN.

G. W. Collier, One of City's Wealthiest Men Dies.

Atlanta, June 20.—George Washington Collier, one of the oldest and wealthiest citizens of Atlanta, died this morning at 1:45 o'clock at his residence near Piedmont park. Mr. Collier had been ill for several months, but his condition was not considered critical until recently. A few days ago a turn came for the worse and but little hope of recovery has been entertained.

Mr. Collier was nearly 90 years old—he would have been 90 at his next birthday—and all the years of his long life have been passed in what is now Fulton county. He was born near where he died while the Indians were still hunting in Georgia, and when there was no thought even of Martha'sville, let alone Atlanta.

He lived to see the forests and the Indians disappear and give place to railroads, factories and skyscrapers.

BUSY TIME FOR SOLONS.

Approaching Session of the Georgia Legislature.

Atlanta, June 20.—When the legislators meet at the capitol next Wednesday morning they will find no end of work on their hands left over from last session to keep them busy for several weeks without the introduction of any new business. While it is altogether likely that some attempt will be made to reduce the length of the session from the 50 days specified, yet the wise ones at the capitol opine that there will be business enough to keep the legislators toiling all through the heated days of July and far into the month of August.

Moody Makes Appointments.

Washington, June 18.—After a conference with the president today Secretary Moody announced the following appointments, all of the appointees being from New York: Captain Charles W. Rae, to be chief of the bureau of steam engineering upon the retirement of George W. Melville in August next. Pay Director Henry T. B. Harris, to be paymaster general upon the retirement of Rear Admiral A. S. Kennis this month. Lieutenant Colonel George F. Elliott, to be commandant of the marine corps when Major General Charles Heywood retires next fall.

Long Fast Is Ended.

Augusta, Ga., June 18.—Dr. W. Sterling Wilkinson, after 50 days, broke his fast Wednesday at 2 o'clock. He says he enjoyed the meal with genuine childlike hunger, digested it perfectly, and feels better than he has done before in years. In a statement for publication, setting out the above facts, he announces that he will not be interviewed by friends for two or three days, as he needs to exercise care and adjust his system again to eating solid food, and must have complete mental and physical relaxation.

Took Liniment and Then Died.

San Francisco, June 20.—Within a week the last link of the commercial Pacific cable will be laid between San Francisco and Manila and the United States will have direct communication with its Philippine possessions.

The cable ship Colocola reached Midway island yesterday, completing the link between Guam and Midway, and immediately on its arrival the Angela departed for Honolulu to close the last gap in the transpacific cable, a distance of 1,160 miles. Superintendent Harrington, of the Commercial Pacific Cable company, states today that he believed the Angela would accomplish the voyage in six days, paying out the wire rope enroute.

ALABAMA PEONAGE CASES.

Vigorous Prosecution Ordered by the Attorney General.

Washington, June 18.—United States Attorney Reese, of Montgomery, Ala., was at the department of justice Wednesday, in response to a request from Attorney General Knox, who wished to confer with him in regard to the progress of the prosecutions of persons in that state for peonage.

Although the attorney general is not disposed to discuss, for publication, the status of the cases in which the extent of the peonage system in Alabama, it is known that a large number of cases are under investigation and that in addition to the arrests already made, it is expected that warrants will soon be issued for a still larger number. It is said that the system is not in operation to any considerable extent near the cities and large towns, but that in some of the more sparsely settled sections it is quite common.

The officials of the department of justice are determined to destroy it and to track out every discovered case will be vigorously prosecuted.

TRAINS MET AT CROSSING.

Seaboard Dashed Into a Southern Freight at Carey, N. C.

Raleigh, N. C., June 20.—At Carey, near here, where the Southern and Seaboard Air Line's tracks cross, the engineer of a Southern freight train Friday saw a Seaboard train coming and stopped on the crossing. The brakes on the Seaboard train were out of order. It dashed into the Southern train and cut through a car and damaged four others. The Southern train's stoppage prevented the extensive wreck which would have resulted with both trains moving.

Wilmington, N. C., June 19.—John H. McDougal, head moulder at the Wilmington Iron Works, was fatally scalded by molten metal Thursday morning. Mr. Dougal was hurled up in the air and the top of the building was torn off. The furnace was completely wrecked. Three other men who were working around the furnace saw the kettle falling and made a dash for the door, barely escaping.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 20.—James Lovely, a young man of LaFollette, Tenn., near here, died a few days ago. Some apprehension was caused as to his death, and a post-mortem examination was ordered by the coroner. His young wife, it is said, objected to such an examination, but to no effect. The reports have been made and the jury returned a verdict that Lovely had died of poison. Mrs. Lovely was arrested. The case will be taken up by the Campbell county grand jury, now in session. Lovely had been married but three weeks and three days.

Friday arrangements were completed for an even greater campaign along this line, beginning July 1. There are over 50 speakers on the list, who will devote a month or two months to this most important work, among these being ex-Governor Jarvis, Governor Aycock, Auditor Dixon, President McIver, of the State Normal and Industrial college for Women; President Henry Louis Smith, of Davidson college; Congressman John H. ## ACROSS CONTINENT IN AUTO.

Overland Journey From San Francisco to New York.

San Francisco, June 20.—E. T. Fetch, of Jefferson, O., and M. C. Krump, of New York, left this city today in a 12-horse power single cylinder gasoline motor car of American manufacture with the intention of traveling through to New York. The trip is undertaken to demonstrate what an automobile of moderate power can do over mountain and desert roads of the worst description. A camping outfit and some material for repairs are carried over the rear portion of the vehicle, and in the front a hood so as to meet all emergencies.

Serious difficulties are expected, especially in crossing the Sand Plains of Nevada. Their machine is ideal in construction, having provision for overcoming the exigencies of the scarcity of food.

New York, June 19.—The World today publishes a dispatch from Princeton, N. J., quoting former President Cleveland as saying: "It is perfectly absurd to suppose for an instant that I have any desire to re-enter public life. Nor have I remotely entertained the thought since I left Washington, more than six years ago. The matter is as far from my thoughts as it was in 1896, when, all must admit, it was not within my hearing or sight. I have no higher aspirations than to pass my days in peace with my family around me, and take no part in politics, which any private citizen can take with the utmost propriety.

"I have never spoken to anybody on the subject of a fourth candidacy. I have never written to a single political friend one way or the other, nor have I been written to or spoken to by them. There is not a political leader of any prominence endeavoring to advance any movement to nominate me in any state, so far as I have been advised, nor do I anticipate any such effort will be made by any leader, prominent or obscure, in any locality in the country.

"I have on several occasions with in a year undertaken to perform the labor which usually falls to the private in the ranks, but there has not lurked within me the hope of any reward save the consciousness of having made an effort to assist in bringing about salutary conditions in the party."
