

SABBATH DESECRATION.

Rev. W. M. Whiteside Preaches—The New Methodist Church—Other News.

Correspondence of THE TRIBUNE.
MILLS SPRING, April 25.—Mr. O. T. Baynard returned recently from Charleston, S. C.

Mrs. Florence Ruppe, of Bright, recently spent a week with her sister, Mrs. Cornelius Gibbs.

Miss Annie Belle Logan and Miss Hamrick, of Rutherfordton, spent Sunday recently at the Mite Inn.

Miss Mary Dodd and Miss Wescott, of New Prospect, S. C., spent Easter with Mrs. James Rucker.

During the absence of Rev. W. H. Perry, the pastor, and his family, Mr. Barrett Wormack of Lebanon church, came over and deposited a load of corn and fodder in the barn. A good friend horse is feeling good now.

Rev. W. M. Whiteside, preached a very interesting sermon in the Baptist church the 1st Sunday morning. His subject was the ten commandments, Exodus 20th chapter. After a few introductory remarks about Easter, he said if the first four commandments were kept the enforcement of the last six would not be necessary. He spoke especially of the first four and emphasized the fourth. He said that the merchant who sold goods on the Sabbath would be condemned as great at the judgment as the murderer. From a reply published in a former issue of THE TRIBUNE it seems that some one is a little sore about the reference made to Sabbath desecration. While your correspondent does not know who made the reply and it may be that said party does not sell anything but something to eat on Sunday, yet it is known that such things as a bale of cotton has been loaded and hauled off, ten bushels of peas have been measured and carried away, also flour, cigars, turnip seed and many other things. I wonder what kind of people they were who ate them.

But as to the sale of cabbages perhaps said party has over looked that God commanded the Israelites to gather and prepare their food on Saturday for the Sabbath, and for those who neglected to do so he did not prepare any special patches of manna and instruct them to slip out at the back door and gather it when they thought nobody was looking. We hope the defendant is not connected with the sale of other goods than provisions on Sunday under the sheepskin guise of charity and sympathy for the hungry, and is not trying to cover up the wolf's paws of covetousness in Sabbath trade for gain. As to debt paying I am glad to state the writer does not owe any one a cent and has never been denied credit either.

We are sure we have no reputation for loud singing and praying; neither are we disposed to meddle with the private affairs of others, but only made reference to the Sabbath breaking with the hope of doing good. We are glad to say that one at least of our merchants has a reputation for keeping his store closed on Sunday, and we hope all the rest will soon follow his example.

If the shoe fits us it is better to wear it in silence than to advertise ourselves as an offended party; and if it does not fit us we should not undertake to wear it and then grumble, but just leave it for the fellow whom it does fit.

It is to be hoped that those who have really been desecrating the Sabbath will profit by their own experience in the past and if so no one will rejoice more than your humble correspondent, who bears good will to everybody.

Mrs. Ellen Hague was here recently visiting relatives.

Rev. W. H. Perry preached an excellent sermon at Bethlehem the 2nd Sunday from Isaiah 54: 10-11.

Mr. Matt Lewis, one of Mill Spring's up-to-date, enterprising merchants, has a six room addition to his dwelling framed and covered. The house will contain twelve rooms and will probably be the largest building in town. Mr. Newman, the carpenter, is pushing the work rapidly.

We understand that the members of Bethlehem church have decided to wait till crops are laid before beginning work on the new church building. It is to be hoped that they will decide to build in the town of Mill Spring, the church should be located there, then they could keep the old site, three-fourths of a mile away for a grave yard. The dilapidated condition of the old church is a reflection on the Methodist constituency of the community. They are amply able to build a good church. If they only determine to build it will be done. "So mote it be." The necessary amount invested in building a good church will be better than to put it in bonds, stocks or farms.

Dr. T. B. Twitty Warrants Every Bogle.

If troubled with rheumatism give Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. It will not cost you a cent if it does you no good. One application will relieve the pain. It also cures sprains and bruises in one third the time required by any other treatment. Cuts, burns, frost-bites, quinsy, pains in the side and chest, granular and other swellings are quickly cured by applying it. Every bottle warranted. Price 25 and 50 cents at Dr. T. B. Twitty's drug store.

Administrator's Notice.

Having qualified as administrator of the estate of Elizabeth McFadden, deceased, late of Rutherford county, North Carolina, notice is hereby given to all persons holding claims against said estate to present them duly authenticated to me for payment on or before the 18th day of March, 1905, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate are hereby notified to make immediate payment to the undersigned. This March 17th, 1904. W. L. McFADDEN, Adm'r. Eaves & Rucker, Attorneys.

A. B. Flack for Sheriff.

FOREST CITY, April 24, 1904.—We have no charges to make against the present incumbent. We are glad to say that he has a clean record. But if it is the desire of the people of Rutherford county to make a change, we have no hesitancy in suggesting the name of A. B. Flack.

Mr. Flack is well known throughout the county and has the ability and experience to make a good sheriff.

How to Ward off an Attack of Rheumatism.

"For years when spring time came on and I went into gardening, I was sure to have an attack of rheumatism and every attack was more severe than the preceding one," says Josie McDonald, of Man & Logan county, West Va. "I tried everything with no relief whatever, until I procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and the first application gave me ease, and before the first week was used I felt like a new person. Now I feel that I am cured but I always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, and when I feel any symptoms of a return I soon drive it away with one or two applications of this application of this liniment." For sale by Dr. T. B. Twitty.

Notice!

By virtue of an order of sale made in the special proceedings entitled "J. O. Simmons, administrator of J. O. Simmons, deceased, vs. J. O. Simmons, Jr., et al, heirs at law of J. O. Simmons, deceased," I will sell at public auction, on the premises, on Saturday, April 30th, 1904, at 12 m., the lands belonging to the estate of J. O. Simmons, deceased, situated in Rutherford county, in Sulphur Springs township, and lying on Richardson's creek, known as the Bob Mintz lands, adjoining the lands of James Henson, N. B. McBrayer, J. G. Simmons and others. Said lands will be sold for the purpose of creating assets for the payment of debts, and will be offered first in two or three lots, and afterwards will be offered as an entire tract, and will be sold in that way that it may bring the best price. The rents for the year 1904, will be reserved. The purchaser will be required to pay 15 per cent of the purchase price on day of sale, and one-half of the balance to be paid November 15, 1904, and the remainder the 15 day of November, 1905, the two deferred payments to be evidenced by notes and to bear interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum till paid. March 26th, 1904. J. G. SIMMONS, Administrator, of J. O. Simmons, deceased. McBrayer & Justice, Attorneys.

UNION MILLS, N. C.

TO TAX PAYERS!

I or one of my deputies may be found at my office here at any time prior to May 1st, to receive and receipt for any unpaid taxes for the year 1903.

The law is so fixed that those who do not pay their poll taxes on or before May 1st, will not be allowed to vote in the November election. I should regret exceedingly that any man who is otherwise qualified to vote should be disfranchised because of such neglect.

A failure to pay on or before May 1st, does not relieve any one from the subsequent payment of his taxes; and, I may say, with cost added, for I propose to do my duty, however onerous individual tax payers may seem to be.

E. A. Martin, Sheriff.

Notice!

Notice is hereby given all persons that the undersigned has had no connection or business relation whatever with "The City Drug Store," in the town of Rutherfordton, North Carolina, since July, 1903; and is not responsible for any transactions, liabilities or obligations incurred by The City Drug Store since that date, nor has he any present interest in said business, nor is he liable for any contracts that may be made in the future in the name and behalf of the said City Drug Store.

At the time of the withdrawal of the undersigned from the City Drug Store in July, 1903, he sold his interest in said business to W. H. Gibson, who expressly assumed the then existing liabilities and debts of the said City Drug Store.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c guaranteed at T. P. Twitty's and Thompson & Watkins' drug stores.
