School Election.

North Carolina, Richmond County.
A petition containing one-fourth of the freeholders of the Derby Memorial School District in said County and State asking for a special election to be held in said school district. Said petition having been endorsed by the board of education of said county, being filed with this board the following order was unanimously passed, to-wit:

Pursuant to the Public School law of North Carolina being Chapter 89 and Section 4115 of the revision of 1905 and to chapter 102 of the Public Laws of North Carolina, session 1917, we, the Board of Commissioners of Richmond County, North Carolina, being in regular monthly session on December 3rd, 1917, a quorum being present and voting, do hereby call an election to be held on January 22nd 1918 at the Derby Memorial School house in said district comprising the following boundaries, viz:

The consolidated school districts of Jones Spring and McNair in Richmond County, North Carolina.
The said special school election is called and ordered to be held for the purpose of deciding whether or not an additional special annual tax of twenty cents on every one hundred dollars valuation of all property and sixty cents on each taxable poll in said school district shall be annually levied and collected by the Commissioners of said County to supplement the special school taxes now provided for said district and the public school fund as apportioned by the County Board of Education to said school district.

A new registration is hereby ordered for said special school election in said school district. The registration and election shall be had and conducted as provided in Chapter 102 of the Public Laws of North Carolina, session of 1917. The said special school election is hereby called to be held at the place and on the date aforesaid and H. A. Rankin is hereby appointed registrar, and J. W. Williams, and J. G. Bryant are hereby appointed judges of election, respectively, to conduct said election.

Done by order of Board of Commissioners of Richmond County, North Carolina, December 3rd, 1917.

B. F. REYNOLDS,
Ex-Officio Clerk to Board Co. Com.
