

Every pound goes much farther

A POUND of old style hulls contains about $\frac{1}{4}$ pound of real roughage and about $\frac{1}{4}$ pound of lint. After being eaten, the old style hulls swell to twice the weight, or $1\frac{1}{2}$ pounds. A pound of

BUCKEYE HULLS
COTTONSEED HULLS
LINTLESS

also doubles after being eaten but as they are 100 per cent roughage, the original pound becomes 2 pounds—not $1\frac{1}{2}$ pounds.

Therefore, a pound of Buckeye Hulled Cottonseed goes a third again as far as a pound of old style hulls. In other words, you only have to feed $\frac{1}{3}$ pound of Buckeye Hulled Cottonseed to give the same food value as a full pound of old style hulls.

Other Advantages

Buckeye Hulled Cottonseed costs much less per ton than old style hulls. Buckeye Hulled Cottonseed allows better assimilation of other food. No trash or dust. Sacked—easy to handle. They mix well with other forage. They take less space in the barn.

Mr. Ben Faulk, Dothan, Ala.,

prefers Buckeye Hulled Cottonseed to old style hulls because cows like them as well, they are cheaper, they agree with the cows, and they go farther, one sack lasting as long as two sacks of the old style.

To secure the best results and to develop the ensilage odor, wet the hulls thoroughly twelve hours before feeding. It is easy to do this by wetting them down at night and morning for the next feeding. If at any time this cannot be done, wet down at least thirty minutes. If you prefer to feed the hulls dry, use only half as much by bulk as of old style hulls.

Book of Mixed Feeds Free

Gives the right formula for every combination of feeds used in the South. Tells how much to feed for maintenance, for milk, for fattening, for work. Describes Buckeye Hulled Cottonseed and gives directions for using them properly. Send for your copy to the nearest mill.

HANDS, ARMS, LIMBS ASLEEP
And Was Run-Down, Weak and Nervous, Says Florida Lady.
Five Bottles of Cardui Made Her Well.

Kathleen, Fla.—Mrs. Dallas Prine, of this place, says: "After the birth of my last child...I got very much run-down and weakened, so much that I could hardly do anything at all. I was so awfully nervous that I could scarcely endure the least noise. My condition was getting worse all the time... I knew I must have some relief or I would soon be in the bed and in a serious condition for I felt so badly and was so nervous and weak I could hardly live. My husband asked Dr. ... about my taking Cardui. He said, 'It's a good medicine, and good for that trouble', so he got me 5 bottles. ... After about the second bottle I felt greatly improved... before taking it my limbs and hands and arms would go to sleep. After taking it, however, this poor circulation disappeared. My strength came back to me and I was soon on the road to health. After the use of about 5 bottles, I could do all my house-work and attend to my six children besides."
