

LUZIANNE coffee

Luzianne and Corn Pone
—Yum-Yum!

WHEN you see your mammy, Honey, bringin' in the coffee and the pone, you can tell before you taste it that the coffee's Luzianne—sure-nuf—by the whiffs a-streaming, steaming in the air.

It's the coffee—Luzianne—you remember and you hanker after it until you get another cup.

Luzianne Coffee (your grocer has it) comes put up in tins. Try it tomorrow morning for breakfast. If it isn't all you expect, you can get your money back.

Luzianne for aroma, fragrance and snap.

CHRISTMAS PACKAGES

Names of Various Red Cross Committees for Christmas Packages.

The Post-Dispatch last week published the rules, etc governing the sending of Christmas packages to the soldiers in France, but in view of the importance of no misunderstanding the rules are again printed below. The chapter expects the cartons by the middle of next week. When you receive the coupon-label from your soldier-boy, call at the office of the Richmond Insurance & Realty Co., and Mrs. A. L. McDonald, the Home Relief Secretary, will give you a carton; no carton can be given unless the coupon-label is given in exchange.

The Red Cross committees for packing these boxes and supervising their contents, are:

- Hoffman Branch:
Postmaster.
Miss Dora Butler
Mrs. Teague.
- Mangum Branch:
Postmaster
Miss Pauline Stanback
Miss Nancy L. Little
- Publicity Committee:
Isaac S. London
B. T. Payne
- Rockingham Chapter:
Mrs. W. P. Webb
Mrs. J. LeGrand Everett
Mrs. Stella Cameron
Mrs. R. B. Waddell
Mrs. Bernard Garrett
Mrs. W. N. Everett, Jr.
Miss Elma McIntosh

Rules:

Only one package may be sent to each man, enclosed in a carton furnished by the Red Cross. These cartons will be sent to each Chapter not later than Nov. 1st. No parcels may be mailed after Nov. 15th.

The label issued to the soldier overseas by the Army and forwarded to some relative or friend in this country will entitle the holder to apply to the local Red Cross for one carton.

The cartons must then be packed by relatives or friends and delivered UNWRAPPED and UNLABELED to the RED CROSS to be weighed, inspected, labeled and delivered to the postoffice.

No package may weigh over three lbs. No written message may be enclosed. The sender must furnish the necessary postage from place of mailing to Hoboken, N. J.

Anything can be sent in the package except spirituous liquors, all kinds of poison, explosives, inflammable material, infernal machines, liquids or liquefiable article, fragile articles, and any kind of matter that might kill or injure another, or might damage or deface other mail.

The label received from abroad & bearing the soldier's name must be brought to Red Cross in order to obtain a carton, and after carton is packed the label must be brought to Red Cross and the Red Cross inspectors must paste this label on outside of carton, otherwise postoffice cannot receive it. After Red Cross packs and seals package, it must remain in Red Cross custody until mailed.

Do not put anything in the package which will not keep fresh until Christmas.

Pack dried fruits and other food products in small tin or wooden boxes.

Give preference to hard candy over chocolates, unless the latter are enclosed in heavy wrappers. Soft chocolates are easily crushed and may spoil the other contents.

Do not put articles packed in glass in the package.

Gifts should be wrapped in khaki-colored handkerchiefs, twenty-seven inches square.

IN THE EVENT OF A CHRISTMAS PARCEL LABEL BEING LOST, NO DUPLICATE CAN BE ISSUED. THIS RULE CANNOT BE ALTERED BY ANYBODY!

When your soldier-boy sends you his signed coupon-label, take it to the office of the Richmond County Insurance & Realty Company, in hotel building, to Mrs. A. L. McDonald, and you will be given the proper carton.

Packages For Navy.

Packages forwarded by Parcel Post for men in the Navy must comply with the postal regulation and should be enclosed in substantial boxes with hinged or screw top cover to facilitate opening and inspecting.

All boxes shipped by express are limited to twenty pounds in weight, should measure not more than two cubic feet in volume, be of wood, well strapped, and have a hinged or screw top to facilitate opening and inspecting.

All mail matter should be addressed as now prescribed by the postal regulations. All express packages should be forwarded in care of Supply Officer, Fleet Supply Base, Twenty-ninth street and Third Ave., South Brooklyn, N. Y.

No perishable food products other than those enclosed in cans or glass jars should be packed in parcel post or express shipments.

All packages must be plainly marked with the name and address of the sender together with a notation indicating the nature of the contents, such as "Christmas box," or "Christmas present."

The Supply Officer at New York will cause each express package to be opened and carefully examined to see that nothing of an explosive or other dangerous

LIBERTY LOAN

Woman's Committee Secured a Total of $327,350 for Fourth Liberty Loan in Richmond County.

The total amount subscribed through the Woman's Committee for Richmond county for this Fourth Liberty Loan was $327,350. Had it not been for the check put upon their activities by the influenza epidemic these earnest workers would have been even more vigorous and doubtless the sales would have been materially greater.

Mrs. Boyd Gasque, the chairman for the Woman's Committee, requests the paper to express in behalf of Uncle Sam and his Boys sincere appreciation for the work of the captains and committeewoman.

The names of the winners of War Service Thrift Stamps will be announced next issue.

The precincts in which this committee took an active part, and names of the respective captains, are:

- Steele's Nos. 1 & 2—Mrs. David Parsons, Misses Nancy Little and Pauline Stanback.
- Mineral Springs No. 1—Mrs. J. R. Bennett.
- Black Jack—Miss Callie Capel.
- Wolf Pit Nos. 1 2 3 & 4—Misses Georgia Biggs and Lottie Rogers.
- Beaver Dam—Mrs. D. L. Culbertson.
- Marks Creek—Mrs. P. G. Walton.
- Rockingham, No 1—Mrs. G. G. Terry.
- Rockingham No. 2—Mrs. W. N. Everett.

Mrs. W. N. Everett, captain of Rockingham N. 2, was ably assisted by the following ladies, to whom she extends thanks for their splendid work:

- Mrs. A. Arenson
- Mrs. J. P. Cameron
- Mrs. J. P. Collier
- Miss May Covington
- Miss Sarah Lilly Dockery
- Miss Mossie Long

Sou. Division Appreciative

The chairman of the local influenza Red Cross Committee, B. T. Payne, is in receipt of the following note from Guy E. Snavely, assistant manager of the Southern Division:

"We are very proud of Rockingham Chapter, which in the midst of this influenza epidemic is living up in great style to the Red Cross spirit. Your Chapter is to be heartily commended for the prompt and effective steps initiated. It never pays to lock a barn after the horse is stolen; your Chapter has locked the barn BEFORE the animal is gone. Good for Rockingham Chapter."

Red Cross Seal Campaign.

The December campaign of the American Red Cross Society for new members and the annual Red Cross Seal drive have been combined, and there will be no sale of Red Cross seals this December. However, every one who joins the American Red Cross will receive a packet containing a certain number of Red Cross Seals and literature in regard to the fight against tuberculosis.

Deliveries to TOWN LIMIT

While the Quarantine is in force we will deliver goods to Town Limits, as follows:
