JOB WORK A SPECIALTY

THE nation wide distribution of Food Administration 1918 Home Cards has been postponed from the last week in October to the first week in December.

Here is the situation that confronts the people of this great country:

1. If the war continues for another year we must supply our allies and friendly neutrals with 17,500,000 tons of food products, against about 12,000,000 tons the past year. This is an increase of 50 per cent, and to do this our people must eliminate all waste.

z. If the war should end during the next few months we would have not only to feed our allies but also would be faced with the humanitarian duty of sending food to Servia, Roumania, Belgium and Russia, practically all of which regions with their many millions we are unable to reach at present. Of the 180,000-000 people bordering Germany and Austria, literally millions will starve this winter; we cannot reach these people unless peace comes, and if peace does come shortly, our people would be faced with the noble necessity of stinting themselves tenfold more than at present in order to save the lives of those millions.

And so our people of Richmond county should take this matter seriously to themselves and realize their responsibility. Cut out unnecessary eatings, live on three meals a day and make it a badge of disgrace for social parties to be held where abundant foods are partaken. As mentioned before, a party is a mighty poor sort of affair that cannot afford enjoyment without having to appeal to a probably already overloaded stomach. Rather let it be stylish to give eatless parties and be proud of it. Who will set this commendable pace?

It is with sincere regret that we chronicle the death of O. B. Deaton, of Troy. Pneumonia following influenza, caused his death Oct. 16th. He was owner and editor of the Troy Montgomerian, and for ten years had been register of deeds of Montgomery county. Surviving are his wife and five children. His county has lost a fearless citizen, and the newspaper fraternity a valued member.

Military Highway proposition is dead until the end of the war. A delegation of 25 citizens from Charlotte and Wilmington went to Washington on Friday of last week and laid the plans before the War Industries Board. The conference failed to afford encouragement to the project until after the war. The policy of the government is to proceed cautiously in undertaking new projects while the war is in progress.

The plan was for the government to pay half the cost, the state a fourth and each county a fourth. The total cost of the 186 miles of concrete road would be about five million dollars. But at the present time the government cannot sanction the use of road material and labor except where it would be DIRECTLY contributory to the winning of the war.

War Events the Past Week.

President Wilson replied to the Austrian peace note, last week, by stating that there can be no peace until that nation has freed the Czecho-Slovaks and other never more necessary than now in the Cpl. Wofford A. Dry, Richfield nationalities in her borders.

to President Wilson's last note, again asking for "peace negotiations." In effect, the reply was a skilful attempt to throw a rock in the allied gears.

On Wednesday President Wilson replied to this last German note by stating that he had submitted their plea for an armistice tion for preparation of our children for to the allies; but he again informed Germany that there can be no armistice except upon terms that would make it impossible for Germany to renew hostilities. That would mean unconditional surrender.

The question for an armistice is now left to Gen. Foch, and the military leaders, and the prediction is again that there'll be no armistice in the immediate future. Germany is not yet ready surrender unconditionally. And in the meantime, our armies are steadily driving them towards the German border. A large part of upper Belgium has already been captured; Ghent is now in allied hands. The Hindenburg line is far behind the allies and the Germans are now fighting on the Hunding or Brun- Richmond County, hilde line. The weather is very cold and rainy in the fighting areas, but if winter holds off for a few weeks there is no question but all German forces will be driven from allied soil.

Col. W. Dortch, U. S. Marshal for the Eastern District, died at his home at Goldsboro Oct. 18th, aged 56, of influenza and Bright's disease. He was the Democratic candidate for Congress from the 3rd district. The executive committee for the 3rd district met on Monday and named Hon. S. M. Brinson, of New Bern, as candidate for Congress to succeed Mr. Dortch. This is the district in which Abernethy is running as an independent Democrat; there is also a regular Republican candidate.

Chief Deputy W. T. Wooley has been approved by the Department of Justice as ad interim marshal.

SIX MONTHS TERM

Amendment to be Voted on at Nov. 5th Election, for Six Months School Term. Both Political Parties Favor

At the Nov. 5th election, an amendment is to be submitted to the people in respect to a six months school term. Inasmuch as both parties have endorsed it. there is of course no question as to its passage; and yet many may not vote for it, purely for not understanding it. In next week's issue we will give in detail just what this proposed amendment means. Richmond county should give a solid vote for it.

The following is quoted from the Rupublican State Platform adopted at its convention at Greensboro:

"The advantage of education were preparation of the youth of our country for the larger duties and responsibilities | Hugh A. Williams, Roxboro On Monday Germany replied and the fierce competition in all the John T. Cox, Winterville activities of life that are sure to follow this world-wide war. TheRepublican Party of North Carolina, therefore, heartily favors the amendment to the constitution of this State securing a six months school term in every school district of the State."

> The following is from the Democratic State Platform.

Education was never more necessary than in this time of jeopardized civilizatne harder tasks of rconstruction and readjustment that are sure to follow this world-wide war, and for preservation of all that our boys at the front and their Allies are fighting and dying to win.

That the Democratic Party renews its pledge to the fullest support of the public schools, pledges its support to constutional amendment for a six months school term, and calls upon all patriotic citizens of the State irrespective of party affiliation to vote for this amendment as a patriotic duty to the present and future generations of North Carolina children.

Not only have both parties endorsed it, but both party chairmen in Richmond county have given their endorsemeet of it, as

To the voters of Richmond County:

The undersigned urge every voter in the county, regardless of party, to cast a vote for the "Six Months School Term Amendment" in the coming election, as we desire that Richmond County cast a large and solid vote for increasing our public school term.
