SOCIAL

Miss Kathryn McDonald has been attending a house-party, entertained by Miss Elizabeth Cloud, for several days; others of the party were: Miss Breeden, of Bennettsville, Messrs. Cliff Folger, Sam Thompson and Al. Hansen, of Washington City. The party has been quite extensively entertained since it has "been on." Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wall invited them to a fish-fry at the club-house of Mr. Wall down in Wolf Pit Saturday night; on Monday the lunch went to the Ballast Pit for lunch with Mr. Fayette Cloud, and several other functions have been given in their honor.

Mrs. M. B. Leath entertained on Friday in honor of her house visitors, Miss Leath, of Richmond, Misses Elizabeth Horn and Mary Kennedy Little, of Wadesboro, at her home on Watson Heights.

Mrs. M. B. Leath entertained at her home on Watson's Heights, Friday afternoon, honoring her house visitors, Misses Leath, of Richmond, Va., Elizabeth Horn and Mary Kennedy Little, of Wadesboro. To say the home was strikingly attractive, but mildly expresses it for the decorations and taste displayed were wonderful.

Mrs. Leath was gowned in a figured Georgette; she greeted her guests as they arrived, introducing them to Miss Leath who wore a black satin, trimmed in passementerie and lace, and a corsage of pink roses; Miss Mary K. Little in gray charmeuse with rose trimmings; and Miss Elizabeth Horn wore a beautiful georgette trimmed in victory red, and a corsage of white rose buds. Bridge and Rook were the diversion of the afternoon. The honorees each received handsome boxes of stationery, while Mrs. A. M. McPhail and Miss Rosa Parsons were awarded the prizes for the top scores, being bottles of perfume. Mrs. Leath served delicious refreshments consisting of ice cream and devil's food, and angel's food cake and mints.

Mrs. W. B. Stansill entertained on Monday afternoon at her home on Hamlet road, in honor Mrs. M. B. Leath's house-party at four tables of rook. The house was beautiful with decorations of Spring flowers and potted plants. After sometime spent in the chosen game, Mrs. Stansill served a delicious course of three kinds of sandwiches, iced tea and mints. Enjoying the function were: Mesdames Henry Clay Wall, F. W. Leak, Ed Allen, Chas. Pastorfield, W. T. Covington, John Chalk, of Rockester, N. Y., T. C. Leak, Misses Mossie Long, Myra Ormond, and visitor, Miss Clara Arnold, of Savannah, Ga., Berta West, and Wilmer Stansill.

Mrs. Frank Brooks Pegues issued about three hundred invitations to friends in Cheraw, Hamlet and Rockingham to a reception at her home at Kollock, S. C., in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Hugh May, of Charlottesville, W. Va., and Miss Susie Shipp, of S. C., on Thursday afternoon of last week, between the hours of six and seven-thirty. This event had been looked forward to with pleasure ever since the invitations were received, for the warm hospitality of the Pegues family is well known, and despite the rain there was a large concourse of friends going down. On arrival, they were met at the entrance by Mrs. W. N. Everett, of Rockingham, and Miss Causey, of Charleston, who ushered them into the spacious parlor where Mrs. Pegues, assisted by the honorees, Mrs. Hugh May and Miss Shipp, and Mrs. Marlboro Pegues, of Greenville. Receiving in the dining room were Mrs. H. F. Long and Miss Callie Capel; here Mrs. Henry Clay Wall, and Mrs. Pollock of Cheraw, poured coffee. Serving delicious ice cream and cake, and white and pink mints, were Misses Rosa and Jennie Parsons and Wilma Stansill. The guests passed from the dining room into the flower garden, where an hour was spent delightfully among the flowers and mingling with friends. The house decorations were simply beautiful, the porches, halls, in fact the entire lower floor of the home was a bower of laurels, honey-suckles, daisies, roses and all the spring flowers. On the porches were stately potted plants. This event, easily one of the most delightful of the season, was thoroughly enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to attend.

An evening of unusual pleasure was that of Friday, when the Rockingham Cotillion Club gave their initial dance of the Spring season. Hamlet, Cheraw, Wadesboro, Lilesville and Monroe were represented. Music by the band from Shaw University in Raleigh.

On Saturday afternoon Miss Kathryn McDonald was hostess for her Bridge Club and invited guests at the home of her parents on Washington St. Bridge was played with spirit, Miss Flora Cooper winning the prize, a pair of silk hose. The hostess served chicken croquettes, hot rolls, potato chips, tomato aspec, with mayonnaise on lettuce, iced tea and wafers. Flowers used in decorations were lemon lilies, snow balls and roses. Besides club members, the invited guests were Mesdames B. T. Payne, John L. Hawley, Marshall Williams, of Nevada, O. L. Cloud, J. C. Morrison, W. G. Lowry, H. L. Guthrie, A. G. Corpening, C. P. Stewart, Frank Leak, W. E. Crosland, W. R. Jones, Misses Mossie Long, Mary Entwistle, Helen Long, Emma Gray Ledbetter, Ruth Harrison, Elizabeth Cloud.

Mr. William Leak had over for the dance Friday night Mr. Percival Gates, of Hoffman.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rancke have as their guest the father of Mr. Rancke, of Lumberton.

Misses Rosa and Jennie Parsons have gone to Greensboro to visit the family of their brother, Mr. Tom Parsons, for some time.

Miss Jennie Baldwin has returned from Stokes Hospital where she has been undergoing treatment for a month.

Miss Mossie Long will go to Duke on Thursday; returning she will stop over with Mrs. Don Richardson, in Raleigh, for a short visit.

Mrs. Horton Ihrie, of Wendell, and little daughter, are the guests of Mrs. LeGrand Everett, for several weeks.

Roberdel Commencement.

The program of the Roberdel commencement, as published in full in last week's Post-Dispatch, was splendidly carried out. The pupils acquitted themselves with credit to their school and teachers, and the exercises gave the patrons an opportunity to judge of the work of the corps of excellent teachers.

Miss Mossie Long's music recital class on Wednesday night of last week clearly showed that the pupils have made material advancement the past year.

On Thursday night, May 1st, the reciters' and declaimers' contest was held, Miss Lessie McIntosh being awarded the reciters' medal, and Earl Hutchinson the declaimers' medal. Twelve boys and girls took part.

The climax was on Friday night, May 2nd. The graduate, Miss Susan Catharine McRae, welcomed the audience which packed the school auditorium, after which Rev. E. L. Hill introduced the speaker of the night, Hon. Cameron Morrison. The editor was very glad of the opportunity of attending these closing exercises, and especially of hearing such an uplifting and able address as delivered by this favorite son of Richmond county. We will not attempt even a summary of this address; suffice it to say, it was delivered with the well-known spirit, and couched in the verbiage, inimitable of Mr. Morrison. After this address, Rev. R. L. Patrick presented Attendance Certificates to four pupils, Nettie Gordon, Cecil Terry, Mildred Terry and Clara Stogner; punctuality and regular attendance is the foundation stone of any school, and these four young people deserve the public recognition for making this enviable record. Next, Rev. Mr. Hill presented the reciters' and declaimers' medals, as won the night before, after which Mr. W. N. Everett presented the graduating diploma to Miss McRae.

Liniments Will Never Cure.
If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, why waste time with liniments, lotions and other local applications that never did cure Rheumatism, and never will!
Do not try to rub the pain away, for you will never succeed. Try the sensible plan of finding the cause of the pain, and go after that. Remove the cause, and there can be no pain. You will never be rid of Rheumatism until you cleanse your blood of the germs that cause the disease. S. S. S. has never had an equal as a blood purifier and scores of sufferers say that it has cleansed their blood of Rheumatism, and removed all trace of the disease from their system.
