Hoffman News.
On account of the scarcity of labor the people around Hoffman have a great deal of cotton in the fields. If you have any good pickers, please send them our way.

Friday afternoon, Oct. 17, we had a community fair at the school building. The school gave a Thrift Play, after which Mr. O. B. Henry, of Rockingham, made a fine talk on education.

The high school and seventh grade have organized a literary society. They had their first meeting Friday afternoon, Oct. 10. The name chosen for the society was "Irving."

Quite a number of the Hoffman people attended the State Fair last week.

Miss Nell Strickland, of Moncure, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. M. Stroup. On Monday evening Miss Dora Butler entertained a few friends in Miss Strickland's honor.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Teague spent the week-end in Sanford.

Friends in town were much surprised to learn that Miss Willie Scarborough, who is teaching in St. Pauls, was recently married to Mr. C. A. Powers, of Lumberton.

Misses Della Scarborough and Alice Baldwin spent the week-end in Rockingham.

Mr. Dewey Myers of State College spent a few days with his homefolks last week.

BIRTHDAY REUNION AT J. F. CAPEL'S.

Mr. J. F. Capel was taken by surprise Sunday, Oct. 26, when buggies and cars laden with children, grandchildren and friends began to arrive, bringing all kinds of presents and good things for the inner man.

About 1 o'clock p. m., a long table was spread in the yard and old and young gathered around it, and after the blessing was asked by Rev. D. P. Bridges, all acted as if Mr. Hoover had never been heard of. When all had eaten to the full, I think there were about seven basketfuls taken up of that which remained.

The presents which were numerous and useful were displayed, and Mr. Capel acted and said he felt almost like a sixteen-year-old boy, although this occasion was to remind him that it was his sixty-fifth birthday.

Mr. Capel has been married twice. First married Miss Bennett. From this union there were six children all of which are living. The second marriage was to Miss Forks who is still living. There are four children from this marriage. Three are living and one dead.

There are twelve grand-children, two of which are dead and ten living. Seven of these grand-children were present and six of the children were present and three of the living absent. One in Salisbury and one in Greensboro, and one in New Mexico.

Besides the children and grand-children the following friends were present, viz.: Mrs. W. S. Williams, Mrs. P. J. Smith and two sons, Lee and Watt, Ben Dawson, John J. Bennett, wife and four children, J. E. Forbis, wife and two children, W. B. Cox and D. P. Bridges and wife. The entire company seemed to enjoy the occasion very much. All wish Mr. Capel many more happy birthdays.

A VISITOR.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Little Misses Alberta and Grace Barrett entertained on last Saturday evening from 5 to 7. A number of their friends at their birthday party. The little girls were met at the door and carried into the parlor which was tastefully decorated with flowers and pink crepe paper. After receiving lots of nice presents which were appreciated highly they played many interesting games, then Miss Jessie McCauley rendered a beautiful solo at the piano, and then the little girls were gathered around the table where delicious cake and cream were served, each cake being decorated with the number of candles, representing their ages, the candles were a lighted by the girls in the darkened parlor, this making the parlor more beautiful.

Miss Jessie McCauley cut the cake for Miss Alberta, while Miss Lela Cameron cut the other for Miss Grace after being served the little girls marched by twos into the yard where they enjoyed the rest of the evening with outdoor games.

The following were present: Misses Ina Mae Reynolds, Annie McDonald, Jessie McCauley, Sela Cameron, Agnes and Lola Mae Cockman, Jennie Currie, Mattie Wallace, Rosalie and Bruce Gore, Marie Gregory, Myrtle and Magarite Porter, Francis McPhail and Nina Henry.
