The following account of a shooting and cutting scrape that occurred in Anson County, in Lanesboro township on Saturday night, May 1st, is copied from the Wadesboro paper of May 6th issue. Willie Coble, the 17-year-old lad who was shot, lived in Rockingham for several years, and was for quite a while at work with the McLaurin Meat Market, having stopped and gone to Anson about two months ago.

The Post-Dispatch herewith copies the article in full:

A very serious affair took place last Saturday night in Polkton, when Ellis Harrington was very seriously cut by Dan Coble. Harrington sustained a long and deep cut on the face and neck, he was cut in both arms, on one hand, and in the side. The doctor who treated him took 64 stitches and stated there should have been more, but Harrington was so exhausted he did not have time to take any more, and closed the wounds up with adhesive plaster. Harrington lost much blood, but none of the cuts reached a vital point, and he will recover unless blood poisoning sets in. Harrington is a son of the late James Harrington. As the affair was reported to The M. & L. Dan Coble and his younger brother, Jim, were in Mr. J. M. Griffin's store at Polkton Saturday night. They had been drinking, and got into a dispute with a colored man and began cursing. Mr. Griffin told them to leave the store. They refused at first, but finally went. Harrington, before they went out, advised them to leave, and went out with them. The cutting began almost as soon as they got outside. It was thought at first that Jim Coble also wielded a knife, but both he and Dan say Dan did the cutting. Harrington did not have time to do anything.

The Coble boys disappeared soon after the cutting. Within a short while Deputy Sheriff J. J. Medley deputized several men, and they, accompanied by others, started for the home of Mr. W. D. Coble, of the Mt. Vernon section, the father of the boys. Just before they reached the Coble home, they saw some one come out of a neighbor's home, and one of the men in the posse thought it was the Coble boy who was wanted. It turned out to be Willie Coble, a brother of Dan and Jim. Thinking he was wanted, the posse closed in on him and ordered him to throw up his hands and surrender. He refused and reached back for a pistol he was carrying, whereupon several shots were fired by the posse. One struck

Willie Coble in the back and went through the liver and one lung. Another struck him in one leg, breaking it. There were a dozen or more men in the posse. Willie had nothing to do with the cutting.

Willie Coble was brought to Wadesboro Saturday night, and is now under treatment in the Sanatorium. It was thought at first he could not recover, but now doctors think he has a chance.

Jim Coble was arrested Saturday night and brought to Wadesboro and placed in jail. Sunday morning Mr. W. D. Coble came down and told Sheriff Braswell that Dan was ready to surrender, so the sheriff went and brought him back.

On Tuesday Dan and Jim Coble had a preliminary hearing before Justice E. E. Barrett. Dan was released under $800 bond, and Jim under $200 bond.
