GIBSON'S

S. C. WHITE LEGHORNS are still winning

My entire flock of breeding birds are unusually fine this season. I have been breeding S. C. White Leghorns for the past 8 years, but never before had such a grand lot of fine birds, to select my breeding stock from as I have this season.

They are bred to win and to produce winners and they do it. They are bred to lay throughout the winter when eggs sell at highest prices and they do it.

My Birds Are Bred to Lay as Well as to Win.

My matings are all headed with blue ribbon winners at such shows as Raleigh, Charlotte and Rockingham.

Fifty per cent of the females in my No. 1 and No. 2 matings are prize winners. My No. 3 mating is also of high exhibition quality.
