All Star Team Of Richmond County in Basket Ball.

(By L. R. Sides)

I am sure every body in Richmond county is very much pleased with the basket ball schedule which has just been completed, and the enthusiasm has been higher this year than ever before, and to continue this enthusiasm I will try to pick the "All Star Team".

FORWARDS

For left forward we will not hesitate to say that Curtis Price [for Ellerbe] was the best in the county. Price was a wonderful fe'd worker and one of the best shots I have ever seen; he could shoot them from all corners of the field almost at will. For right forward we might hesitate for a moment: Coble and Webb for Rockingham are due much credit for the nice work they did, at forward, but we find that Broadway for Ellerbe was faster and could handle himself and the ball with more accuracy than either of the Rockingham "lads", so we will let right forward fall upon Broadway's shoulder.

CENTER

Carter for Hoffman was the outstanding center in the circuit; not only was he a good offensive man but a good defensive one as well. Altho Ellerbe for Rockingham is due much credit for his fine work at center what time he was playing center, no doubt he would have given Carter a hard fight for center if he could have played this position all the time.

GUARDS

Smith for Rockingham was without a doubt the best guard in the county, he is mighty fast and is always in the game and is a wonderful goal passer. With him, we will place Caudle, from Ellerbe, who in times to come will be a wonderful guard, for this is his first year in basket ball; when he has played as long as some of the other players he will show them some real guarding. Key for Ellerbe was a mighty fine guard and deserves much credit for his fine work there, but he could not handle the ball with very much pride.

The following is the line-up for the "All Star High School Basket Ball Team":

- Price, "R. F." Ellerbe
- Smith, "L. G." Rockingham
- Carter, "C." Hoffman
- Broadway, "L. F." Ellerbe
- Caudle, "R. G." Ellerbe
- Frank Ellerbe, "Utility" Rockingham.
