Saturday evening Mrs. C. B. Bryant was honored again by Mrs. J. M. Ledbetter when three tables of Bridge were played. After the usual progressions the game was called off and the hostess served delicious refreshments in two courses to Mesdames C. B. Bryant, F. W. Leak, J. C. Morrison, W. R. Jones, H. C. Wall, W. R. Fowlkes, Jake Hinson, A. G. Corpening, Misses Glenn and Dorothy Fairley, Kathryn McDonald. Mrs. Ledbetter presented to the honoree, Mrs. Bryant, beautiful gold cuff pins.

Mrs. C. B. Bryant, who has been the house-visitor of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Leak, for the past week, left Monday morning for Raleigh, whither she goes to visit her uncle, Governor Cameron Morrison, at the Executive Mansion, for sometime before returning to her home in Charlotte.

Among the many delightful social affairs given in complement to Mrs. C. B. Bryant, of Charlotte, was a beautifully appointed luncheon given by Mrs. W. C. Leak on Friday of last week. This was an unusually enjoyable affair.

Monday evening the "Lilly Duke" Missionary Society of the Methodist church met with Miss Rosa Steele, with Miss Georgia Biggs as leader, assisted by Mrs. W. P. Webb. Devotionals and the usual business over, the young folks were served ice cream and cake; then the social hour followed, when games were enjoyed. Be it remembered that the "Knights of the Cross" have been invited and have united themselves as a part of the Lilly Duke Society, and it is one of most flourishing of the Missionary Bands of the Methodist church.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Sam S. Steele entertained about twenty of the little friends of her daughter, Elizabeth Steele in honor of her eighth birthday. Games on the lawn were played until refreshments were announced, when each guest was served ice cream and cake and candy. A thoroughly good time was enjoyed by Minnie Baldwin, Mary Thomas Covington, Ina Reynolds, Mary Payne, Temis Covington, Elizabeth Shaw, Florence Ledbetter, Maude Steele, Mary Corpening, Landonia Thomas, Annie Cole Thomas, Elizabeth Covington, Miriam Aronson, Cecelia Webb, Frances Steadman O'Brien, Manie Leak Payne, Grace Pemberton Coppedge, and Elizabeth Everett. This was a party long to be remembered by the very young set of Rockingham society as being one of the "best times of all."

Mrs. Frank W. Leak delightfully entertained three tables of Bridge Thursday evening of last week, honoring her house visitor, Mrs. C. B. Bryant, of Charlotte. Following several progressions, the hostess served a salad course and accessories to Mesdames C. B. Bryant, J. C. Morrison, J. M. Ledbetter, John Watts, W. R. Jones, Misses Rosa and Jennie Parsons, Kathryn McDonald, Beth Thomas, Lillian Long. Spring flowers were used throughout the home in profusion, which added to the already beautiful home.

Friday afternoon Miss Kathryn McDonald entertained in honor of Mrs. C. B. Bryant and the members of her Duplicate. Others than club members present were: Mesdames Isaac London, W. N. Everett, Jr., J. C. Morrison, John Watts, T. L. McKee, Missa Glenn and Jean Fairley, Sarah Dockery, and Beth Thomas. Vases of spirea, white and pink hyacinths and white lilies were conspicuous in the decorations. The hostess served a salad course and things that go with it.

T. T. Cole is organizing in Charlotte another company, this time the "Dilworth Home Building Company." Capital $100,000. It is the intention to build homes on the Progressive Realty Company property in Dilworth at the rate of ten homes a month. T. R. is president of both companies.

Mr. J. C. Stubbs and Mrs. Margaret Stradley, of Hamlet, were married at Cheraw by the Baptist minister Saturday afternoon. It was a "run-away" affair. Of interest is the fact that Mr. Stubbs' son, W. B. Stubbs, some months ago married a daughter of Mrs. Stradley. And now Ben's mother-in-law is also his stepmother. One can figure a lot of relationship from this.

If the present growth of the Baptist Sunday school continues, a new building will eventually have to be built. The average attendance for the past three Sundays has been 223. The Cantata repeated at the Baptist church Wednesday evening, was even better than when given on Easter night. The large audience thoroughly enjoyed such a delightful musical program.

Thursday Health Talk 14 By Mary Lou Miller, D. C. P. C.

Headaches are from various causes. Sometimes the headache is due to indigestion, sometimes it is biliousness, sometimes to a catarrhal condition. An adjustment quite frequently gives immediate relief, but the cause cannot be removed in one adjustment. Nervous headaches due to indigestion, for instance are quite often given immediate relief by an adjustment which frees the nerves in the region where the ache is felt, but the cause can only be removed by a series of adjustments calculated to restore a full degree of nerve impulse transmission into the stomach and liver, whose faulty action is the cause of such headaches. Getting rid of the headache (a symptom of something wrong) is not always getting rid of the cause. To get rid of the tendency to headaches, a series of adjustments is

Wants others to Profit
"I am writing this in hope that others may profit by my experience. I had nervous headaches, indigestion and inflammatory rheumatism, all of which every remedy I tried failed to relieve. Chiropractic spinal adjustments put me back on my feet and am work once more."
