BUILD A BUILDING.

Bids Old Calvin Go.

Calvin Flowers, an old colored man who for some years has acted as janitor at the postoffice in Rockingham, and delivered special delivery letters etc., has lost his job. But then this is but in line with the prediction made in the Post-Dispatch in its issue of March 9th wherein it was predicted that the new Republican postmaster, W. F. Long, Jr., would in course of time undoubtvarious Carriers and Clerks, and filed against Ralph Hutchinson, of Route one, some weeks ago, and now old Calvin has either been fired, thrown out or just dropped from the pay roll. At any rate, Ralpf Benoy, a young white man, aged 18, on last Monday began work at the postoffice as delivery boy; needless to say

Road Contracts in June.

Highway Commissioner Frank Page last Saturday wrote to Mr. W. N. Everett informing him that the contracts for building the hard surface road from Rockingham to Hamlet, and the gravel road from Rockingham to a point near Marston, will be let at the meeting of the Highway Commission in June. It was thought this would be done at the May 25th meeting, but it is now deferred to the June meeting which will be about June 25th.

to build the Rockingham-Hoffman road from the end of North Washington street, out by the Fair Grounds, by the McAulay peach orchard and thence to a point on the Hamlet Hoffman the square between LeGrand and road about a mile from Marston. It was thought for a while that this road might enter Rockingham by the DeBerry school on South Washington street, but the new survey brings it on North Washington.

TUCKER BADLY HURT Courthouse Site Settled; Building Contract $177,450

The left thigh of M. L. Tucker County Commissioners on Monday Selected Jail Lot on Franklin Street for New Courthouse. Ten Contractors Submitted Bids Wednesday for Building, the Lowest Being John P. Little & Son for $177,450. Year to Complete Work.

> The courthouse location question is now settled, and the contract for the actual building let to a contracting firm. As noted heretofore in this paper, the County Commissioners had decided upon the land on Washington (or Main) street just west of the Farmers Bank, as the location, provided the land could be bought at a price they might consider themselves justified in paying. A Condemnation Board was appointed and this Board a week ago set a valuation of $265 per front foot on part of the lot. and $235 an the balance. This of course was out of the question for the county to pay, and so consideration of this lot was promptly dropped. The Board met last Monday, and a proposition was presented them of buying the McDonald and Gore property of around 250 feet at $100 per front foot, this property being on the presented later as soon as the same side of Main street and adjoining the Hendley-Leak-Wall property that had been valued by the Condemnation Board at $265 and $235 per front foot though lower down the street and not on seconded by John A. McNeill, the Board voted to adopt the Franklin street site, three voting for this location. The county already owned 115 feet front on Franklin street, with the jail at the rear of the lot. An option was secured from "Aunt" Mollic Russell, colored, for $9,000 for 120 feet front, and this with several feet purchased from other parties gives the county a full square of 240 feet front, on Franklin street. In the center of this lot will the courthouse be erected. The town commissioners are to let the comtract on May 20th for widening and paving Franklin street, and they contemplate opening new uncertain than before. Instead

TOWN STREET WORK

Bids to Be Received May 23rd by the Town Commissioners for Street Paving for Rockingham.

The town commissioners were Warren H. Booker, of the firm of Mees & Mees, present to advise and consult regarding the street paving for Rockingham. It was decided to advertise for bids, these to be received on May 23rd. The streets to be worked first are Franklin, North and South Washing streets, the latter as far as the Dr. J. M. Ledbetter residence, Everett street, and arrange with the State regarding Rockingham Road. These are the only ones for which petitions from property owners have been received. Petitions for other streets will be property owners sign them.

At a meeting of tha board several weeks ago, it was decided to name the street that runs from the Methodist parsonage, (intersection of Franklin and Leak streets) to Falling Creek bridge "Rockingham Road." It had "Hamlet Road."

McAulay Drops Out.

J. A. McAulay, candidate in

The fact that "Bud" has dropped from the race is doubtless good news to the other four candidates; he was a most formidable contender, and many believed would have been one of the leaders in the first primary.

With McDonald out of the race for Sheriff, and McAulay from Clerk, the outcome of the primary is rendered even more has the button," it might well be "candidate, candidate, who has the votes.

DENTIST FINED $400

Dr. E. H. Chamberlain to Face Trial for Transporting Whiskey. Pleads Guilty to Manufacturing Whiskey in South Carolina. He and Charlie Bowers Fined at Bennettsville $400 Each Today. Will Be Brought to Rockingham Friday.

Dr. E. H. Chamberlain, dentist for the past several years at Rockingham, must face trial on the charge of transporting whiskey; he today plead guilty to the charge of making, transporting, storing and selling whiskey, before Magistrate J. P. Gibson at Bennettsville and was fined $400 and costs. He is at present in jail in that town, but expects to pay the fine Friday. The moment he is released, he will be re-arreted on warrant from Richmond in session Wednesday night, with county, and will be brought back to Rockingham to face the charge of transporting whiskey. He will be bound to July term of Superior Court, over which Judge Long will preside.

The manner of his capture was

this wise:

Sheriff McDonald got word that Dr. Chamberlain would pass a certain about 8:30 o'clock Wednesday night, so with officers Sam Covington and J. B. Reynolds went to Gill's old mill, about four miles from the South Carolina line, arriving just about dusk. They had barely alighted from their car, when they observed a man walking across the (Continued on Page 12.)
