fight promises to be a hot one, and close. No out and out Labor Union candidate has ever been sent to the Legislature, and the State at large will watch this effort of the Labor Unions to break into politics with keen interest.

There were 14 candidates for County Commissioners, from which 5 men had to be selected. As it required something over 2000 votes for a nomination, and as only two men got above this figure, only two were nominated; and the next six highest will have to run again in order to select the three remaining Commissioners. The two who won out are H. D. Batch, of Hamlet, with 2657 votes, and A. T. White, of Ellerbe, with 2319. The next six highest, and these are the ones to run again, are: McNeill 1772, Caddell 175c, Wall 1651, Frutchey 1570, Capel 1232, Cole 1197. Gibson lacked only 26 votes of being in the second primary.

PRIMARY RESULT

sell of around 65.

As can be seen elsewhere in this issue, the four candidates for Sheriff and Clerk of Court—Carl C. Shores, Homer D. Baldwin, W. S. Thomas and H. P. Austin—have signed a pledge not to spend money in the second primary other than for legitimate expenses. The pledge speaks for itself. Read it.

The primary last Saturday brought out a big vote, 4055 votes were cast for Sheriff, 3996 for Clerk, 3970 for Judge, 3941 for Corporation Commissioner, 3929 for Register of Deeds, 3918 for Solicitor and only 3880 for Senator. A pretty wide range, and evidences a lot of scratching.

Judge Walter E. Brock carried the county with a majority of 362 for Judge of this district over A. M. Stack. But Mr. Stack won the nomination by polling a huge majority in his home county of Union. Mr. Brock carried 5 out of the 6 counties that compose the district, as follows: Anson 1989, Moore 780, Richmond 362, Staully 185, Scotland 115, making a total of 3522. However Mr. Stack offset this by getting a majority of 3708 in Union county, and thus defeating Mr. Brock by a majority of 286.

For Sheriff Homer Baldwin and Carl Shores will be in the second primary, Baldwin receiving 1679, Shores 1223, J. B. Reynolds 1066 and McLaurin 87. The contest for Sheriff is always the closest and brings out the most votes, 59 more voters expressing themselves for Sheriff than voted for the next highest, the Clerk of Court. As a matter of fact 643 more voters took part in this primary than voted the Democratic ticket Nov. 2, 1920—3412 Democrats having voted then. Either some Republicans sneaked in last Saturday, or just more Democrats came out than was the case two years ago. The contest for the next three weeks between Baldwin and Shores will be a hot one.

And no less close will be the second primary for Clerk of Court which is to be run off by W. S. Thomas and H. P. Austin. Thomas led with 1668 votes to 1481 for Austin. T. L. Covington came third with 495 and C. E. D. Egerton fourth with 352.

R. L. Johnson won handily for Register of Deeds, by getting 2054 to 980 for R. B. Terry and 896 for Henry L. Guthrie. Johnson secured a majority of the votes cast so is the nominee without the necessity of a second primary.

For Corporation Commissioner W. T. Lee got a majority of 291 over A. C. Avery, the Lee vote being 1704 to 1413 for Avery.

Lee's majority over Avery for Corporation Commissioner was about 19,000.

For State Senate there will be a second primary between W. E. Harrison and Arthur E. Muse, the Labor Union candidate. Mr. Harrison received 1618 votes to 1695 for Mr. Muse. Atty. Wade Sanders had 567 votes. This
