Notice.

I have bought the Gibson mill property from Mr. J. R. Bennett and have thoroughly overhauled all the mills and the cotton gin. The wheat, corn and feed mills are run by water; I have just put in a new No. 10 bolting cloth. If you want some good burr flour like your grandmother used to have, bring me your wheat. If you want good water-ground meal, come to this mill and you will get it. I am an experienced workman and keep the mills and cotton gin in fine condition. So bring your wheat and corn to one that knows how to grind it. I attend to the mills myself and you will find me here every day.

Indigestion
Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. "The only medicine I have needed has been something to aid digestion and clean the liver," writes Mr. Fred Ashby, a McKinney, Texas, farmer. "My medicine is for indigestion and stomach trouble of any kind. I have never found anything that touches the spot, like Black-Draught. I take it in broken doses after meals. For a long time I tried pills, which griped and didn't give the good results. Black-Draught liver medicine is easy to take, easy to keep, inexpensive."
Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT
