Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Miller, of Bailey, spent Sunday with their sister, Dr. Mary Lou Miller.

Miss Jennie Wall McRae left Wednesday for Raleigh to enter St. Mary's School.

Two new subscribers this week are Mrs. Tom C. Hamer at Bennettsville, and M. E. Covington at Avon Park, Florida.

Lee Morse and wife came down from Gastonia Sunday and spent the day with his mother, Mrs. S. T. Morse.

Miss Marguerite Maddry, who taught in the city schools the past three years, is this fall teaching at Weldon; her address is Box 482.

Miss Virginia Hicks began work the 8th in the bookkeeping department of the Bank of Pee Dee. Miss Katie Hicks is the other wielder of the posting machine.

Misses Ina and Gladys McCracken came from Tarboro last Saturday, and are stopping at Mrs. E. L. McKenzie's home. Miss Ina teaches at Cordova, Miss Gladys at Rohanen.

The chamber of commerce of Wadesboro last week selected J. T. Whelden as its secretary. He is from Massachusetts, but more recently located at Orlando, Fla.

Sunday near Spartanburg, bringing back with them Mr. McBride who went there Sept. 5th to attend the annual reunion of the McBride family—three sister and two brothers.

Mrs. Robt. Stansill and daughter, Mrs. Harvey Terry and daughter, Mrs. Mattie Stansill and Miss Daisy Nichols returned Sunday from a week's visit to the John Stansill family at Farmville.

Mrs. T. Boyce Henry and mother landed at Boston Sunday night after a tour of Europe. Mrs. Henry and children will reach Rockingham about the last of next month; they left here June 22nd.

Miss Dorothy P. Wall and Louise Ballard, of Ellerbe, left Tuesday for Red Springs to enter the Presbyterian college there. Miss Wall will specialize in music. Miss Ballard is taking a business course.

Active work is in progress excavating for the new Long 2-story building in front of courthouse. The dirt is being hauled and dumped into the lot of the B. & L. on the south side of Leak street, east of the Cox property.

Miss Helen Long is spending her vacation at home with her mother, Mrs. Bettie Long. She spent the summer at the Highland Nature Camp, North Sebago, Maine. On Sept. 26th she will leave for Tarrytown, N. Y., to resume her work at Highland Manor, where she has charge of physical training, and general supervision of the girls of the school.

T. T. Cole was in the city Wednesday night and today.

The address of the C. K. Waddill family is now 120 East Morehead street, Charlotte.

Mrs. Ben Dunlap, of Ansonville, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. S. W. Steele.

Mrs. D. L. Coppedge has recovered sufficiently to walk out on her porch Wednesday.

Spot cotton price being paid this (Thursday) afternoon by W. T. Covington & Co., is 21 cents.

Miss Grace Allen, of Summertown, S. C., is the guest this week of Mrs. Lewis Nance, on Fayetteville Road.

How about having the paper sent to your girl or boy who is off at school? A weekly letter from home.

Miss Vesta Biggs is this week supplying at the County Health office, in place of Mrs. S. B. Cole who is off for the week.

Stephen W. Steele, Jr., spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother here. He is with Tucker & Laxton, at Fort Mills, S. C.

Postmaster Long states that after Oct. 1st, the lobby of the new post-office will be locked each night from 12 o'clock to 6 next morning.

The C. O. Pastorfeld family several days ago moved from their former address in New Haven, Conn., to 47 Willard street, that city.

Dr. F. J. Garrett returned Sunday night from New York where he spent three weeks taking treatment for rheumatism in the left shoulder.

Miss Susie Shipp, who has spent the summer in Connecticut, leaves that state this Friday on her return to Durham, to 203 Watts street.

The R. B. Napier family have moved back to their home on Randolph street, after spending the summer at their cottage on the Rham-Hamlet road.

Check flashers spent last week in Hamlet, and put out $500 in bad checks upon the merchants there, before finally departing for another green pasture.

Mrs. W. N. Everett continues to improve, tho' still at Rex hospital. It is likely she may be strong enough to be carried to her home at 310 N. Mount street by the middle of next week.

Mrs. A. J. Harrington left for Hattiesburg, Miss., to visit his nephews, Jesse and Preston McCann, last Thursday, a. m. and before he returns to North Carolina he will visit his old friends, the Bostick boys who went from North Carolina and settled in Meridian, Miss. several years ago.

The paper is in receipt of a renewal subscription from Miss Annie Covington, at the State Hospital, Morganton. She is a valued subscriber, and the paper is literally a weekly letter from home to her. She remembers pleasantly the old friends back home, and asks to be remembered to them.

Miss Emma Regan, of Elizabethtown, came here from Charlotte Wednesday on her way home. She has spent two weeks with her sister, Mrs. George Warwick and she spent Wednesday night with Miss Ella Kelly. They attended the picnic given at Ellerbe Springs by Misses May Hicks and Pratt Covington and she went on to her home today.

ORGAN ON THE WAY
The large pipe organ recently ordered for the Garden theatre has been shipped, and will be erected next week, states Manager Bailey.

LAND SALE AT ELLERBE
This Saturday at 10:30 O'clock.

On page 4 can be seen notice of auction sale of the McPhail or Heck property at Ellerbe this Saturday, divided into lots.

THE NEW STORE OPENED
"Open House" Tuesday Night.

The Austin-Clontz new store, in the old Long furniture store building, was formally opened for inspection Tuesday night from 7:30 to 9, and for business Wednesday morning. Manager Turner estimated that between five hundred and a thousand people called Tuesday evening.

Here for the opening were two of the partners—Mr. Austin who manages the Wadesboro store, and Mr. C. L. Sabiston who manages the store at Statesville.

SUPPER TUESDAY NIGHT
Supper will be served in the pine grove to the rear of the Buren O'Brien home next Tuesday evening from 6 to 7, by the Young People's Society of the Presbyterian church. The public is cordially invited—at 50c per plate. Special music will be a feature.

PRODUCING COMPANY'S POOR EFFORT

The least said about the so-called local talent show staged here last Friday night the better. Not that the actors were not competent and first rate; for they are; and especially clever was little Jessie Steele Simmons and Miss Lula Taylor.

But the vehicle, "Cupid Up-to-Date," was without merit even were it properly gotten up. Presenting such a poorly prepared show before people who had paid the price and had the right to expect to be better entertained, does not reflect credit upon the Wayne producing agency of Atlanta, and that concern most certainly has lost friends in this latest attempt. It was unfair to the actors to expect a better production with what seems to have been inefficient leadership sent out by the Wayne company.

COVINGTON-HYDER

Mr. Platt Covington, formerly of Richmond county, but now living at Hendersonville, was married on Aug. 31st in Greenville, S. C., to Miss Minnie Hyder, of Hendersonville. Mr. Covington is connected with the Imperial Life Ins. Co., and he and his bride are living at 305 Third avenue, East, Hendersonville, N. C.

ON TO BENTONVILLE

A tablet was today (Thursday) unveiled at Bentonville, down in Johnson county, on the battlefield made famous by the fighting of the Junior Reserves who opposed Sherman's march in March, 1865. Gov. McLean was the speaker of the day, and a sham battle was engaged in, with Ft. Bragg aeroplanes doing stunts overhead.

Attending the celebration from Rockingham were the following:

Veteran J. B. Brewer, who was in that battle; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gore, Miss Elisabeth Brewer, Mrs. Geo. P. Entwistle, Mrs. B. F. Palmer, Mrs. W. C. Leak, Mrs. Lucy P. Russell.

The paper is delighted that Mrs. Russell "took in" the celebration, for now we are assured of an interesting first-hand sketch for next week's paper of what took place there today.

AND GETTING HOTTER!

Why Let the Wife Suffer?

The weather this week has been the real cotton opening kind—what little there is to open. Daily papers tell of hundreds prostrated in Chicago and the big western cities from the heat.

Why let the wife stew and suffer over a stove, when you can come to this bakery and have your bread, pies and cakes supplied FRESH DAILY from the ovens!

Glad to serve you; come in and give our pastries the once over.

COURT AT WADESBORO

Howell Case Continued. 37 Were in Jail. Many Liquor Cases.

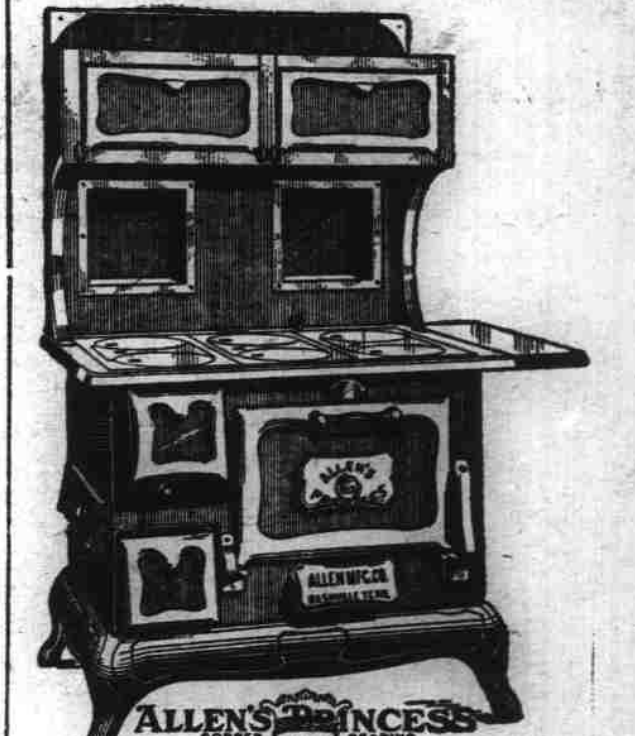

Superior Court is grinding with a full head of steam at Wadesboro this week. The Anson county jail had 37 prisoners in it Monday awaiting trial, most of them for liquor violations.

The murder case against M. B. and Harley Howell, charged with killing the Chinaman some months ago, was continued to next term, due to the sickness of their lawyer, Mr. Caudle.

Jim Davis was given 6 months on roads. His case was rather unusual. He went to John Shepard's still in Anson some time in 1925 to simply get a drink, and was caught there. The charge was possession and transporting—the Superior Court ruling that the mere act of lifting a bottle to the mouth comes under the head of transporting. And so Davis gets 6 months for going after his drink; would have been better off for the drink to have been brought to him. Shepard has already served a year on the roads for manufacturing. And now he is serving still another road sentence imposed last spring.

Unfair Question

Shim—"You drive awfully fast, don't you?"
Hin:—"Well, I touched seventy yesterday."
"Did you kill any of them?"
