THE U. D. C. APPRECIATIVE The Daughters of the Confederacy wish to thank each one who took part on the program at the Unveiling of the Monument to our Confederate soldiers. The music which was in charge of Mrs. Roy Phillips was very sweet and appropriate for this occasion.

We also wish to express our appreciation to Mr. Doster and Mrs. Corder for their assistance in getting ready for the unveiling, and to Mrs. McAulay for the lovely dinner she served for the veterans and their wives. We appreciate the help and the splendid co-operation of the Town and County in helping to make this occasion a great success. The Morrison Training School furnished splendid music during the day. Again we thank you.
