Reverse Charges
"Puff, puff! How much to the station?" asked young Joe Shortcash, running after the taxicab.
"Half a buck," said the driver.
The boy kept on running. Finally he panted again, "An' how much now?"
"Six bits," said the driver. "You're runnin' the wrong way."

Mechanical Cow
Son Vernon speaking:
"Say, Dad, how many kinds of milk are there?"
"Well, there's evaporated milk, butter milk, malted milk, and—why the heck do you want to know?"
"Oh, I'm drawing a picture of a cow and I don't know how many spigots to put on her."

GREENE-COVINGTON

In a quiet ceremony, Miss Lena Covington of Ledbetters and Lowell Greene of Ellerbe were married Friday night, July 1, at 8 o'clock in the Methodist parsonage at Roberdel. The Rev. F. A. Lupton officiated.

Miss Carrie Lupton rendered a program of piano music. To the strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin the couple entered together, unattended. During the ceremony "Traumerel" was softly played.

The bride wore blue chiffon with harmonizing accessories and a shoulder bouquet of gardenias, sweetheart roses, and baby's breath.

Only members of the two immediate families and close friends were present for the ceremony.

The young couple are occupying an apartment at the residence of Mrs. A. D. Dumas on Ledbetter street.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Covington of Ledbetters. She attended the Ledbetter grammar school and the Rockingham high school.

The groom is the third son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Greene of Ellerbe. He received his education in the Ellerbe schools.

He has been employed with the Richmond County Journal for nearly two years.

GREEN LAKE CHURCH

What We Owe to Green Lake.

It is only natural that we select a "well cared for" cemetery in which to bury our loved ones, and it should be just as natural that we help towards keeping it in order.

I beg you to please come to Green Lake church, bring your hoe, or either send labor for a couple of days, on August 2nd, 3rd and 4th, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Even a child knows that hired labor requires money. A number of laborers have to be paid for the three days; will you help keep your grounds by giving a donation to John W. Covington at the Farmers Bank, W. C. Lupton at Lupton's Hardware, William McIntosh at Bristow's Drug Store, or either mail it to Mrs. G. G. Terry, Mrs. W. B. Dawkins, Mrs. W. R. McIntosh or Guy Midgette, Roberdel, N. C.

Please do this at your earliest convenience. We thank you in advance for your favor.

Mrs. W. R. McIntosh.
