Miss Pat Monroe Entertains at Jackson Springs

The Monroe Cottage at Jackson Springs was the scene of a very delightful affair evening of July 16th, when Miss Pat Monroe entertained from 9 to 12 p. m. at an informal reception and miscellaneous shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lacey Patterson, recently married couple of Jackson Springs.

Outstanding features of the evening's program were the finding of many useful and beautiful gifts by Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, which were enmeshed in a tangle of silken threads which extended throughout the house and yard, and the cutting of the beautiful double tier white wedding cake, from which the guests drew many unusual favors.

The cottage was decorated with summer flowers and colored balloons. Block cream and cake was served, also delicious fruit punch to the hundred guests who availed themselves of Miss Monroe's charming hospitality.

Miss Margaret Edmondson of Raleigh, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Wellons of Smithfield, came Tuesday to visit until Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gore on North Randolph Street.

PARSONS-GORE

Miss Elizabeth Rosalie Gore and Walter Leak Parsons, Jr., Married in Private Ceremony at Rockingham July 16, 1933.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Gore to Walter Leak Parsons, Jr., was solemnized Saturday, July 16th, at twelve o'clock noon, in a private ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gore, in Rockingham. The home was simply decorated in summer flowers for the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Bruce Benton, pastor of the bride, in the presence of members of the two immediate families.

Miss Elisabeth Joyner Brewer, of Gaffney, S. C., aunt of the bride, rendered the bridal music. The bride entered with her father, Claude Gore. The groom was attended by his cousin, William C. Leak, as best man.

The bride wore a dress of white embroidered organdy with white accessories and a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Parsons is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gore. After finishing Rockingham High School, she was graduated from Westhampton College, University of Richmond. For the past three years she has been a member of the faculty of Great Falls school here.

The groom is the son of the late Walter L. and Manie Leak Parsons, of Rockingham. He was graduated from North Carolina State College, and is now a member of the firm of Leak-Parsons Co.

Following the ceremony, the bride's mother, Mrs. Claude Gore, entertained at a two-course luncheon to about 50 guests, these being:
