Picture of a man crossing a bridge

We've all heard of that famous bridge—the one that some people try to cross before they get to it. Fret, Worry & Fear built it and did a bad job. It's wobbly... and it never gets anybody anywhere.

There's another bridge—Confidence—that is strongly engineered to carry heavy loads. Confidence sailed our pioneer forefathers across the turbulent Atlantic. Confidence helped our grandfathers extend the stubborn frontier—and made ours the strongest and most abundant land on Earth today. Confidence is ready now to take America further still.

ROCKINGHAM TOPS RAEFORD BY 20-0

Locals Push Over Markers In 2nd and 3rd Period To Down Hoke County Lads.

Games Played So Far:

Sept. 30—Rham 13, Lumberton 7.
Oct. 7—Rham 24, Elise 0.
Oct. 14—Rham 19, Sanford 0.
Oct. 21—Rham 0, Hamlet 0.
Oct. 28—Rham 13, Wadesboro 0.
Nov. 4—Rham 20, Raeford 0.
Nov. 10—Rham ?, Hamlet ?

Rockingham high school's highly geared football machine rolled over an outclassed Raeford eleven here Friday, Nov. 4th, 20 to 0, before a "Home Coming Day" crowd of about 500 fans.

Captain Hubert Maples and Leon McCaskill provided the punch of Rockingham's offensive. Coach J. T. Holton's cohorts outplayed the Hoke county lads in all departments, racking up ten first downs to Raeford's three, one of which came on a penalty. It was the worst defeat the Raeford team has suffered this season.

Joe Norton, speedy halfback, returned to the Rockingham backfield after a week's absence due to an injury and turned in a brilliant performance. In the second quarter Captain Maples whipped a pass to Norton and the red-head galloped 45 yards over the goal to give the locals their first score. Maples attempted to add the point through the line, but was stopped cold.

A well executed lateral pass in the third quarter netted the locals their second touchdown. After marching from their own to Raeford's 35, Capt. Maples shot a pass to Meacham, end, who lateralled to Tutor. The speedy back raced down the sidelines and went over the goal standing up. Maples passed to Meacham for the extra point.

Rockingham was headed for another touchdown three minutes later. Tutor returned a punt to Raeford's 40. Maples cracked center for 6 and then flipped a pass to Meacham on Raeford's 11 yard line. Maples was stopped for no gain and then two passes were grounded. With the count fourth down and nine yards to go, Captain Maples elected to run with the ball and weaved his way to the two yard line for a first and ten from where he crashed over on the next play. Meacham split the uprights with a placement to make the score read: Rockingham 20, Raeford 0.

The visitors threatened twice in the fourth quarter, driving to the 7 and 11 yard line where the locals braced and tossed them back. So superior were the locals that they didn't have to punt a single time. Sharing backfield honors with Captain Maples and McCaskill were Tutor, Norton and McIntosh. Strickland, Stubbs, Whitley, Odum and Meacham were the standouts in the line.

The locals squared off with their arch rivals, Hamlet, at Hamlet this (Thursday) afternoon for the fourth district title. The two teams met earlier in the season at Hamlet with the battle ending in a scoreless tie. The locals were conceded a good chance of avenging last year's defeat. Both squads were pronounced in good shape. The winner will meet the winner of the Dunn-Hillsboro game on Tuesday, Nov. 15th. If Dunn wins the game will be played at Raeford and if Hillsboro wins the game will be played at Hillsboro. Elizabeth City, winner in the No. 1 district, and Whiteville, champion in District No. 2, will meet Saturday in Rocky Mount.

FOOTBALL GUESSES

John Legwin is Winner.

John B. Legwin, student at Duke, is winner of the $1 offered by the Post-Dispatch for the one predicting closest to the three state games played Nov. 5th.

There were 60 guesses. He and Jim Fowlkes were nearest. We first figures Jim had won, and paid him the dollar; but a bit of second figuring shows that John B. was the winner—and so he also gets a dollar.

For this Saturday, there are a bunch of guessers to three hard games: Carolina vs Fordham, Duke vs Syracuse and State vs Detroit. Glance over the list of guesses in this paper.

For Nov. 19th, there is only one game—that of Duke vs State at Durham. Make your guess for that one—just one game.

And then in next week's paper we'll receive guesses for the final games—Thanksgiving games of Carolina vs Virginia, Wake vs Davidson, and Duke vs Pitt for Nov. 26th. However, the guess you are to send in now is for the Nov. 19th game of Duke vs State.

Scores for Nov. 5th were:

Carolina 7, V. P. I. 0.
Wake Forest 6, V. M. I. 6.
State 0, Manhattan 3.

Jim's guess was Carolina 7, V. P. I. 0, Wake Forest 14, V. M. I. 7, State 7, Manhattan 14.

John Legwin's guesses were: Carolina 14, V. P. I. 6, Wake Forest 13, V. M. I. 6, State 0, Manhattan 6. He was closest to all three.

(The Post-Dispatch guess was Carolina 27, V. P. I. 0, Wake 7, V. M. I. 6, State 7, Manhattan 13).

Predictions for Nov. 12th Game. $1.00 for best guess — from Post-Dispatch.

"SNOW WHITE" PROVES ABOVE A CARTOON

Coming to The Little Theatre for 4 Days Nov. 21, 22, 23, 24.

Walt Disney's first feature-length animated production, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," is definitely not an elongated cartoon.

The musical feature is done in soft tones of color, not in the bright hues of the Mickey Mouse and Silly Symphony shorts. Each scene is an exquisite composition of color and shading. Each frame of film could stand alone, comparable in its beauty to the most ambitious paintings.

Whereas the Disney short subjects are one continuous laugh from start to finish, his first feature presents all the elements of great entertainment: romance, pathos, suspense and humor. Although the other established Disney characters are all animals, for "Snow White" he has created human beings with human emotions, intended to be as real to the audience as flesh-and-blood players.

Nora: "What's wrong, Johnny?"
Johnny: "I burnt my h-hand in the hot water."

Nora: "Serves you right. Why didn't you feel the water before you put your hands in it?"

A soldier went to his colonel and asked for leave to go home and help his wife with the spring housecleaning.

"I don't like to refuse you," said the colonel, "but I've just received a letter from your wife saying that you are no use around the house."

The soldier saluted and turned to go. At the door he stopped: "Colonel, there are two persons in this regiment who handle the truth loosely, and I'm one of them, I'm not married."
