Three Killed In Auto Accidents

Five Points Intersection is Extremely Dangerous.

Traffic accidents in the county over the past weekend took a toll of three lives, hospitalized several others, and did property damage in the amount of some $5,000, according to reports made Nov. 30th by local patrolmen. In making their report they state that this upsets what they expected to be a better death record for 1953 than that which was made in 1952, when the number in the county reached 15 for that year, following 23 during 1951. The record for this year, prior to last Friday was 10 deaths for 1953.

The first of these fatalities occurred at the five-point intershe entered 74 from Rt. 220, crashing broadside into a passing truck which was being driven by William Brown, of Rockngham.

Others in the passenger car were Mrs. Frank Kepner and Mrs. Bane Moore, elderly relatives of Mrs. Heest. Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Kepner were rushed tion of three physicians. Mrs. Moore succumbed in a few minutes, and Mrs. Kepner was she will probably survive.
