Prof. Clayton, of Greensboro, Was Hes by Over Two Hundred People.

Last Friday, the Rutherford County Teachers' Association held their meeting with the good people of Ellenboro, and at an early hour teachers and friends of education began to arrive on trains, carriages, buggies, horse back, bycicles and foot. Teachers of Ellenboro High School, and the citizens were at the trains to give a hearty welcome and tendered the hospitalities of their homes to the teachers and their friends.

The association met at the Academy, and was called to order by Vice-President A. L. Rucker, and Rev. Z. D. Harrill invoked God's blessing. Mr. G. B. Pruett spoke the words of welcome which assured every one present a home in the hearts of his people while their guests, which was responded to by Prof. O. M. WHAT THE EDITOR SAYS.

For several days it has been known that the Southern section of the Union was being rapidly rushed to the front, but few peotheir surroundings and customs were different to ours. They were as much a different people as with hundreds of slaves. Each had as it were a little kingdom of They thought of nothing but cotcotton to be shipped to the Northand reshipped back to the South by Prof. O. M. To guide people in the work of developement, the Seaboard Air Line has at considerable expense secured the services of a former citizen of New England a real live hustling Yankee Mr. E St. John, a native of Connecticut who went West when a young man and built up a reputation as a Railfar above any other persons that had anything to do with the development of the great Western States. The fact that these people are securing the services of such a man is positive evidence that they are not behind in the march of progress. Mr. St John is located at Portsmouth, and has been put at the head of the Seaboard Air Line and he is inducing many people from the North to go down South. He has opened ofway, in Philadelphia at 30 South Third Street, in Baltimore at 207 E.
