gence, or sexual extravagence, sc.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years successful practice, that the alaming consequences of self-abuse may be addually cured; pointing out a mode at once simple, certain, bnd effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

Rev. Father Wilds EXPERIENCE.

The Rev. Z. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wikis, of the Mussachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows: 78 E. 5/h St., New York, May 16, 1882.

MESSES, J. U. AVER & Co., Gentlemen:

Last winter I was troubled with a most uncornforming tening humor affecting more especially by limbs, which tiched so intelerably at high, and burned so intensely, that I could scarcely bear any crothing over them. incierably at might, and burned so literasly, that I could scarcely bear any coothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and exterribal cough; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-named disorders. By appetite theproved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were althyed, and all signs of incinnion of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cared by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred per cent stronger, and I satisfante these results to the use of the Sansarapatha, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood uncloine ever devised. I took it in small doses three times a day, and mod, for all, less than two bottles. Folice these facts at your service, hoping their publication may do good.

Yours respectfully. Z. P. WILDS."
