Printing. Job

Having recently purchased a first class outfit, we are prepared to do all kinds of

PLAIN AND FANCY

PRINTING JOB

IN THE BEST OF STYLE And at Living Prices.

Mr. Wilkins Speaks His Mind to Mr. Vilas.

Beriah Wilkins is an Ohio Congressman. He has a district that represents anywhere from 5,000 to 8,000 Democratic majority. He is a banker, with a round-shaped head that is deemed quite level in his own home bailiwick. Mr. Wilkins called on the Postmaster General with reference to numerous appointments that he had requested for his district. He was asked for the papers, and handed out a formidable bundle. The Postmaster-General pick-"" ed up one and began to read it. He said presently :

"These are strong recommenda-" tions. But I don't find any charges " against the present incumbent. I'm presume you have read my circular?"

"Oh, yes. I have read it." "Well, there are no charges here." "The man I want you to put in is " Democrat. The man who is in a" not have buy. Republican." "Yes, but there must be charges and summer to c against him." "Blank the charges. I just told " you the man I want to get in is a Democrat."

"That doesn't comply with the reuirements. "And the man I want to get out is a ranting Republican." it, is astonishingly vehement and fu-"Then you should make charges" rious. If you could see and know against him." "That is all the charges I can know of you would be amazed. nake or will make." no longer wonder that poor Garfield "Then I cannot make any change." Another package of indorsements persuaded into the fatal course of was taken up, but the Ohio Conrewarding his and some other peogressman reached out and took the ple's friends and punishing his and entire bundle. their enemies. I am convinced that "I understand you, do I," he is rethis administration, had it pursued ported as saying, "that your circular that course, would have flung the requires me to make oath to the 'ofcountry into turmoil and fury in fensive partisanship' of all these postsix weeks after the 4th of March. masters-you want sworn charges, We should have seen a repetition of do you ?" the wild excitement of four years "Exactly," said the Postmasterago, which culminated in poor Gar-General, who thought the cloud was field's assassination. The country disappearing, but was mistaken. for and the Democratic party, as well the Ohioan continued : owes a deep debt of gratitude to "You needn't trouble yourself to President Cleveland for the firmness look any further. You won't find with which he has adhered to his ahy such affidavits. In our section engagement in regard to the publie service. I can say to you that he of the country we have too much respect for our neighbors to be filing has been the master of us all in this sworn affidavits against their politimatter; and I will add that while I cal character. I want a Democrat in. I want a Republican out. The Republican expects to go out." Th Democrat expects to go in. The Republican thinks that the Democratic Administration is made up of blankso, too. And so do I, Mr. Vilas, and blank me if I ever set foot in your department again. But when you come knocking around Congress for an appropriation, by thunder, I'll see that you either stir the pudding

Rockingham Rocket. BY H. C. WALL.

Office : OVER EVERETT, WALL & COMPANY'S SUBSCRIPTION RATES : $1.50 One year, Six months,

Three months,.... All subscription accounts must be paid in advance.

Advertising rates furnished on VOL. III. application.

THE WATER THAT HAS PASSED. As repeated by Lawrence Barrett, from Songs in "The Man o' Arlie."

Listen to the water mill Through the live-long day, How the clanking of the wheels Wears the hours away ! Languidly the autumn wind Stirs the greenwood leaves From the fields the reapers sing, Binding up the sheaves, And a proverb haunts my mind, As a spell is cast-"The mill will never grind With the water that has passed.' Take the lesson to thyself, Living heart and true; Golden years are fleeting by, Youth is passing too; Learn to make the most of life, Lose no happy day; Time will never bring thee back Chances swept away, Leave no tender word unsaid

Love while life shall last-"The mill will never grind With the water that has passed." Work while yet the daylight shine

Man of strength and will; Never does the streamlet glide Useless by the mill. Wait not till to-morrow's sun Beams upon the way ; All that thou canst call thy own

Lies in thy to-day,

ROCKINGHAM, RICHMOND COUNTY, N. C., JULY 9, 1885.

Rockingham Rocket.

The End of the Man that Hanged Mrs. Surratt--A Suicide.

Edwin M. Stanton was his name. He was Secretary of War under except that hogs do not cut their more trying upon the sense of ease Republican rule, and such was his own throats nor have their blood by than the duties of a nurse? Yet lack of good sense and knowledge of spirit hands thrown up in their faces does not every nurse put forth efforts men that he was the cause of the as went the spatters up into his face which can never be requited with deaths of at least 50,000 men more in a way the attendants at his death money? Do not the workers in tenthan need have been killed during could not understand .-- Pomeroy's U.S. Democrat.

the war. He was also the brutal, cowardly murderer of Mrs. Surratt, a woman against whom there was not one particle of truthful evidence that could in any manner connect her with the death of Lincoln.

To go Beast Butler one better, an thus to rise one degree higher in in famy, Stanton engineered the trial, and ordered the murder of this mos excellent christian Catholic lady .-She was hung, to the eternal disgrace of the administration that permitted it to be ever said. Then Edwin M. Stanton saw sights that made his midnight hours torture unendurable! Night after night did the spirit of Mrs. Surratt, pale and with agonized features, appear at his bedside ond point to the rope lic servants. No throngs walked being only this little satisfaction, and he or she would work with a about his remains lying in state. A hog he lived. As a hog he died, cheerful hand. Can any office be

Labor and Thought.

"It is only by labor," says Ruskin "that thought can be made healthy, and only by thought that labor can be made happy." Now, if the latter part of this dictum be the truth, then the modern processes of industry are going the wrong way, for surely the tendency of every inventive improvement ss to take from the worker the little thinking which he had previously to do and to transfer the seeming equivalent of that thought to the machine. Suppose a man of the olden times digged in the earth. He delved with some degree of pleasure, for in his mind there stood a concept of the structure which would some day rise out of the excavation marks on her neck. in which he then toiled. The dread-

In vain did Edwin M. Stanton imful "organization of labor" had not doubt it. think I would not. And yet, what gularly limited in one way, comparbegun. But how is it nowadays? I asked a plumber once as he was memories cluster about that old itively few people being infected with Look over there at that gang of men putting out his candle and packing standing in the morning mist and his countless kit, if two plumbers smoke of a great city. They are could work together more profitably waiting for 7 o'clock to come. The than one alone. He turned scornman of long ago would have begun fully on me: "They never sends two at once. Ask one of these present plumbers to a 'ouse. They sends laborers what thing is about to be one plumber and a 'elper!" I hoi.builded. He will stare at you va ored the journeyman's pride, and cantly. How should he know, he felt he was daily rewarded for his wonders. Would the owner or an battles with kitchen-carelessness. chitect ever speak to him about it i Perhaps, also, the very unthink-When 7 o'clock comes, he raises his ing vokes of men-oxen that I do pity pick slowly, holds it a certain time have some wisdom that a philosoin the air, and brings it to the earth pher may add to his own poor little with the minimum expenditure of stock of knowledge. I saw two tissue. Or, he puts his shovel into "movers." They came down the the sodden ground, pushes it to the street, high on their chariot, their minimum shovelful, raises it at th chins on the palms of their hands, slowest rate of motion for which the their elbows on their knees-the contractor will pay money, and lays ideal of imperturable laziness. When the small cargo on the wagon with they went in after the kitchen stove, the most carefully-calculated interim they walked with the ceremonious of total inaction. Why does he propace of a pall-bearer. But they came ceed with such deliberation? Be forth, the stove in their arms, with cause he is not making anything.no slower step. The o'er-ambitous He is not truly laboring. The wild goodwife gazed upon their motions Indian with all the horrors which while they were not freighted, and Nature inflicted on him, was a nothe fire that had often quaked the bler creature. This loborer may be household came in her eye-yet they digging under the Peabody or Coopwere teaching the everlasting lesson er Institute. He may be preparing of Nature, the persistence of force for Girard College. He may be mak-These men were doing "the work of ing for the Washington or the Lick the world." All other persons the-Observatory. Is it not cruel ?orized about "moving." They moved. Knowledge and light and peace are are to come from it all, and yet had done it all, and it was well done. the proud height of postmaster at revolution." where are the knowledge and light They would move some other luck for this wretched man, who this less family the next day. morning sees but dimly the hour Let no kind reader think, either, with the cold dinner in the bucket, that I am a pessimist. I have read and who can hardly hope the night of an archaic stone-picture revealing will ever come at all? Oh! you Gethe methods by which a column was nious of Progress, hasten your reput in place at Karnac. A thouwards, for the millions are offering sand men-oxen of Rameses or Sethos as sacrifices, and the full propitiatime stood on each side of the pillar. tion of the destroying gods is ever When the word was given to the afar off! whippers, they lashed the men-oxen, Yet the man of labor still holds to and the men-oxen, alas! knew it was himself many of his old rights. time to push, and to push hard .-souri saw a mason at work in the cellar. Ours are the happiest days, sorry as they may be. The scourge has been put away-a true Medusa's head it mixed his cement and beclouded the was. The sun of hope has arisen, air with the recreant atoms that but ah! it is yet far to the south .-were escaping from the great temple. The charity of men is still a cold And as the days passed, the scaffoldray of comfort .- John McGovern, in the "Current." Shelby is proving itself this year more attractive than ever before. A son for American Youths. Last week I visited my birthplace n the State of Maine. I waited 30 years for the public to visit it, and as there didn't seem to be much of a rush this Spring, I thought I thousand callings add to the thing nominated in the bond some little telling a friend the other day that painstaking which discloses their sethe public did not seem to manifest cret-the secret that they love their the interest in my birthplace that I work rather because it fills a place thought it ought to, and he said I in the sum of earthly endeavor than ought not mind that. "Just wait," because they themselves expect to said he, "till the people of the Uniprofit by the extra exertion? Did ted States have an opportunity to the man who mounted the cabinet yisit your tomb, and you will be of 2,000 humming-birds in the musurprised to see how they will run seum of Central Park, in New York excursion trains up there to Moose-City, expect a return in cash for his toil? Did Pasteur or Koch or Feryourself. It will be a perfect picnic. ran expect to sell the microbes by the pair if they should succeed in William, is wonderful, but your branding and breeding them? I can death would seem to assure it, and imagine that if a man only underkind of crystallize the affection now stood the datum and plan of a city's existing, but still in a nebulous and grade and sewerage, he might work gummy state."

all day in pipes, and go to his home A man ought not to criticise his with a feeling of triumph over perbirthplace. I presume, and yet, if I haps one of the greatest difficulties of civilization. Maybe he does that same thing now. I hope so, but I

BILL NYE VISITS HIS BIRTHPLACE. them away in the spring of '53, saying, "Parents, this is no place for us," "Where He First Met His Parents" -- A Les it then became quiet.

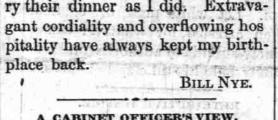

It is the only birthplace I have, however, and I hope that all the readers will feel perfectly free to go there sometime and visit it, and carry their dinner as I did. Extravawould go and visit it myself. I was

TERMS: $1.50 a Year in Advance.

A CABINET OFFICER'S VIEW. A Continuance of the Spoils System Would

The longer the administration lasts the more confirmed its members, from the President to the last head Lake, or wherever you plant | Cabinet officer, are of the absolute necessity and extreme importance Your hold on the American people, of the civil service law and of all which it implies. A Cabinet officer said to your correspondent a few days ago :- "But for this law and the public sentiment which opposes merely partisan use of public place and denounces the spoils system we should. I am convinced, have a revwere to do it all over again, I do not olution after or before every presiknow whether I would select that dential election, in a very few years. particluar spot or not. Sometimes I | The hunger for office, while it is sin-

place back. BILL NYE. Breed Revolution."

No. 28.

Power, intellect and health May not, can not last-"The mill will never grind With the water that has passed. Oh, the wasted hours of life

That have drifted by ; Oh, the good we might have done, Lost without a sigh ; Love that we once might have saved By a single word Thoughts conceived, but never penned Perishing, unheard, Take the proverb to thy heart, Take ! oh. hold it fast !

"The mill will never grind With the water that has passed,

The Evil of Intemperance.

1 am aware that there is prejudice against any man engaged in the liquor traffic. I do not believe, neither have I ever heard of any person engaged in the liquor business who did not grow worse instead of better. There is not one man out of ten but what will come out worse than he started in; if he does not in dollars and cents he will in some other way. Look at men who have thrown themselves away with the poisonous stuff, that ought to have made useful men; but alas, where do we find them ?-Some in the common jails, some in the work houses of the State for life, some in the asylums and some have filled premature graves. All we have to do is to think of the wrecks on either side of the stream of death, of the suicides, of the insanity, of the poverty and destruction coming from liquor.

Intemperance cuts down youth in almost prophetic, resigned before he who is in no hurry. She knows that There was a wedding tour in this its vigor, manhood in its strength was characterized as an offensive I murdered her, and I know that I direction the other day, and the or give up the ladle. Good-day, sir." it breaks the heart of the parents, it murdered her to satisfy public clampartisan. happy couple were accompanied by extinguishes natural affection; deor, when I had full power to save Here on the banks of the raging three others. It was a sweet specta-A Paper With the Right Name. stroys conjugal love, blots out filial her. She points to her throat and Piscataquis, where winter lingers in cle to see the four pairs promenadattachments, blights paternal hope, she touches mine with a motion that the lap of spring till it occasions a The Dry Wash Arizona""Lyre" ing up Jefferson Avenue, with hands and brings premature age in sorrow tells this story: Billy Mascott! of good deal of talk, there began a cameans the knife! I shall have no clasped and a taffy-like smile spread and dishonor to the grave. It prothe lower divide, has an old gander reer which has been the wonder and more rest on earth. God has given over every face, and hundreds of duces weakness, and not strength; that beats the Dutch. Every Thursadmiration of every vigilance commy soul to her, and as I had no merpedestrians stopped to gaze and adsickness, not health ; death, not life. day morning he (the gander) goes mittee west of the turbulent Miscy for her, it is ordered that she mire. The porter of a wholesale It covers the land with idleness, outto the front gate, and picking up shall have none for mine. I tell house wasn't quite satisfied with misery and crime. It produces conyou, Judge, my life is in hell, and His trowel rang out the march of the "Lyre" which he finds lying There on that spot, with no inherwhat he could see, but stopped the troversies, fosters quarrels, cherishes there is but one way out of it-the the hours; the drawers of water there carries it into the house."Then itance but a predisposition to prelast couple and inquired :---he houks loudly till some one apriots. It crowds our penitentiaries mature baldness and a bitter hatred knife !" "Is it a case of love?" and furnishes victims for the scafof rum; with no personal property pears and takes it from him. This It was not long after this interview "You bet ! replied the young man fold. It is the blood of the gambler, that Edwin M. Stanton, the once imbut a misfit suspender and a stonesame gander also goes to the village, "Are they extremely happy?" the inspiration of the burglar, the perious, heartless Secretary of War, bruise, began a life history which two miles distant, and can carry, "Jest a-biling over." stimulus of the highwayman, and it deliberate, cowardly murderer of ings rose higher and higher, until home light articles hung around his has never ceased to be a warning to "Why don't you and this gal fol violates obligation, reverences fraud, Mrs. Surratt, cut his throat and let ten, eleven, twelve stories were piled people who sell groceries on a credit. neck better than a boy. He was w suit?" turns love to hate. It degrades the his cur-like spirit out to do the bid- above my low line of vision, and the sent to Jim Bludsoe's for "a paper It should teach the youth of this "I'm perfectly willin,' but Sarah citizen, debases the statesman, and ding of a woman the hern of whose mason's trowel-ring came as the kerchunks on me. I've asked her of needles the other days with yong land what glorious possibilities disarms the patriot. It brings shame, over twenty times to have me, but a dollar bill under his witig: To garment he was not fit to touch .- twitter of the swallows from the lanmay lie concealed in the rough and Till his great crime be atoned for, he tern of the spire near by. Ho ! must now than ever before at this time of larger number of visitors are here tease him Jim gaye him no change not honor; terror, not safety; detough bosom of the reluctant pres spair, not hope, misery, not happiit's no go." will not escape her lash. Edwin M. not this mason's heart have some- the year. The Cleaveland Springs but Mr. Gander knew 'it wasn't a ent. It shows how steady persever-"Never! never!" she firmly said ness. It does that and more-it Stanton died by his own hand. He thing of his noble calling in it? straight game, and chased James ance and a good appetite will always as she rolled her cud of gum to the murders the soul. Can any one tell cut his throat and bled to death as Must he not, as he looks against the and the promise of many more in a has a considerable crowd already around the store till he gave him win in the end. It teaches us that what it will not do, if you put liquor does a hog when stuck. Thus he western storm-cloud, defy it in the few days. During the months other side for a moment. "When a man takes me to a circus and erawls the change. Then he houked a paan wealth is not indispensable, and died in a proper manner. of victory and went home. ofdel that if we live as we should, draw walls of his vast fabric, which stand under the canvass to save expenses. In my opinion it is the worst evil July and August this place will out of politics at the proper time, Well were they who knew the for him-the metempsychosis of his and then can't see the man with the that is on the face of the globe, all astir with lovers of pleasure .-Parson's Purgative Pills are a facts of his crime paid to keep the heart and hope? This, then, is laand then die a few days before the lemonade nor the boy with the pe among the many. It is the father New Era. priceless boon to the people of the secret. They let soiled and clean bor, heaven-given, the only boon for public absolutely demand it, the nuts, I wouldn't hitch to him if I of all crimes, the mother of all abomhad to go out and set a bear trap to South and South-west. They effectlinen absorb the blood that ran from which man will ever in secret rematter of our birthplace will not be We were shown a very peculiar inations, the devil's best friend, and ually prevent fever and ague and all his throat-cut. The rags were car- main thankful, though he revile itworm found in a garden here. It is considered. catch a partner !"-Detroit Free God's worst enemy .-- Cor. Lenoir malarious diseases, and cost only Still, my birthplace is all right as ried away from the house. His throat by day and by night. green in color, and has a head and Topic. Press. 25 cents a box. was bound up and when his body I cannot bring myself to believe neck exactly like a bull-dog. No a birthplace. It was a good, quiet "Bonnets come high this spring," was prepared for burial, the throat that every man upon the earth one in this place has ever seen one place in which to be born. All the He-In fact, Miss Lightheart, I've The report circulated relative to the death of Mr. Childs or Laurens, remarks a fashion paper. The man was muffled to the chin. Cloths should not thoroughly understand like it .- Lincoln Press. old neighbors said that Shirley was a good mind to give up art altogeth who has the misfortune to sit behind were wrapped tight about it to help the work he is doing. I wish he a very quiet place up to the time I er and volunteeer for active service. of the Wizard Oil Troupe in Virginia. one at the theatre is fully convinced keep the secret. No such burial was might know it so well that he should The policemen in Pensacola sport was born there, and when I took my She-Oh do! I should so like to is not true. Both are alive and doof this fact. parents by the hand and gently led 'know somebody in the war-Puck, ing well, given him as is given to honest pub- sec its usefulness. Give a human umbrellas while on duty.

plore her to begone and appear 'no In vain did he turn his face more. to the wall, and with hands clinched over his head, wait and wait for her to depart. But she went not till he would look out, and with a cry of anguish bury his cowardly face again and again. No matter where he slept, she came to his bedside and pointed to the rope marks on her throat!

He not only thought he saw her, but he did see her, and his white livered soul grew more blanched with fear born of cowardice, as she was sent by the God of Justice to appear in judgment against him.

Previous to the war, when Edwin M. Stanton was a worker with Democrats, though never a Democrat at heart, one of his political friends and associates was Hon. Gideon J. Tucker, at one time Secretary of the State of New York, and ever a truthful, fearless gentleman, living to this day, and still a man of commanding influence. Not long before his death Edwin M. Stanton said to Judge Tucker aforesaid :

"That woman, Mrs. Surratt, is driving me insane! Night after night see her, day after day at odd times I feel her touch on my shoulderupon my throat. I cannot escape "Imagination," replied Judge Tucker.

"Not a bit of it ! I see her. I feel her. She is my Nemesis! She comes to me in presence palpable, as one house! There was the place where I first met my parents. It was at that time that an acquaintance all the applications for office that I sprang up which has ripened in later years into mutual respect and es teem. It was there that what might was shot. He unfortunately was be called a casual meeting took place, that has, under the alchemy of resistless years, turned to golden links, forming a pleasant but powerful bond of union between my parents and myself. For that reason I hope to be spared to my parents for many years to come.

Many old memories now cluster about that old home, as I have said. There is, also, other old bric-a-brac which has accumulated since I was born there. I took a small stone from the front yard as a kind of "memento" of the occasion and the place. I do not think it has been detected yet. There was another stone in the yard, so it may be weeks before any one finds out that I took one of them.

How humble the home, and yet believe in civil service reform I never what a lesson it should teach the saw before the absolute necessity boys of America! Here amid the of it for the safety of the country, barren and inhospitable waste of for its peaceful and orderly continu rocks and cold, the last place in the ance, as I have learned to see it world that a great man would nat- since I have been a cabinet officer. urally select to be born in, began The country has become too great ed fools that it hasn't turned Him the life of one who, by his own un- and populous for a continuance of out long ago. The Democrat thinks They knew about it. At night they aided efforts, in after years rose to the spoils system. It would breed

Sarah Wouldn't and She Was Right.

Laramie City, Wy. T., and, with an estimate of the future that seemed