

The People of North Carolina.

Judge Clark at the University.

The people of North Carolina have shown themselves to be more than equal to every emergency. Of almost pure English and Scotch extraction, nowhere does the love of liberty glow with a steadier and a more enduring flame. They were the first to resist British aggression at Wilmington. In grand words at Charlotte they wrote out the first Declaration of American Independence. At Halifax her Provincial Congress was the first to instruct for a national declaration of a separation of the colonies from Great Britain. In the hard contest that followed her people made both those declarations good. North Carolina has ever been grander in deeds than words and has always loomed up larger in war than in peace. In the late struggle she sent more soldiers to the field than any other Southern State, and nobly as the Old Dominion did her duty, North Carolina left more of her sons dead on Virginia's soil than Virginia herself. Our State grandly makes history, but magnificently indifferent to her fame, she leaves it to others to write it. None fought better than her sons in the Revolution, but New England was allowed to write the record. No soldier went farther than hers up the Heights at Gettysburg while the fight was going on, but after the war is over other troops are pushed farther up the hill when it is no longer dangerous to do so. No one who has ever seen her soldiers amid the fire of battle can fail to say, "I have seen them do their duty." Nor Ney, nor Massena, nor the great Frederick, nor Caesar, nor any other captain ever led forth to battle better troops than those North Carolinians who for four long years carried the fortunes of the Confederacy upon the points of their bayonets. Modest, brave, unambitious, indifferent to fame, but tenacious of their rights, loving liberty and appreciating its blessings, the people of North Carolina are a sturdy and independent and a noble race. Those who know them best will appreciate them the most.

The women of North Carolina are above all praise. They are as true, and noble, as patriotic as any that history can boast of that poetic fancy has ever painted. No wonder their husbands, sons, brothers and lovers have never faltered in any hour of their country's danger. They could not and they dared not. As a gifted speaker lately said, our women went into the war "carrying the standard of the Confederacy in their hands and the cross of Heaven in their hearts." They are peaceful, indeed, and "true lightwood at heart."

Electric Bitters.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise.—A purer medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, will remove Pimples, Boils, Salt Rheum and other affections caused by impure blood.—Will drive malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all Malarial Fevers.—For cure of Headache, Constipation and Indigestion try Electric Bitters—Entire satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded.—Price 50 cents and $1 per bottle at Dr. W. M. Fowlkes & Co.'s Drug Store.

The compliment paid Hon. Alfred Rowland by the Democrats of the Sixth district in the nomination tendered him by acclamation and by a rising vote to succeed himself in Congress was most worthily bestowed. Col. Rowland has made a most acceptable representative, and, with his health now restored, as we are glad to know it is, will be able to render even better service in the future than in the past. He is a gentleman whom we delight to see honored, as we believe him a champion of sound Democracy, who will do the whole State good at Washington. Samuel J. Pemberton, Esq., of Stanley, whom our friends of the Sixth chose for district elector, is one of the "best campaigners" in the State. He is a fine speaker, ready, well-informed and always on the alert.—He has rendered conspicuous service to the Democracy in the State legislature and, our word for it, he will shell the Radical woods most effectively in the coming campaign. He is an admirable choice and we congratulate the Democracy of his district and of the State at large on his election.—News and Observer.

The average young man who goes abroad "on pleasure bent" frequently comes back by pleasure broke.

Mr. Curtis Stands by Grover.

From Harper's Weekly.

As the representative of the platform which we describe elsewhere, no friend of a reduction of the surplus by moderating the tariff tax upon the necessities of life and raw materials could support Gen. Harrison unless he feared some grave peril from the success of Mr. Cleveland. This is an apprehension, however, which, although strong and natural in 1884, has now disappeared. Mr. Cleveland made his own platform in his message, and there has been nothing in his administration which has alarmed the business interests of the country. Gen. Harrison appears in the canvass as the representative of high and higher protection, and of free whiskey and tobacco, rather than of a lighter duty upon any class of articles produced in this country. In other words, he is for an average tariff tax of 47 per cent instead of 40 per cent, and of a profuse and consequently demoralizing expenditure of a surplus, instead of leaving it in the pockets of the tax-payers. His nomination promises a clean canvass. The offensive elements of personality which were prominent in the campaign of 1884 are happily eliminated, and we may fairly anticipate the discussion of principles and policies rather than an exchange of vituperation and scandals. This is a great gain for good politics, and in this respect the campaign of 1888 opens auspiciously.

An Explanation.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown—to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called Biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the Liver which in performing its functions finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous.

A Queer Case.

The Abbeville Medium Justice a case tried before a Trial Justice in that county of the State vs. Robert Bratcher for enticing labor under contract. A Miss Hamilton with her sister, brother and mother made a contract with J. B. Ashley to work this year as farm laborers. In the meantime the defendant Bratcher and Miss Hamilton became lovers and were married and hence the suit against Bratcher for enticing away the labor of Ashley. The jury rendered a verdict of "not guilty."

FOR COUGHS, CROUP AND CONSUMPTION USE TAYLOR'S "CHEROKEE" REMEDY

OF SWEET GUM AND MULLIN.

The sweet gum, as gathered from a tree of the same name growing along the small streams in the Southern States, contains a stimulating expectorant principle that loosens the mucus producing the early morning cough, and stimulates the child to throw off the false membrane in croup and whooping-cough. When combined with the healing ingredients principle in MULLIN'S CHERRY REMEDY OF SWEET GUM AND MULLIN, the most known remedy for Coughs, Croup, Whooping-cough and consumption; and so valuable, any child is pleased to take it. Ask your druggist for it. Price 25c and 50c.
