DYSPEPSIA.

8 that misery experienced when we sudthat misery experienced when we sud-denly become aware that we possiess a diabolical arrangement called a stomach. The stomach is the reservoir from which every flore and tissue must be nourished, and any trouble with it is soon felt through-out the whole system. Among a dozen dyspeptics no two will have the same predominant symptoms, Dyspeptics of active mental power and a billous temperament mental power and a billious temperament are subject to Sick Headache: those, floshy and phiegmatic have Constipation, while the thin and nervous are abandoned togloomy forehodings. Some dyspeptics are wonderfully forgetful; others have great irritability of temper. Whatever form Dyspepsia may take, one thing is certain
