Curious Historical Facts.

During the troubles in the reign of Charles I., a country girl came to London in search of a place as a servant maid, but not succeeding, 6.50 she hired herself to carry out beer from a warehouse, and was one of those called tub women. The brewer 54 00 observing a good looking girl in this 7 35 low occupation, took her into his family as a servant, and afterwards married her. He died while yetshe was a young woman, and left her the bulk of his fortune.

The widow being in need of legal advice, a certain Mr. Hyde was recommended to her as a skillful lawyer, to arrange her husband's affairs. Hyde, who was afterwards Earl of Clarendon, finding the widow's fortune considerable, married her. By 50 00 this marriage there was no other 400 issue than a daughter, who was afterwards the wife of James II., and mother of Mary and Anne, Queens of England.

well known merchant of that place, was passing through a covered bridge, he encountered the elephant Chief, belonging to Robinson's circus, and stepped to the side of the bridge to get out of the elephant's way. This seemed to enrage the elephant, and with a stroke of its trunk it knocked Mr. Strohn between the inner and outer walls of the bridge. Chief then endeavored to butt in the walls of the structure, and in all probability would have killed Mr. Strohn had not the elephant Mary been rushed to the scene. She beat Chief with ber trunk until he ran out of the bridge. The eminent physician, J. Marion Strohn was then taken out in an unconscious condition and carried to his home. He was severely injured about the head, and for awhile it was believed he would die. Since. then, however, he has improved.
