LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Cotton, 9 1/2 to 10 cents.

Mr. Robert L. Steele plucked a full-blown cotton bloom from a patch near his house on Tuesday morning, the 19th inst.

Don't fail to attend the Book Reception at the Y. M. C. A. Hall to-morrow night, and be sure to carry one or more books with you.

The present cold snap has caused the death of quite a number of porkers in this section. Mr. Jno. C. Patrick killed two fine ones Monday.

Mr. Jno. C. Patrick has bought Mr. Stutts' market and will continue the business at the same stand. He furnishes good beef, pork, sausage, etc., at all times.

Several of our citizens have gone to the Centennial at Fayetteville this week. Two of our countymen, Messrs. H. C. Wall and W. H. Neal, are Marshals for the occasion.

A change of schedule went into effect on the Carolina Central Monday morning. The train from Charlotte now gets here 15 minutes earlier and the train from Wilmington 45 minutes later than formerly.

To the Wilmington Star: It is such a hard matter for a newspaper man to get credit anyway, that we should be glad if you will give us instead of our neighbor credit for items clipped from the Rocket.

Dr. W. M. Fowlkes & Co. have just received the finest line of silverware ever shown in Rockingham, and it is remarkably cheap. Besides, they also have a fine lot of toilet cases, albums, &c., the very things you want for a present for a friend.

We are indebted to the publisher, Jas. H. Ennis, Esq., Raleigh, N. C., for a copy of "Turner's N. C. Almanac" for the year 1890. This almanac has been issued regularly for over fifty years and is regarded by housekeepers as the standard almanac of the State.

Miss Sallie Rainwaters, daughter of Rev. William Rainwaters, died in Pee Dee village on the 8th inst., of fever contracted in Darlington, S. C., aged about 15 years. The remains were taken to Chesterfield, S. C., for interment.—Spirit of the South.

Mr. W. A. McKinnon, the builder of our court house, has been awarded the contract to build the new court house for Moore county, at Carthage. The price to be paid is $6,850, and it is to be ready for the Spring term, 1890, of court. No doubt Mr. Mae will make a good job of it.

Mr. Thomas Andrews, of Charlotte, well and favorably known hereabout, was married in Wilmington last week to Miss Annie C. Reed, a niece of Mr. E. P. Covington, formerly of this town. Tom's many friends here will have a cordial hand shake for him on his next visit to our town.

A Young Men's Christian Association was organized in Pee Dee village on Monday night, with twelve members. The following officers were elected: President, J. A. McKay; Vice President, A. Black; Secretary, Chas. Barnes; Assistant Secretary, Nick McInnis; Treasurer, Daniel McInnis; Executive Committee, J. H. Hasty, Chas. Biggs, Matthew Hasty.

Mr. J. S. Goldston who holds forth in the Rocketts, is selling first-class groceries very cheap. Call and see him.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father, Joshua Chappell, Esq., on the 6th inst., by Rev. W. H. H. Lawhorn, Mr. Atlas T. White to Miss Annie F. Chappell, all of Richmond County.

Mr. Wesley Watkins and Miss Sallie McCaskill, daughter of Jno. C. McCaskill, Esq., were married at the residence of the bride's parents on the 19th inst., by W. F. Long, Esq.

Business will be practically suspended in Rockingham on Thanksgiving day and the stores will be closed. If you want to buy anything or sell any cotton be sure to come the day before.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father, J. C. Patrick, Esq., on Tuesday night last, by Rev. F. L. Townsend, Mr. John R. Holt to Miss Lula Patrick. Our congratulations, Johnny.

The worst trust we have yet encountered is to trust a dead beat subscriber.—Sanford Express.

Mr. C. A. McClenney, the jeweler, arrived last week and is located in Mr. J. A. Wright's music house. We are glad to know that he is already receiving a fair patronage, and so far as we have heard, has given entire satisfaction.

Mr. W. D. Ussery in an advertisement this week calls attention to the fact that he has a fine line of coffins and caskets which he will sell as cheap as they can be bought in Atlanta or elsewhere. Patronize your home-folks.

In nearly every thanksgiving message you find Presidents thanking the Lord for big harvests and prosperity when short crops and adversity may be starting us in the face. Neither the farmer nor the Lord can be humbugged by any such official rubbish even from a President.—Charlotte Democrat.

Sheriff Smith will be at Coleman's Mill on Wednesday next, the 27th, and at Williamson's on the 28th, for the purpose of collecting taxes, and at Laurinburg on Friday and Saturday, the 29th and 30th. Mr. Hanson, our collector, will go along to receive new subscriptions to the Rockett and to collect back dues. Be prepared to settle with both.

Mr. Wm. Tutwiler, representing the Gaskill Literary Club of Chicago has been in our town for several days taking memberships for the Club, and has met with good success. Members of the Club can purchase books at greatly reduced prices and can get through the Club any book that is published. Mr. Tutwiler is a Virginian and is a clever, courteous gentleman.

Mr. Alexander Wadsworth, the only Mexican soldier in Moore county, will attend the Fayetteville centennial and meet his old-made-in arms. Billy Whiteley of Stanly county, Mr. Wadsworth was in Jeff Davis' regiment at Buena Vista, and he reports that the Mexican Colonel cannot be at Fayetteville next week.—Sanford Express.

Maj. S. M. Ingram, of Richmond county, is a veteran of the Mexican war and is now eighty odd years old. But we don't suppose he will be at Fayetteville.

Rev. F. L. Townsend, pastor of Rockingham Circuit, having served this charge for four years, will be sent to another field of labor by the Conference which convenes at Greensboro next week. Mr. Townsend has served his congregations faithfully and well and has a warm place in the affections of our people generally. He is a fine preacher, a thoroughly consecrated man of God, and the love and best wishes of those whom he has served will go with him wherever he may be sent.

Mr. Y. C. Morton tells us that about three years ago he lost nine out of eleven hogs with cholera.—One day a man came into his store, bought a can of oysters, ate about half of them and left the balance. At the time he (Morton) had a hog sick with cholera which had eaten nothing for a day or two, and he emptied the remaining oysters into the trough. The hog ate them, and so he cut another can, put some of Barker & Moore's Horse and Cattle Powders into the oysters and gave them to the hog. He ate them, and began to improve. The next day he repeated the dose, and the hog was soon well. He has tried it three times since with the result of a cure in each case. We give the remedy for what it is worth.

To J. T. LeG. and H. C. D. Tom McGirt has "hit the dirt." And left his "friends" a sorrowin'; They went his bail—Tom turned tail And has gone to parts quite foreign.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a purely vegetable preparation, being free from injurious ingredients. It is peculiar in its curative power.

J. R. Britt, Laurinburg, N. C., is headquarters for Buggies, and Road Carts. Handmade Harness a specialty. Write for prices.

The Institute.

The Teacher's Institute for Richmond county will begin here next Monday at 10 o'clock a. m., and continue during the week. The sessions will be held in the Methodist Sunday-school chapel, there being no other convenient place. The school law of 1889 makes it the duty of every white teacher in the county to attend the Institute during the entire session, and it is earnestly requested that the School Commissioners attend, especially on Friday, the 29th at which time Prof. Alderman will deliver an address on Education and the Public School Law. Not only are the teachers expected to attend all the sessions of the Institute, but the public generally are cordially invited to be present every day. There will be exercises to interest and instruct ALL.

The Book Reception.

At this writing we can give no programme of the entertainment at the Y. M. C. A. Hall to-morrow night. Indeed it will be a sort of informal affair, but we can promise that there will be good music, sacred and secular, some fine recitations by young ladies, interesting talks by some gentlemen, and an enjoyable time generally. Of course all who go are expected to carry a suitable book for the Association's library, but those who have no book may contribute the price of one if they see fit. No trashy novels are wanted, but any good standard novel, biography, history, travels, adventures, &c., will be gladly received. We hope to see a good turnout.

Montgomery County Items.

From the Troy Vidette. We think we can now say, without mistake, that right now Montgomery county has the richest gold mine in the United States.

Our excellent contemporary, the Fayetteville Observer, has this to say in regard to our latest railroad project. "The building of the Aberdeen & Albemarle Railroad will assuredly accomplish a splendid work in the development of a fine country with manifold and almost untapped resources. We have hardly yet more than skimmed the service of Montgomery county's mineral wealth, while a railway connection would open to the world an agricultural territory in Cumberland, Moore, Montgomery, Stanly, &c., capable of supporting ten times the present population of thirty people as well as of rendering the line traversing it one of the most profitable in the South."

Union County Chronicles.

Mr. J. D. Parker received the week's first box of oranges, shipped from Florida, the Japanese persimmons as large as horse apples.

Deputy C. H. McDaniel last Saturday seized two barrels of whiskey in White's barroom. The stamps had been used twice.

The weather this fall has been very favorable to small grain crops, and wheat and oats are looking unusually fine. The average, we learn, is also larger than usual. Dr. R. B. Watkins, a young man who was well known in Monroe, having lived here with his father about seven years ago, and was here with his wife for a short time last winter, committed suicide by taking strychnine at Hayes-od, S. C., one day last week. The only motive known for the rash act was that he had gone wrong and preferred death to the disgrace his acts had brought upon.

From the Express. Mr. J. B. McCann had fresh garden peas, gathered from his garden for dinner Tuesday. How will that do for the middle of November?

Freaks of nature are common this year. Mr. Frank Doster, of Mt. Carmel neighborhood, had a calf born recently without a sign of a terminal appendage commonly designated a tail.

Mr. T. M. Brown has just completed and shipped to Chester, S. C., a gymnasium for the Young Men's Christian Association of that place, which is a very handsome piece of work.

Very few of our citizens we suppose know that chestnuts grow and flourish in this county. On Dr. McInnis's land near Poorth, there are a number of fine trees, which produce a superior article of fruit.

The New Appointments.

The changes made in the judiciary will necessitate an election for Chief Justice in November, 1890—a year hence—and also an election for the place of Associate Justice now filled by Justice Clark; and also for the Superior Court Judgeship vacated by Judge Clark. These will be nominated by the State Convention that will be held next summer, or early next fall.—News and Observer.

We are very much pleased with the favor that has been accorded to our suggestion that the six citizens of Durham who have read the Book of Hezekiah be photographed and the pictures sold at a quarter apiece for the benefit of the Soldiers' Homes; and yet we must acknowledge that there is a great deal of force in the objection raised by the Charlotte Democrat that "it would be a headless group, for they wouldn't have the face to be photographed."—Statesville Landmark.

Hampton Excoriates Wanamaker.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 13.—Two weeks ago B. F. Clayton, an independent, was appointed postmaster for Columbia vice Wade Hampton Gibbs. Mr. Wanamaker had promised not to remove Gibbs until his term expired. The following letter from Senator Hampton, now hunting on his plantation in Mississippi, will be published:

"GLEN ALLEN, MISS., Nov. 8.

"HON. JOHN WANAMAKER: "Sir.—The enclosed extract from a South Carolina paper has caused me great surprise, for perhaps you may remember, if your memory is not treacherous, your assurance to me a few days ago that Mr. Gibbs should not be removed until the expiration of his term in February next. Not only did you do this, but you voluntarily assumed my post-office, you would, when the successor of Mr. Gibbs was to be appointed, consult me. It is a matter of small importance to me who takes the place of Mr. Gibbs, but as I informed him in passing through Columbia of the promise you had made you may perhaps understand how your action has placed me in a false position. But it is fortunate for me that Mr. Gibbs will know that I at least told him the truth, though I was previously deceived in believing what was said to me. I shall know better in the future what reliance to place on statements emanating from the same source. The newspapers state that besides managing the great department over which you preside, you are running a Sunday school in Philadelphia, and it occurs to me you might with profit to yourself select a most appropriate subject of a lecture to your pupils in the instructive story of Ananias and Sapphira. This would give a fine field for your eloquence in explaining to your young charges the importance of confining themselves to the truth except when some fancied advantage might be obtained over your political opponent. "I am your obedient servant, "WADE HAMPTON."

How Taxes Should be Levied.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 18.—The Knights of Labor spent the morning discussing the land question. The following resolutions were adopted and will appear as the fourth article in the declaration of principles: "In that the land, including all the natural sources of wealth, is the heritage of all the people and should not be subject to speculative traffic, occupancy and use should be the only title to possession of the land. The taxes upon its full value for use, exclusive of improvements." There was practically no opposition to this.

A committee of two, consisting of Mr. Powdery and A. R. Wright, was appointed to meet with the farmers in St. Louis December 5th.

He Showed His Good Sense.

Our traveling men as a rule are men of lively disposition. They make a good impression on the public by their engaging manners, but when the true gentleman with kind and sympathetic impulses and that feeling of tenderness, known only to men of the highest order is to be shown, the "drummer" is not behind his fellows. Capt. C. F. Heke, one of the most widely known traveling men in the South, writes: "I got from you a bottle of Dr. Westmoreland's Calisaya Tonic for my little brother, who had been prostrated with fever and was very weak and had no appetite. She had not used more than half the bottle before she had an excellent appetite and regained her strength with astonishing rapidity. I believe to be an excellent tonic." This Tonic is sold by Dr. W. M. Fowlkes & Co. Why will you cough when Shiloh's Cure will give immediate relief. Price 10 cts., 50 cts., and $1, at Fowlkes' drug store.

Our stock is now complete and prices so low we are bringing in customers from neighboring towns in greater numbers than ever before. This causes some of their merchants to howl out "shoddy goods," but it does not hurt our trade, because it is untrue.

A hurt child always hollers. If we were not hurting them by underselling they would say nothing about us. The tale of trashy goods, coming from those who know nothing about our stock amounts to nothing. Our customers have found we sell as good goods as anybody, and sell them lower, and Still we have the crowd with us.

We intend to keep our house as it is, not only the cheapest retail house in the county, but the cheapest in the State.
