

ell la antai Carthage, N. C.

know just how it was. They would hand, while the Colonel, similarly ting impetus of their tremendous back into the ditch. equipped, guarded the rear. They pace but the fact that Karl rode at make an attempt to escape that desperate chances of the chase ; for- until it was too late to take the fence hight. With an indifference to fa- got she was running away with her at another point. The horses went tigue, inspired by a burning desire father's servant, and that, for one of at it gallantly; Alaric made it with for vengeance. Beverly watched the them at least, death was imminent ; something to spare, but Fanny, missfront of the house all night, pistolin forgot everything in the exhibita- ing it by a hair's breadth, slipped reveal themselves As Lydia clambered unhurt out wearied about religious observances or were so well prepared for Karl that her side like one to the manner of the ravine, saw Karl, who had mere formalities. You will, therefore, understand the better that I now most e could not possibly have escaped ; born. They had been on the pike ridden back, in the act of dismount solemnly impress upon you the truth of they were wholly unprepared five minutes when Lydia, looking ing

Here is a letter from Dickens, ad

"She may not be 'all wool,' but she certainly a yard wide."-Texas Siftings.

Will regularly attend the Superior Courts never know of that long, weary during the terms of Superior Court.

JOHN W. COLE. FRANK MCNEILL COLE & MCNEILL, ATTORNEYS AT LAW. ROCKINGHAM. N. C.

Office on corner of Academy Square. Burwell, Walker & Guthrie, ATTORNEYS AT LAW. Rockingham, N.C. Office opposite the old postoffice. For Fine Sewing Machines, ATTACHMENTS, NEEDLES, SUPPLIES, And repairs of the best possible material, apply to D. T. HARGROVE, Laurinburg, N. C.

ATTENTION To Cash Buyers of General cuse. Karl had said he was not a vagabond in his own country, and Merchandise.

Having just established ourselves in or at the old stand, you will find Bund assortment of Dry Goods, Gro-Hard ware, Orockery and Glassware, Wooden ware, Hats, Shoes, &c., complete and offered at prices that will Surely Astonish You! Sought for cash, and to be sold for cash only, we can offer you superior inducements, and to verify our statement, invite you cordially to come and see for yourself and be convinced of unexcelled bargains.

Auction Sale Every Salurday

of all kinds of General Merchandise, in good order and sold from regular stock, , if you don't want at my price, you anticipation. Her duty was to Karl, The only exclusive Furniture Store in s town, Special attention is directed to in elegant line of Furniture. Bedsteads in $1.50 up; Mattresses, $2.50 up; haim, $3.50 per set up; Cane and Split-at Chamber Suits, 1 marble bureau. $17,-Other suits from $12.50 up. Wash-inds, Window Shades, Curtin Scrim, Ta-Oilcloth, all latest designs. Toilet Sets, at Racks. Cradles, Safes. Tables, Pic-res. Picture Cord and Nails, Rugs, Mats in fact, nearly every article in the Fur-ture and Dphostery line, all at bottom

A. P. STEWART. High School. Sanford, N.C.

Prepares boys and girls for Business, College, or Teaching. NON-SECTABIAN.

clares that out of every ten acres of "Yah, yah, you can," he answergrain sowed the sparrows take one. ed. 'Laric an' Black Fa it hopped a little further it would have hopped into water." Dr. Doran, in his "History of Court Fool," gives several specimen's of Heywood's rhymed epicants. Tuition for 5 months, $6.25 to $17.50. Incidental fee 50 cents. Music $15. Draw-ing $10. Painting $15. Vocal music, pen-Karl was waiting for her, she found chance was left? The stress of ny ?" Far better than the harsh treatment of Le ni zu nedicines which here bly gripe the patient it was later than she thought when thought in the attempt to devise. The Constitution of the United "Over in de pasture by de creek "Well, some time this evenin" manahip, book-keeping free. Board per month, everything furnished, $3.00. Club board cheap. Session begins January 6th, 1890. For particulars address R. B. LINEBERRY, A. B. imen's of Heywood's rhymed epi-ns. One of them is perhaps worth Dr J H McLean's Gaills and Ferer Cure, she started. It was already light some other plan was as tremendous States was not made to pretect mawant you to put Black Fanny in enough for her to see the forms of as their pace. It was getting lighter jorities. It goes upon the universalby mild get effective action will cure. Sold at 50 cents a bottle at Dr. W. M. Fowlkes. enough for her to see the forms of Karl and the horse he was holding by the bridle rudely blocked against the sky. She did not ride into the and P Onoth he "In the the stable where I can get her, an & co's drug store Principal. to-night, after they have all gone to There are many accidents and which affect stock and cause series bed, put a saddle on 'Laric and lead am I biggest, wife?" "In the waist, too." Neuralgic Persons one troubled with nervousness res-not overwork will be relieved by roun's Iron Bitters. Ge e mark and crossed red lines on wr field, but beckoned him to come on. it was the train from Lexington and are made to protect minorities. It was with infinite relief she saw it was coming towad them; in 20. That is the purpose of all constituvenience and loss to the him up the creek to that high bluff For all in waste in you, as far as I can see work, which may be n Major Garland's fiel', You'll find the use of Dr J H M Karl there. Leave the hawse with him mount from the ground with a minutes it would be at Spring sta- tions.-Det. Free Press. Send to us for Note and Letter Heads. Limmentl Get it at Well's Foul WLIG CAR DECEN though dimmed by the confession of her love for Karl, would still have been a victory but for Bev's untimely appearance. Why had she gone out there? she asked herself in an agony of self-repronch. There had been no thought of shame or fear in her mind when she went. It did not seem wrong to go. It did not seem wrong to be there as long as no one knew it but themselves. Nothing she had done was really wrong: it was simply Bev's construction of the situation that made it terrible. It seemed to her that by the mere discovery the aspect of the whole affair was changed : an act harmless in itself had become henious by being witnessed. She even thought differently of it herself new. She looked at it with the eyes of these who would judge her, and she could find for it no shadow of ex enough; and they would never

she felt it to be true ; but her father would not be so easily convinced let Karl be what he might, her tree pass was equally unpardonable in their eyes. She seemed to have no feeling left. Even the love that had been tugging at her heart with such maddening persistence all these months was crushed and voiceless. When she thought of meeting Keef again, it was only as a means of saving him from death, and escaping herself from the possibility of again meeting her father. There was not the faintest thrill of pleasure in the because it was her/fault that he was heing hunted to the death, Perhap groes. The only chance of escape turned upon Schneider, and she was by no means sure of him. At noon, when he came to dinner, she sent for him to come to the house.

"Schneider," sheasked, dubious) "can I trust you to do someth for Karl?"

the habitually stolid face.

for what did happen. It was in that behind, saw a single horseman far dim hour between day and night behind them dimly sketched upon to him. "I am not hurt, but I can't the impossibility of your going far wrong that Beverly saw a slender, darkly- the paling sky. At first she could abited figure steal out of the house not tell which it was ; but as it grew and creep stealthily across the gradually lighter she recognized her offering him her purse and a pistol and morning. These things have stood awn toward the stable lot. He lather by the color of his horse and she had cautiously secured before that I tried to render the New Testacould not fire upon it, and he could his pose in the saddle. Her surnot molest it, because he was sure it prise was equal to relief, in discovwas on its way to Karl, and it was ering that it was her father and that Karl he wanted. His only chance he was alone. She could not unwas to follow it, but he had no derstand why Bev had not come membering his previous obstinacy.

horse. If he went for the horse, he with him. If he could not get his added hurriedly, "go on, go on; 1'll would miss the direction, which he own horse, she thought he would could if you get away." He sprang, the land of John Bull, Among them is could only get by keeping an eye on have taken something else. His be- into the saddle. As they had ridden mentioned Mr. Cecil S. (The Figaro wari-Lydia. If he attempted to call the havior was inexplicable, but through on she had told him of her plan. Colonel, she would know that she it they were saved. Her father could and now as he darted away she call- ries of his wild doings. Finally gout was discovered and would mislead, not overtake them ; it was not worth ed after him, "Keep to the pike bim. Several minutes were wasted while to press the horses; all that when you have crossed this fiel'; an' in an agony of indecision, and then was necessary was to keep at a safe turn to the right at the forks." It he fired the gun in the air. The distance from him until the gray was but an instant lost, but Bey had shot was answered by a yelping mare gave out, and keep steadily on gained that much. For a moment chorus of dogs. It brought the Co- in the direction they had first taken. she looked down at Fanny with a lonel to the spot instantly, but it al- By the time they reached the point heart full of self-reproach. If she so informed Lydia that she had been she had in her mind they would had only seen that place sooner. seen. She remembered that the have left him far behind, even if he Then her eyes followed Karl, who horses had been turned into the did not give up the chase when he had taken his last fence and was capasture adjoining the lawn, and that saw that it was hopeless. She drew reering down the pike. He rode Bey's horse was very hard to catch. rein and ran at an easier gate, meas- like a centaur, and he was certainly and on the boulevards, somewhat, like She knew that if she could once get uring her pace with the accuracy of getting the utmost speed out of Ala started, nothing else could overtake a thorough knowledge of the horses ric. Close behind her there was an them, and she resolved to risk it. and what they had to accomplish.

As the Colonel came around the It was with many a deep impre she turned, Bey rose over the shoul corner of the house, she sprang over cation that Colonel Ransome recog- der of the hill and spurred past her the rock fence that inclosed the nized the two best horses on his stable lot. They could not see her place and divined the plan of the for the darkness, but they could fugitives as he saw them stacken ; hear the horse's hoofs thumping the ground as she bounded along the avenue at her utmost speed. avenue at her utmost speed. on, profane ejaculations alternating

"It's her," said Bev. "She's gone with the "prayer that Bey' might to him, an' now we'll find him." There was a sharp clatter of hoofs as she crossed the pike, and they fell again with a muffled beat as she rede into the lane. toward them, and even at that dis-"She's gone down the dirt road, said Bey. "He mus' be somewhere about the creek."

stride of Bey's favorite hunter. Her Lydia had counted correctly upon the difficulty of catching the horses. heart sank ; she leaned close to Karl With the greatest haste, it was fif- and said, "Let him go; it's Bev, and leaving home, one for Cambridge, the other for Australia, in which the father's heart and the deeper side of his nature "You will remember," he says to both. that you have never at home been and beauty of the Christian religion as "Don't stop a minute," she called it comes" from Christ himself, and if you humbly, but heartily, respect it. go on ; the mare has broken her leg. Similarly 1 impress upon you the Take this-you'll need it," she said, habit of saying a Christian prayer night by me through my life, and rememberstarting. Karl took only the pistol. ment intelligible to you and lovable to you when you were a mere baby. And "Get up mit me," he insisted. so God bless you. "He can't make it with both of "Ever Your Affectionate Father."

us." she answered ; and then, re-

But the best and most frequent speciens of an eccentric nation hail from ly suppresses the surname), who for many years made Paris ring with stoattacked him, and he was doomed to perpetual confinement at home. The ballet having always been specially patronized by him. Mr. S. started a ballet within his own four walls, where he. tept an entire stage with all that belongs to it, including costumes of every possible variety. Five or six spectators were invited to the choreographic spec-tacles, the artists in which were paid with more than princely liberality. Although Mr. S. could never set a foot outaide his house, he always retained his ten horses and four carriages, which were regularly driven about in the Bois the empty carriages seen behind a hearse. -New York Sun:

most incredibly great. The phenomenon ominous thunder of hoofs, and as Carlous Ways in a Waterfall. A Boston lawyer, returned from a trip Maine, tells of a curious phenon existing at the Livermore falls, in that like the herald of doom. As he state. At the foot of one of the dams leaned the fence, his quick eye took the descending water seems to be driven back with so much force that half way in the horse in the ditch and her up the column of water there is an ever figure standing on the brink. moving line of water like a crease in a TTO BE CONTINUED.] piece of cloth. This has an effect upon he surrounding atmosphere that is al-

A Safe Investment

Is one which is guaranteed to bring satisfactory results, or in case of failure a come at last. It was some time before Lydia looked back gaain, and return of purchase price. On this safe plan fors Lydia looked back gnain, and you can buy from our advertised Druggist when she did, she saw far behind a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for her father another horseman spurring Consumption. It is guaranteed to bring elief in every case, when used for any afrection of Throat, Lungs or Chest, such as consumption, inflammation of lungs, Bron-chitis, Athma, Whooping Cough, Croup, etc., etc., It is pleasant and agreeable to tance, and in that dim light, she could recognize the magnificent teen minutes before the Colonel was he's ridin' Selim." They could easily beat her father, the future more will be accomplishgreat regard for Heywood, who indulged in much autocious talk. Bold as were committed in England by English A gleam of animation passed ove ed to go on without Bev, who was still vainly endearoring to beguile his wary horse into the bridle. But when she reached the bluff where mounted, and then he was compellsparrows. One British farmer Fall corps of Teachers: thorough train-ing. Railroads north, east, south, and west. Healthy location. Good moral in-fluence. Law forbids the sale of intoxi-

owlkes & Co.'s Drug store

PILES! PILES! ITCHING PILES! SYMPTOMS-Moisture: intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue, tumor form which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals pleeration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists or by mail for 50 cts. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

He Paid the Penalty.

Actor. "How is this? My bill is ust twice as much as you said it would be.' Hotel Clerk. "I believe you said you were an actor, and upon these representations I gave you a reduced rate."

Actor. "Well?" Hotel Clerk, "Well, I attended the performance last night and I'm convinced that you are no actor. Nine dollars, please."-Rochester Post-Express.

If you suffer pricking pains on moving the eyes, or cannot bear bright light, and find your sight weak and failing, you should promptly use Dr J H McLean's Strengthening Eve Salve. 25 cents a bex. Sold at Fowlkes & co's drug store.

Some Mistakes of Nature

He might deny he was a dude under oath, but any fair-minded Judge would have committed him for per-

ury. a said his soils back tobe "Nothing's fixed right in this world, Cholly," he 'remarked to his Siamese twin brother without the connecting ligature. "Here I am with a neck like a prize fighter, and there's the giraffe that never wears collars at all got whole vards of it." And the pair sighed over the way nature sometimes seems to get things mixed up.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Scothing Syrap should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once, it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." is very pleasant to the taste it soothes softens the goms, allays all pain relieves wind colic, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhees, whether arising from teething or other canses. Twenty-five cents a bott

It cannot be without a somewhat nalicious feeling of satisfaction that Americans learn of the depredations is not observable at all times, but when the "wave" is visible on the falling water, objects suspended in the air at some distance from the falls are observed to vibrate perceptibly in a regular movement. The vibration, while perperceptible at the time when the "wave" can be seen, seems to stop almost in, the child stantly after the "wave" disappears, and it seems almost certain that the latter causes the former.-Boston Advertiser, taste; perfectly safe, and can always be de The Court's Fool. pended upon. Trial bottle free at W. M. John Heywood was fool to Henry VIII, having been introduced to the king by Sir Thomas More. Mary Tudor had a