A HOUSE OF MANY MANSIONS.

E. N. GUNNISON.
O house of many mansions,
Thy doors are open wide,
And dear are all the faces Upon the other side.
Thy portals they are golden,
And those who enter in,
Shall know no more of sorrow,
Of weariness, or sin.
O house of many mansions,
My weary spirit waits
And longs to join the ransomed, Who enter through thy gates.
Who enter through thy portals,
The mansions of the blest,
Who come to the assembly,
And find in thee their rest.
Thy walls are not of marble, O house not built with hands;
I sigh for thee while waiting Within these border lands.
I know that but in dying Thy threshold crossing o'er, There shall be no more sorrow In thy forevermore.

GO SOUTH FOR A WIFE.

Advice to Young Men Who Contemplate Matrimony.
BAB, in Washington Post.
Bright and piquant Marie Jansen said to me the other day: "So many good things begin with G—there's girls and gum and grace!" I added to this, "And there's gin." She said, "There's goodness." And I responded, "There's gloves and gravy." After this brilliant combination my brain succumbed. But I went away thinking about girls—I scorn gum and gravy; the first is the attribute of Mary Anderson, that beautiful statue and bad actress; the second is seldom good and when it is you eat so much you get indigestion. But the girls, the really, rightly, truly girls, are blissful. You see plenty of girls here in New York, but they are not the kind I mean. They are too awfully and intensely knowing, and it is a delight to come across the real sort of girls once in awhile.
I saw one the other day and watched her for an hour. She was looking at a play that had a heart-rending love story in it, and just enough of a laugh here and there to make life worth living. When the sweetheart was telling his love, her beautiful eyes looked full and soft, and there was a little quiver about her mouth that seemed to say "Isn't that the most exquisite thing in the world—that story of love?" And when the comic man came on and laughed with his partner, she laughed too. It was a little laugh that sparkled from her eyes, that brought out the dimples in her cheeks, and then there came a musical sound that was birdlike in its beauty. That girl saw nothing but the play while it went on, and with her face toward the stage, with so much expression in it, living with the actors, suffering and being merry with them, she was the most charming being in the whole theater.
I never ceased watching her; and then I said to somebody, "Where does that girl come from?"
"From Chicago!" said one. "Look what beautiful hair she has!"
"From Boston!" said another.
"Look at the intelligence in her face!"
"And then I said; 'Look at the romance in her eyes; look at the grace in her body as she gets up?'
"You remember what I have always told you, and what I am always quoting: 'You can't grow magnolia in Massachusetts—that girl is from the South.' There were numerous bets made about this, and later on it was discovered that, as usual (how I did glory in this), I was right; for the real girl, the pretty girl came from Louisville, and if Henry Watterson gets into the White House, she will be one of the prettiest and most graceful looking people.
Since that day I have discussed girls until I have lost all knowledge of men, and the conclusion I have come to is this: if my oldest son ever reaches the age when he should marry, which is about thirty, for before that no man knows how to take care of a woman, I shall say to him: "My son, let us go down and visit our people in the South," and then I'll pray three times a day and twice to increase my appetite for devotion, that when the procession of sons and dogs starts home, the oldest son will be engaged to be married to a Southern

PEPPER'S ANTI POVERTY BILL.

The Vice-President Gaspeth and Looked Helpless.
Correspondence New York Herald.
Senator Peffer, of Kansas, in the language of his "section" has "humped himself." Both of the Alliance apostle's whiskers tied together would not equal in length a bill he introduced to-day, abolishing vice and crime and making some use of men who foolishly hereafter accumulate more than a million dollars. William Alfred draws the life at million.
The measure was one of the unique attempts at putting more than $15 in the inside pocket of everybody in the country by legislation, expected to be offered from time to time by the Alliance statesmen.
When the Senate got it it did not know what to do with it. Vice-President Morton, who knows something about finance and parliamentary law, gasped when Peffer's effort was introduced and he heard the following title read: "A bill creating a fund for the payment of pensions and for setting out army of idle laborers at work on extensive public improvements; for the removal of the strongest incentive to crime among the poor and to vice among the rich; for protecting the American from the influx of undue alien competition and for other purposes."
The Vice-President looked helplessly at the Senate, which had fallen back in its chairs, leaving Peffer alone on his feet.
"What committee," feebly asked Mr. Morton, should this bill be referred to?"
Mr. Peffer's whiskers moved, and through them came this reply: "In view of the scope of the bill I think it would be well to refer it to the committee on agriculture."
The Senate was too stunned to refer the bill by sections, so as to give all the committees a chance at it. But finally Senator Platt had it shunted to the finance committee.
The bill is divided into thirty-nine sections.
About Free Coinage.
In answer to a question, the New York Sun says: By "free silver" is meant the free coinage of silver, the placing of silver on an equality with gold in the mints of the United States.
At present any man who has gold cannot get it coined without charge, but a man who has silver bullion must sell it to the Government, which coins it or issues certificates against it. The silver producers desire "free silver," because it will help them to have silver made a full legal tender, will provide cheap money, and help the poor. The Eastern bankers oppose it because they say it will disturb our trade with foreign countries, cause a loss of confidence, cause an outflow of gold, and a readjustment of our currency on a silver basis, which readjustment will be made only with great financial danger.

That's Right.

Maxton Union and Scottish Chief.
The party has made concession after concession to the Alliance, which is all right and proper, but it will make none to the Third party. The Democratic party is greater than the Alliance or the Third party, and it will go on in the fulfilling its destiny after the others are dead and forgotten. It will survive any temporary defeat that may ensue from the present defection, and it is better that defeat should come rather than surrender its principles.
For the cure of colds, coughs and all derangements of the respiratory organs, no other medicine is so reliable as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It relieves the asthmatic and consumptive even in advanced stages of disease, and has saved innumerable lives.

A Chicken that Killed a Child.

A correspondent of the Statesville Landmark writes the following: The most singular circumstance that I ever heard of was in the death of a little child of Jack Davis, of Gwantley township, Alexander county. The child was about a year old. It was in the yard about two weeks ago and an old rooster jumped on it and stuck its spur in the back part of the child's head. It was not thought fatal at first but the spur had penetrated through far enough to affect the child's brain, and in about a week the child died.

No Other Sarsaparilla.

No other Sarsaparilla has the merit by which Hood's Sarsaparilla has won such a firm hold upon the confidence of the people.
No other combines the economy and strength which make "100 Doses One Dollar" true only of Hood's Sarsaparilla.
No other possesses the Combination, Proportion, and Process which make Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar to itself.

POLITICAL POINTS.

The State convention of the Prohibitionists meets at Greensboro on the 24th.
Col. W. R. Morrison says that 95 per cent. of Illinois Democrats are for Cleveland.
Rhode Island Republican convention was held last week and the sentiment was in favor of Harrison. This gives him five States thus far.
For the first time in 30 years the city of Portland, Me., is Democratic.
The Transcript says it is due to the stringent enforcement of the prohibition law.
The Morganton Herald believes, under present circumstances, that Hon. S. B. Alexander, of Mecklenburg, is the man for the Democrat-to nominate for Governor.
A convention of the Democratic party of the twelfth judicial district has been called to assemble at Dillsboro-Friday, May 6, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the office of judge of said district to fill out the unexpired term of Hon. Jas.
H. Morrison, resigned.
The Republican State Executive Committee of Alabama has called the State Convention to meet at Montgomery June 22nd. At a Committee meeting resolutions were adopted endorsing Harrison's administration, and declaring him the Committee's choice for 1892.
Upon the authority of the N. Y.
Herald we state that a petition to the Democratic National Convention signed by largely over 200,000 and perhaps by 300,000 voters will be presented asking for the recognition of New York State in behalf of their candidate, Grover Cleveland.—

Specimen Cases.
S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Nouralgia and his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.
Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg, of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well.
John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at Dr. W. M. Fowlkes & Co's Drug Store.
Hon. John A. Gilmer Dead.
GREENSBORO, N. C., March 17.— Ex-Judge John A. Gilmer died at his residence in this place at 1 o'clock this morning. His health had been failing for two years but he had been confined to home limits scarcely a month. He died of Bright's disease and his end, which had been anticipated for ten days, was quiet and peaceful. He was born April 22, 1838.
Happy Hoosiers.
Wh. Timmons, Postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leake, farmer and stockman, of same place, says:
"Find Electric Bitters to be the best Kidney and Liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies." He found new strength, good appetite and feels just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c a bottle at Dr. W.
M. Fowlkes & Co's drug store.
A Fact Nevertheless.
Kinston Free Press.
"Facts are stubborn things." It is a fact that the only possible result the Third party can effect in North Carolina is to give the State over to the tender mercies (?) of the Republican party. This is a stubborn fact, and how any patriotic, reasonable man can favor a Third party we can't understand.
Confirmed.
The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs a few years ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers the California Fig Syrup Company.
Men and women prematurely gray and whose hair was falling, are enthusiastic in praising Hall's Hair Renewer for restoring the color and preventing baldness.

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.
Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

ONE : WORD.

I come to you with a small affair that you may need. In England, the Continent and many other foreign countries, myself and wares are well known. Many American families on their return from abroad bring my articles with them, for they know them pretty well, but you may not be one of these.
Confidence between man and man is slow of growth, and when found, its rarity makes it valuable. I ask your confidence and make a reference to this Journal to endorse that confidence. I do not think it will be misplaced.
I make the best form of a cure—an absolute one—for biliousness and headache that can be found in this year. The cure is so small in itself, and yet its comfort to you is so great—20 minutes being its limit when relief comes—that it has become the marvel of its time. One and a half grains of medicine, coated with sugar is my remedy, in the shape of one small pill, known to commerce as DR. HAYDOCK'S NEW LIVER PILL. It is old in the markets of Europe, but is new to North America. The price is as low as an honest medicine can be sold at, 25 cents. Send a postal card for a sample vial, to try them, before you purchase.
