THE OLD HOMESTEAD.

Let us never go back—though we long For the past, never more, never more!
All is changed, all is lost, all is dead. We Should wrong
The old house if we darken the door.
Wrong ourselves, too—our bright vanished years—
The romance of our childhood! Oh, no, Let us never return! In our sleep, through our tears,
Let us see the old home. Only so!
How we loved it—each beam and each stone
How we loved the green fields, the great trees,
And the pool, and the slow dreamy river!
What is gone,
What is left, what is changed of all these?
All is changed, all is changed—for dear Loving dead, who illumined the place, Have been laid under daisies and grass many a year!
What is home if I lacked the loved faces?
Let us never go back! The old years, The old homestead, have vanished. No more.
Shall we see them at all save in sleep, through our tears,
We shall never more darken the door.
But the sunset for ever shall gleam On the window panes, there where it stands In the wood-muffled meadows—the house of a dream,
A fair dwelling not fashioned with hands.
—William Savage.

NATIONAL PLATFORM.

Adopted by the Republicans at Minn neapolis.
We reaffirm the American doctrine of protection. We call attention to its growth abroad. We maintain that the prosperous condition of our country is largely due to the wise revenue legislation of the Republican Congress. We believe that all articles which cannot be produced in the United States, except luxuries, should be admitted free of duty, and that on all imports coming into competition with the products of American labor there should be levied duties equal to the difference between wages abroad and at home.
We assert that the prices of manufactured articles of general consumption have been reduced under the operations of the tariff act of 1890.
We denounced the efforts of the Democratic majority of the House of Representatives to destroy our tariff laws as manifested by their attacks upon wool, lead, and lead ores, the chief product of a number of States, and we ask the people for their judgment thereon.
We point to the success of the Republican policy of reciprocity, under which our export trade has vastly increased and new and enlarged markets have been opened for the products of our farms and workshops.
We remind the people of the bitter opposition of the Democratic party to this practical business measure, and claim that, executed by a Republican administration, our present laws will eventually give us control of the trade of the world.
The American people from tradition and interest favor bi-metallicism, and the Republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as standard money, with such restrictions and under such provisions, to be determined by legislation, as will secure the maintenance of the parity of values of the two metals so that the purchasing and debt-paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall be at all times equal. The interests of the producers of the country, its farmers and its workmen, demand that every dollar, paper or coin, issued by the Government shall be as good as any other. We commend the wise and patriotic steps already taken by our Government to secure an international conference to adopt such measures as will insure a parity of value between gold and silver for use as money throughout the world.
We demand that every citizen of the United States shall be allowed to cast one free and unrestricted ballot in all public elections, and that such ballot shall be counted and returned as cast; that such laws shall be enacted and enforced as will secure to every citizen, be he rich or poor, native or foreign born, white or black, this sovereign right guaranteed by the Constitution. The free and equal representation of all the people, as well as their just and equal protection under the laws, are the foundation of our Republican institutions, and the party will never relent its efforts until the integrity of the ballot and the purity of elections shall be fully guaranteed and protected in every State.

We denounce the continued inhuman outrages perpetrated upon American citizens for political reasons in certain Southern States of the Union.
We favor the extension of our foreign commerce, the restoration of our mercantile marine by home built ships, and the creation of a navy for the protection of our national interests and the honor of our flag; the maintenance of the most friendly relations with all foreign powers; entangling alliance with none; and the protection of the rights of our fishermen.
We reaffirm our approval of the Monroe doctrine, and believe in the achievement of the manifest destiny of the Republic in its broadest sense.
We favor the enactment of more stringent laws and regulation of the restriction of criminal, pauper, and contract immigration.

We favor efficient legislation by Congress to protect the life and limbs of employees of transportation companies engaged in carrying on interstate commerce and recommend legislation by the respective States that will protect employees engaged in State commerce, in mining and manufacturing.
The Republican party has always been the champion of the oppressed and recognizes the dignity of manhood, irrespective of faith, color, or nationality. It sympathizes with the cause of home rule in Ireland, and protests against the persecution of the Jews in Russia.

The ultimate reliance of free popular government is the intelligence of the people and the maintenance of freedom among its men. We therefore declare anew our devotion to liberty of thought and conscience of speech and press, and approve all agencies and instrumentalities which contribute to the education of the children of the land; but, while insisting upon the fullest measures of religious liberty, we are opposed to any union of church and state.
We reaffirm our opposition, declared in the Republican platform of 1888, to all combinations of capital organized in trusts or otherwise to control arbitrarily the condition of trade among our citizens. We heartily endorse the action already taken upon this subject and ask for such further legislation as may be required to remedy any defects in existing laws and to render their enforcement more complete and effective.
We approve the policy of extending to towns, villages, and rural communities the advantages of the free delivery service now enjoyed by the larger cities of the country, and reaffirm the declaration contained in the Republican platform of 1888, pledging the reduction of letter postage to 1 cent at the earliest possible moment consistent with the maintenance of the Post-Office Department and the highest class of postal service.

We commend the spirit and evidence of reform in the civil service and the wise and consistent enforcement of the Republican party of the laws regulating the same.
The construction of the Nicaragua Canal is of the highest importance to the American people as a measure of defense and to build up and maintain American commerce, and it should be controlled by the United States Government.
We favor the admission of the remaining Territories at the earliest practical day, having due regard to the interest of the people of the Territories and of the United States.
We favor the admission of the remaining Territories at the earliest possible moment, having disregarded to the interests of the people of the Territories and of the United States.
All the Federal officers appointed for the Territories should be selected from bona fide residents thereof, and the right of self government should be accorded as far as practicable.
We favor, subject to the homestead laws of the arid public lands to the States and Territories in which they lie, under such Congressional restriction as to disposition, reclamation, and occupancy by settlers as will secure the maximum benefits to the people.
The World's Columbian Exposition is a great national undertaking, and Congress should promptly enact such reasonable legislation in aid thereof as will insure a discharging of the expense and obligation justly thereto and attainment of results commensurate with the dignity and progress of the nation.

In temperance we sympathize with all wise and legitimate efforts to lessen and prevent the evils of intemperance and morality.
Ever mindful of the services and sacrifices of the men who saved the life of the nation, we pledge anew to the veterans of the soldiers of the republic a watchful care and recognition of their just claims upon a grateful people.
We commend the able, patriotic, and thoroughly American administration of President Harrison. Under it the country has enjoyed remarkable property and dignity and honor of the nation, at home and abroad, have been faithfully maintained, and we offer the record of pledges kept as a guarantee of faithful performance of the future.

Ah! Who Can Fathom!
N. Y. Recorder.
When he came home that night he was more drunk than usual. The drudge who called herself his wife was ironing clothes. He caught her hand and roared out:
"So you've lost a whole day, eh?
She struggled to get away, but he tightened his grip, leered at her and said:
"You do nothing but eat, and eat, and eat! When I try to correct you you cry don't you?
He pinched her arms till she screamed.
"Got any money?" he howled.
"For God's sake, Steve, leave me!
The little girl is sick. I was home tending her all day, or I would have had time to go out and hunt work." That job for the steambot will be at least a dollar.
"Send the brat out to beg!" He kicked her as she lay there on the floor. Then he closed the door with a bang and went out in the night.
The next afternoon the woman appeared before the coroner to tell what she knew of the sudden death of her husband, Steve Durand, the result of a fearful fall in the dark passage leading to the street.
She was very pale, but it was not the pallor of suffering alone.
"All I know, sir," she said in a low voice, as she took the stand "is that he came home that night, threw his arms around my neck and kissed me several times. He said he was so glad that all our hard times would soon be over. He had secured a new job, and it was to pay very well.
We were very happy. When he left me he was going down town to the grocery store to order a barrel of flour and a bushel of potatoes. But instead he went to his death. That is all I know sir."
And I say to you:
A woman's heart, all who can fathom the heart of a woman who loves, even if she lives to love in vain!

LIFE, HEALTH AND STRENGTH.
ATLANTA, GA., Feb. 17, '92.
Messrs. Lippman Bros., Savannah, Ga.
DEAR SIRS—I will write to inform you that I was afflicted with Blood Disease. I tried one bottle of "P. P. P." and it gave me relief. I was in bed seven months. I tried prominent physicians, and they could not do me any good. I saw your advertisement of P. P. P. in the Apalachicola Times, and thought I would try it.
The bottle I got to-night makes seven or eight, and oh how good I feel. I have been up ever since and at my business, lumber inspector. You may publish this if you desire.
I have informed my friends that P. P. P. is life, health and strength.

DEBENTURES, Dec. 12, 1890.
OFFICE OF J. S. ROSAMOND,
Messrs. Lippman Bros., Savannah, Ga.
CENTLEBEN—While in San Antonio, Texas last spring, I saw your advertisement of P. P. P. (Freckly Ash, Foke Root and Potassium) in the paper for the cure of rheumatism, and thought I would try a bottle. Finding such great relief from it, on my return home I had my druggist, Mr. John McCallan to order me a supply.
After taking I think ten bottles, I have not had a pain or ache since previous to that I suffered for twenty-five (25) years, and could not get the least benefit until I tried P. P. P., and therefore take pleasure in recommending it to all.
Yours truly,
J. S. ROSAMOND.

HE PASSED.

The Contribution Box Took His Last Quarter and Bled Him.
From the Street City Journal.
An old and gray-haired colored man had asked me for a small contribution to aid in finishing a church building down the street, when a young man came along and stopped short and glared at him and demanded:
"Is your name Ebenezer Davis, eh?"
"Of course it was the reply.
"Does yo' pass de contribushun box in de First Coll'd Baptist Church?"
Of co'se I does. What yo' drivin' at, bar? Hain't we done knowed each other for ten y'ars?"
"No, sah—no, sah! I hain't de honor of yo' acquaintance, sah?"
"Yo' hain't?"
"No, sah; but I desiah to repress a few facts upon yo' mind, sah. I was at de church last Sunday in company wid Miss Evelyn Jackson."
"Yes, I seed yo' boaf dar."
"Yo' was de passon who passed de box on dat occashun."
"I was."
"Yo' stopped longside o' me sah.
I hain't nuffin smaller dan a quarter, but yo' stood an' stood till everybody in de meetin' house was a lookin' at me. In odder words, sah, yo' forced me to drop in dat quarter."
"Hil I reckoned yo' was showin' off befor dat gal?"
"An' now yo' disremember my foregoin' language," continued the young man, as he pointed with his finger. "If I oder distort Miss Eeve-line to yo' church on a frequent occasion and yo' cum around wid dat contribushun box as yo' did befor', I shall feel justified in disportin' sah, such a claim as will perpetuate yo' hostility for de next few weeks.
Good day, sah!"
He walked off down street as stiff-legged as a crowbar and the old man watched him out of sight and then turned and whispered:
"Fo' de Lawd! but I's ober sixty y'ars ole an' I neber dun seed sich transparency in a diligent young man befor'!"
Ingersoll's Libel Suit Against Rev.
A. C. Dixon.
Philadelphia Press.

It is quite likely that the suit brought by Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll against the Rev. Mr. Dixon, of Brooklyn, for alleged libel may become a celebrated case. The clergyman admits uttering the words which the colonel pronounces libelous, and his defense is going to be justification.
That will raise the much disputed question in this State as to what constitutes libel, what justifies the utterances which without justification would be libelous, and what the difference is between libel and slander.
The question has not been exhaustively passed upon by our higher courts since Alexander Hamilton established in a famous libel suit at the beginning of this century the principles which have guided newspaper publication since that time.
Dixon expects to get an opinion from the highest court that it's not a libel to declare that such utterances as Ingersoll has made in addresses and his essays are blasphemous and pervert the morals of youth. Dixon says that he will take no technical advantage. He expects to have the case decided upon its merits, and to get a decision from the highest courts upon the extent to which a clergyman can criticize the utterances of an avowed agnostic.

Consumption Cured.
An old physician, retired from practice, having had pined in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to Figures for Voters.

New York Herald.
When General Garfield was chairman of the House appropriations committee, less than twenty years ago, he declared that the pension list had reached its maximum. It was then twenty-five million dollars.
The amount appropriated by the Billion Dollar Congress for 1892 was a hundred and thirty-five millions which it has been found necessary to increase to a hundred and forty-seven millions. This is an excess of thirty-nine millions over the total of 1891, which, in turn, was an increase of twenty-two millions over the aggregate of 1890.
In other words, the money sunk in pensions has been steadily and rapidly increasing in the future unless a halt is called.
Representative Enloe, of Tennessee, who has thoroughly informed himself on the subject estimates that as things are going a hundred and sixty million dollars will be called for next fiscal year, and that if Republican extravagance is not arrested a high water mark of two hundred million dollars a year will be reached.
We submit these figures to the consideration of intelligent voters.

YOUR BLOOD.
Undoubtedly needs a thorough cleansing this season to expel impurities, keep up the health and prevent disease. You should take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier and system tonic. It is unequalled in positive medicinal merit.
Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, effective, but do not cause pain or gripe. Be sure to get Hood's.
Walter Bridges, Athens, Tenn., writes:
"For six years I had been afflicted with running sores and an enlargement of the bone in my leg. I tried everything I heard without any permanent benefit until Botanic Blood-Balm was recommended to me. After using six bottles the sores healed and I am now in better health than I have ever been. I send this testimonial unsolicited because I want others to be benefited."

supported Blaine at Minneapolis, predicts "some strange developments" on the part of the negro in says that "the negro regard Cleve-as highly as they do Harrison, and that their strong phalanx of Republicanism has been badly ruptured."

Specimen Cases.
S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Va., was troubled with Nephritis and his stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.
Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well.
John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at F. W. M. Fowkes &

DEAR SIR: I purchased one of the Electropose on the 5th day of May and began using it on Mrs. Hazell, who is eighty-five (85) years old. She has had the rheumatism and asthma for twenty-five or thirty years.
She was relieved from the first application of the pose, and has greatly improved beyond our most sanguine expectations. I recommend it to the afflicted.
Believing it to be all that you claim for it, I am yours respectfully, T. M. TAPSCOTT.
You can use this in any way you may see proper.

ONE : WORD.

I come to you with a small affair that you may need. In England, the Continent and many other foreign countries, myself and wares are well known. Many American families on their return from abroad bring my articles with them, but they know them pretty well, but you may not be one of these.

Confidence between man and man is slow of growth, and when found, its rarity makes it valuable. I ask your confidence and make a reference to this Journal to endorse that confidence. I do not think it will be misplaced.

I make the best form of a curan absolute one—for biliousness and headache that can be found in this year. The cure is so small in itself, and yet its comfort to you is so great—20 minutes being its time when relief comes—but it has become the marvel of its time. One and a half grains of medicine, contained with sugar is my remedy, in the shape of one small pill, known to commerce as DR. HAYDOCK'S NEW LIVER PILL. It is old in the markets of Europe, but is new to North America. The price is as low as an honest medicine can be sold at, 25 cents. Send a postal card for a sample visit, to try them, before you purchase.
