LOCAL NEWS.

Don't fail to read our business local column.

Miss Nan Smith is visiting at Ellerbe Springs.

Maj. and Mrs. G. P. Collins, of Hillsboro, are in Rockingham.

Mrs. J. M. Smith is able to be out again, after an illness of several days.

Maj. John D. Shaw made a trip to Raleigh on professional business Monday.

Miss Nettie McAulay and Mr. Willie McRae are at Jackson Springs.

Rev. W. R. Coppedge returned Tuesday from a trip to Jackson Springs.

Mr. A. S. Dockery spent several days in Charlotte, returning Tuesday morning.

Mrs. J. R. Page's little daughter Alice, who was sick at Biscoe, is convalescing.

Mrs. J. C. Davis is on a visit to her mother at Brooklyn N. Y., who is very sick.

Misses Johnnie Wall and Patty McRae left Monday morning on a trip to Jackson Springs.

We were pleased to have a visit last week from Mr. J. W. Norvell, of the Roxboro Courier.

Telephone connection has now been made with Cheraw, S. C., by way of Bennettsville.

Prof. J. D. Koonce, principal of the Gibson school, which closed June 2nd, is in Rockingham.

Mr. H. C. Parsons, of Wadesboro, is in Rockingham visiting his brother, Mr. W. L. Parsons.

There are about thirty visitors at the hotel at Jackson Springs, and six or eight families in the cottages.

Rev. S. W. Bennett, of Monroe, will preach in the Baptist church at Roberdel next Sunday morning and in Rockingham Sunday night.

Mr. A. M. McAuley's family have moved into their beautiful new residence, recently built on Watson avenue, South Rockingham.

Work has been commenced on Mr. John Armistead's new dwelling house on Washington street, which is to be an eight-room structure.

Rev. W. R. Coppedge will not fill his appointment at Pee Dee Chapel Sunday night on account of protracted meeting in Rockingham.

Rev. A. M. Hassel begins a series of services in the Presbyterian church Wednesday night. He is a fine preacher, and every body should hear him.

The Masonic Lodge elected the following officers Tuesday night: W. J. Fulford, W. M.; W. S. Fowkes, S. W.; Geo. S. Steele, J. W.; W. P. Steele, Treasurer; John A. Baker, Secretary.

Mrs. Emma Norman Jones, now of Benson, Johnston county, passed through Rockingham Tuesday evening enroute for Steele's Mill on a visit to her parents. She is just from Blacksboro Va., and was accompanied by her father Mr. Norman, who went as far as Petersburg to meet her.

Mrs. F. E. Kellar arrives from York, Pa., Saturday night to join her husband, who located in Rockingham last fall.

Third Quarterly Conference for Rockingham station will be held next Sunday and Monday. The sacrament will be administered at the morning service on Sunday.

Mr. Frank Terry, of Darlington, S. C., visited relatives in Rockingham the first of the week. He made the trip from Darlington here, fifty-seven miles, in one day on a bicycle.

Jackson Springs church was beautifully decorated for the marriage of Miss Ida Cole to Mr. A. C. Ray last Wednesday evening and there many present to witness the happy event. Miss Janie Clark played the Wedding March, as the bridal party entered the church.

Rev. Chas. Fetter, Episcopal minister of Wadesboro, held services in Odd Fellows hall Sunday morning. We are informed that this congregation expects to hold their next services in their own church, which they expect to have completed by that time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Watson of Thomasville, Ga., spent several days in Rockingham the past week on a visit to Mr. Watson's brother, Mr. H. C. Watson. We are pleased to note the great success with which Mr. Watson has met since he left Rockingham about fifteen years ago. He has an extensive turpentine business which has proven very profitable. He also has a model stock farm and a number of very fine thoroughbred horses. While here he received an offer by wire, which he accepted, of $3,500 for one of his horses.

What came very near being a serious accident, but which fortunately turned out without very serious results, occurred at the depot bridge last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Gardner, the clever, typo of the Anglo-Saxon, and Miss Maude Davis were out driving and were going at a pretty good speed when they reached the bridge at the foot of the hill, when the hub struck the center partition of the bridge, which brought the buggy to such a sudden stop that Miss Davis was thrown out on the bridge and Mr. Gardner, with due gallantry, followed. The horse then backed and stepped on Miss Davis before she could get out of the way.

We are not indulging in any philosophy to arrive at an explanation of the accident. Enough to know that the young lady is not seriously injured, and that Mr. Gardner's injuries are entirely mental. We may add that we have had a number of suggestions that the partition in the bridge ought to be removed, as it serves no good purpose and that it has caused accidents before.

Former Resident of Rockingham killed by a Train.

A week or so ago the Charlotte papers contained an account of a young man being found dead on the railroad track about six miles from Charlotte. He had letters in his pocket addressed to "J. D. Scarborough, Spartanburg, S. C." The father of the young man got hold of a paper containing the account and believing it to be his son who had left home a short while before, he went to Charlotte last Friday to investigate, and found without doubt that it was his son who had been killed. The family recently lived in Rockingham and were employed in one of the cotton mills. The young man was about 17 years of age. His father thinks that as he had a watch and $10, which were missing, he may have been murdered and placed on the track.

SAMPLE COPIES.

We send papers' this week to a good many people who are not subscribers, and trust they will give it a careful perusal. It goes to them as an invitation for them to subscribe. The Anglo Saxon company is endeavoring to publish a paper that will appeal to the support of every reading man in Richmond county. It is giving a larger quantity of specially prepared reading matter than any other paper in the county has ever done. No matter how many other papers you may take, we want you to take the Anglo-Saxon. If only one paper is taken we want that to be the Anglo-Saxon, and therefore we attempt to cover the general newspaper field. In addition to the large amount of space given to the chronicling of local events, which is our first work, we endeavor to give such a comprehensive review of passing events on the outside world as will at least keep the reader posted on the most important happenings of the day, whether he gets the daily papers or not. We also attempt to give such discussions of political questions, from other pens as well as our own, as will give up-to-date information as to the progress of the political world. Add to this a little fiction and a little folly now and then and our case is made up. One dollar will bring it to you 50 times.

175 to 8.

Was the Vote for Water Works for Rockingham.

The beautiful hills surrounding the progressive town of Rockingham will be the sentinels of a future city, and Rockingham will be its name.

It is beautiful for situation and has natural advantages unsurpassed, and the progressive spirit of the men who have won supremacy in the great cotton manufacturing industry, who have made "Rockingham A's" and "Pee Dee Plaids" household words all over North Carolina and many other parts of the South, together with the substantial, industrious and enterprising citizenship which their industry has drawn around them, will never be content with present accomplishments.

The practically unanimous vote by which the Board of Aldermen were instructed to issue bonds to put in a good water works system is significant. 175 to 8. It shows that our citizenship is practically unanimous in its desire for the improvement and advancement of the public interest.

With this splendid endorsement of their efforts the town authorities will push the matter of selling bonds and putting in the water works system as rapidly as possible. They have the assurance of the State chemist that the supply of water to be used is pure and of very good quality.

First Cotton Blossom.

The first cotton blossom of the season was brought in last Friday afternoon. It came from Maj. H. C. Wall's Wolf Pit farm. This is the first we have heard of in the State this year.

LATER.—Mr. Geo. Thomas, of Malee, was in Rockingham Monday and gave us a call. It is the first time he has been in Rockingham in about three years. He said he mailed us a cotton blossom last Thursday, but for some reason it failed to get here till Tuesday night.

STILL ANOTHER.—By Monday evening's mail we received a blossom from Mr. Daniel Locklear, of Hoffman, which he writes was taken from his field on last Saturday.

AND YET ANOTHER.—Mr. E. F. Richardson sent us by Tuesday morning's mail from Powelton, a blossom picked from his farm on W. F. Brookshire's Alsbrook place.

Stockholders' Meeting.

Stockholders' meetings of Roberdel, Pee Dee and Great Falls Cotton Mills were held in Rockham yesterday.

We note the presence of the following non-resident stockholders: Messrs J. C. Little, Little's Mills.

Hon. Platt D. Walker, Charlotte. John Winder Atkinson, Wilmington.

Messrs. R. E., J. R. and L. L. Little of Anson.

Maj. G. P. Collins, Hillsboro.

Death of Oldest Man in Richmond County.

We failed to hear in time for our last issue of the death of Mr. J. S. Watson, better known perhaps as "Uncle Jimmie" Watson, who died at his home near Hoffman about ten days ago of dysentery. The deceased was probably the oldest man in Richmond county and would have been 91 in November next. He was a man of many strong traits of character and of strictest integrity.

A Type of McKinley Prosperity in the South.

The contractor for carrying the United States mail from Rockingham to Bostick's Mill is boarding in Rockingham at Bro. Wright's hotel free of charge, but at the expense of the people. I do wish the authorities at Washington could see the old rig and the mule employed in carrying the mail, the old mule having the appearance of being fed on whiskey barrels and carried with an iron tooth rake. The salaries of contractors and carriers are so low that none of the Anglo Saxon race will take the job. Consequently a negro takes the job for his board and tobacco twice a day, and short at that. The old mule is an expert kicker. He can kick a hat off your head and not touch a hair. The patrons of the different postoffices along the above named line get their mail whenever Bill Pickett and his co-laborers see fit to bring it, whether it be 11 a. m. or 3 p. m., and part of the time not at all. It makes no difference how important the mail is. Bill Pickett is boss of this job. HOPZ.

PEE DEE MILL NOTES.

We are sorry to note the death of the infant child of Mr. William Northern. The family have the sympathy of the Pee Dee people in their bereavement.

Misses Flay Shaws and Maggie Pitman left Saturday to spend Sunday in Anson county.

We see that the boys of the Mountain Island cotton mill in their game of baseball with the St. Mary's College boys just completely shut them out, as the Charlotte boys did not get even one run. That, we think, is very good for the mill boys. The superintendent told the boys when they asked him to stop the mill that if they would shut out the St. Mary's boys he would stop, and they promised they would if possible. So the mill stopped and they scored 5 to 0, and the superintendent, Mr. Jordan, was said to be the happiest man in Charlotte on that day and that he almost idolized the boys. We think this commendable in Mr. Jordan, as it shows that while he is superintendent he appreciates his help and is appreciated by his help.

Gardens are looking fine around Pee Dee and we are being blessed with good seasons.

Several of our boys and girls went out to Ellerbe Springs Sunday and, we presume, had a good time, as it was a beautiful day. Just pleasant. Harness and buggies were in demand and several had to be denied as they were about all out for the day.

It is often said that North Carolina has more mills and consumes more cotton than South Carolina. We heard an argument on this recently. Here are the latest statistics for the four highest Southern States: South Carolina has ninety-four mills, 1,308,000 spindles and consumes 378,000 bales of cotton per year. North Carolina 180 mills, 1,018,000 spindles and consumes 332,000 bales of cotton per year. Georgia, 81 mills, 765,000 spindles and consumes 259,000 bales of cotton per year. Alabama has 45 mills, 381,000 spindles and consumes 101,000 bales of cotton. So it will be seen that North Carolina has the most mills, but South Carolina has the largest mills which gives them most spindles and they consume more cotton.

POWELTON DOTS.

MR. EDITOR: As I haven't seen anything in your paper from this section I will give you a few dots.

Crops are looking very promising in this section. Most of the farmers are about through harvesting and report crops very good.

Mr. C. T. Mills, of this section, is quite sick this week, on account of getting overheated. He is improving.

Mr. W. S. Loudermilk, of Durham College, N. C., has returned home to spend the summer.

Miss Lena Hadley, of Powelton, made a trip to Anson county to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. Mary Watkins.

Most of the people around Powelton attended a fish fry at Coleman's Mill last Saturday and report a nice time.

Mr. C. C. Capell reports that he found a cotton bloom June 14th, the first that has been seen in this section this year.

Mrs. W. W. Brookshire, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Julia Page, of Raleigh, have returned home.

I noticed where the Rattler says there is a young coon in this section still out of a job. I don't think he wants a job. I don't think he is worth his name Coon. I think you will have to name him over. Best wishes to the Anglo-Saxon. HUSTLER.

GREAT FALLS DOTS.

Men will steal meat. Mr. Moses Williams and Miss Laura Tolbert ran away and married at Roberdel by Rev. Mr. Byrd Sunday.

Mr. E. A. Holt, our boss carder, will leave this week for China Grove, where he will take charge of the card room. Our best wishes go with him. A SUBSCRIBER.

"A prudent man," says a witty Frenchman, "is like a pin. His head prevents him from going too far."

ROBERDEL ITEMS.

General Green is waging war upon the farmers and gardeners of this section.

Mrs. Eliza McDonald, mother of Mrs. Maggie Crouch died at her daughter's home on Wednesday evening of last week.

Mr. Louis O'Brien was right sick Sunday and Monday.

Mr. W. F. Garris has been on the sick list for several days.

The Loafers' Club at a recent meeting adopted anti-expansion resolutions with a whoop.

The Roberdel Mfg. Company is preparing to erect a brick building between the main building and the Beaming building, which will give them much more room, which is badly needed as every department is crowded to its fullest capacity.

Rev. Greaves preached at the Baptist church on Sunday morning and Rev. Basmajian at night.

Sheriff Wright was here Sunday attending services at the Baptist church.

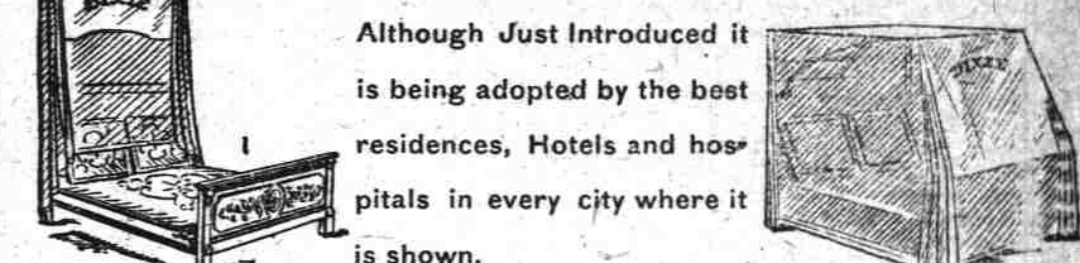

Mr. E. C. Terry was quite sick Sunday.

Our people were sorely disappointed over their mail last week. For several days we got none. Contracts should be let to parties that can carry it and they ought to be paid enough to furnish something to carry it with. It does no good to grumble because the headquarters are away yonder in Washington and Bill Pickett is here in jail and the old mule is in the last stage of starvation. Confound the whole fix.

We have had occasion to mention a disagreeable place in the road at East Side cemetery, hoping that the overseer would be so kind as to look after it. We don't know who the overseer is on this part of the road but we are inclined to think that he is neglecting his business most confoundingly. That stinking fever hole should be filled in. A few loads of dirt and straw would fix it, and it would only require a few hours. Somebody please make a move before the road supervisors or county commissioners find it out. A stitch in time saves nine. X-RAY.
