LOCAL NEWS.

Cotton 74.

We are forced to leave out a lot of local matter this week by giving place to more general news.

Messrs G. A. Martin, Grover Lowry, S. Gardner and Dr. R. S. Ross, Murven, attended court at this place Tuesday.

Mr. S. M. Cole, of Old Hundred, has moved to Laurel Hill, and has been appointed postmaster at that place.

Hon. Hectar McLean, Scotland's popular Representative, is in Rockingham. It is his first visit since the last campaign.

The visiting attorneys here this week are: J. A. Lockhart, Wadesboro and W. H. Neal, J. D. Shaw, Jr., Maxy L. John and W. H. Cox, Laurinburg, T. C. Guthrie, Charlotte, ex-Judge James D. McIver, Carthage, N. A. McLean and A. W. McLean, Lumberton.

The chrysanthemum show which was to have been held Tuesday night last, had to be abandoned because the recent storm spoiled the flowers. We understand that it is the purpose to have a flower show "free for all" next fall, so that its success will not depend upon chrysanthemums alone.

During the fire last Tuesday night of last week there was a good deal of stealing done, some idea of the extent to which it was carried on money being gained from the fact that Messrs. W. A. Porter & Co., whose large stock of shoes was dumped in the street, have 180 pairs of odd shoes in their stock now, which can not be accounted for any other way than that the mates to them were stolen. It is very disgusting to see human depravity asserting itself upon such occasions.

Mr. V. B. Covington left last Saturday for Scott, Arkansas. He goes there to take charge of a 60 horse farm of Mr. T. W. Steele, of that place who is a son of Col. T. W. Steele, who has relatives here. Mr. Covington is an experienced agriculturist, having for some years had charge of the late H. C. Wall's large farm near Steele's Mill. His family will remain here till after Christmas, when he will return here on a visit, and if by that time he is pleased with Arkansas he will complete his arrangement for making that his home.

"Everybody's Birthday Party."

The ladies of the M. E. Church gave a "Birthday Party" at the house of Dr. J. M. Stansill last Friday night, which proved an unusually pleasant occasion. Every one was expected to contribute

"As many round pennies As years you are old, We hope they are many!" etc. And a good sum was collected for the benevolent object in view, to say nothing of the "conscience money" which was probably sent in later. A dainty supper was served and there was musical entertainment by Mrs. H. S. Ledbetter, Miss Annie Cole, Prof. King and others.

Commissioners Proceedings. The Board of County Commissioners met in regular session Monday and continued in session Tuesday. Present, Chairman McRae and Commissioners Terry and Little.

H. D. Gibson made report of marriage license for the eleven months ending November 1st, 1899. He issued 144 marriage licenses during this time and exhibited receipts for the funds.

A number of orders were made in regard to errors and inaccuracies in the tax list.

The usual batch of accounts were allowed including the expenses incurred in handling the small pox case on J. M. Hines place. The Board has given very thorough attention to these claims and the accounts allowed are as follows:

Ken Cox, " 5.72
J. J. Elliott, " 10.00
Ben Pinion, " 7.50
J. M. Hines, feeding 8 inmates of pest house 21 days and other expenses, $48.63.

ONE KILLED, TWO WOUNDED.

A SMALL AFRICAN WAR IN EAST SCOT. LAND.

George Brown insisted that "the Yaller Gal was his'n." Gets Killed, Shoots his Assailant Who also Mortally Wounded a Third Party.

There was a little African war about 4 miles below Laurinburg, in Stewartsville township, Sunday night.

John Cook and Cora McMillan, as sweethearts are prone to do, started to preaching on Sunday night. They were soon overtaken by George Brown, who asked for a conference with Cora. Unanimous consent was given, the conference was had, the couple proceeded on their peaceful and conjugal mission. This same experience was repeated before they had gone much further and a third time Brown came up with his hand in his pistol pocket. Then it was that Cook drew a pistol and fired at Brown. The shot missed him and struck and mortally wounded Shedrick Wood, who was coming up behind with Louisa McMillan, a sister of Cora. Then followed a pistol duel between Cook and Brown in which Brown was instantly killed and Cook was perhaps mortally wounded, receiving two wounds. The first ball struck his left cheek and glanced off. The second penetrated his back.

The information we get is that there is no hope of Wood's recovery and that Cook's is very uncertain. Coroner Gay went down there Monday morning and summoned the following jury for inquest: D. A. Paterson, R. R. Covington, S. J. Jones, G. M. Kirk, D. H. McDonald. They took evidence which showed a state of facts substantially as told above and rendered a verdict that Brown came to his death by a pistol shot from Cook.

Cook was not taken under arrest because of his critical condition but a warrant for his arrest was sworn out Tuesday morning, and a guard placed at the house to secure his confinement. Since the above was written we hear that another one of the darkies has died, but did not learn which one it was.

Say boys, when you go to carry your best girl to a little social don't carry your rival with you, if you do you'll get left and it might cause you to collide with log wagons again. one of the boys who went to Florida, some time ago, has returned, the other stopped at Star; this is the way Florida boys do.

The Late J. L. Walsh.

Mr. Walsh has many friends here who will be saddened to know of his untimely death. He was a thorough gentleman and made friends wherever he went.—Monroe Journal.

He was a most popular young man and made friends wherever he was known. His greatest delight was in doing something to accommodate a friend. Never was there a more unselfish man. About four months before his death Mr. Walsh made a profession of religion and died in the Christian's faith. He was thirty-two years old. Peace to his ashes.—Monroe Inquirer.

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefit they have received from it, of bad colds it has saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine. For sale by S. Riggs.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

WILLIAM RASCO TRIAL CONTINUED TO NEXT TERM.

A Number of Cases on Criminal Docket Disposed of—From Hymenial Altar to County Jail—Check Forger gets 8 years—Civil Docket Taken Up.

The November term of Richmond Superior court convened in the court house Monday morning. His Honor Judge Timberlake presiding and Solicitor McLean representing the State.

The following were drawn as grand jurors: William Gay, Nelson McCaskill, H T Webb, T C Caple, Nelson Gibson, J C New, A T Hulsehinson, T O Cole, J L McLauchlin, H A McIntyre, Wiley Dawkins, John H Dawkins, R C Adams, H M Marks, Stephen Wall, Anderson Guinn, C G Chance.

Stephen Wall was sworn as foreman and W A Graham as officer grand jury.

John LeGrand exhibited to the court his license to practice law, and the oath was read and taken.

Cases on the criminal docket were taken up and disposed of as follows:

State vs. Ned Murphy, larceny, plead guilty, judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. Tracy Moore, larceny of wood, verdict not guilty.

State vs. Alex Sparks, carrying concealed weapons, plead guilty.

State vs. Alex Sparks, larceny of a gun. Verdict not guilty.

State vs. J. W. Yates tearing up and obstructing railroad track of the Hoffman & Froy railroad. Verdict guilty. This case had not been finally disposed of when our report closed.

State vs. Frank Dockery, Jim Bostick and Eldred Buck, carrying concealed weapons. Dockery and Buck plead guilty and judgment suspended on payment of costs. Nol pros as to Jim Bostick.

State vs. Gilmore and Murdock Butler, larceny, not guilty.

FROM HYMENIAL ALTAR TO COUNTY JAIL.

State vs. S. A. McEachern, forgery, verdict guilty, sentenced 4 months in the county jail. McEachern is a colored school teacher. He taught a public school without authority of committee. As a compromise they committee signed a voucher for him for Ten Dollars. He tried to make the ten read twenty, but made a bad job of it. He tried to get Superintendent Walsh to cash it but Mr. Walsh was suspicious of it and only paid him $4.00 down on it, the amount he said he was "just obliged" to have to get "a pair" of marriage license with and get home on. Mr. Walsh was to send him a check for the balance. An investigation proved that he had changed the voucher as indicated above. He was married about a week ago and was arrested the next day and placed in jail. It was shown that the negro had borne a good reputation previous to this, and the parties behind the prosecution recommended him to the mercy of the court. This consideration, with probably a mental reservation in favor of the excuse that he had "married a wife," influenced the judge to impose the light sentence of four months in jail.

State vs. Jno Williams, larceny, not guilty.

State vs. Lewis Roper, removing crop without permission, not guilty. The case of State vs. Will Sweet, murder was not proseed. He was charged with killing his wife who died in Marlboro, S. C., some months ago. The coroner's jury of that county decided that she died from injuries inflicted by Sweet in this county some months before. A true bill was found in this county on papers from that county, but the attendance of witnesses could not be secured, and the case had to be nol prossed.

THE CHECK FORGER.

The case which has been on docket some time against Samuel Ford, charged with false pretense in passing a fraudulent check on Mr. J. F. Caudle, was taken up Wednesday morning. The case for the State was completed by the presence of an officer of the Statnton, Va., bank on which check was drawn, and he was promptly convicted. The jury wasn't out two minutes. It appearing that he is a professional swindler, he was sentenced to 8 years in penitentiary. He is 62 years old and gray-haired.

This case was the last tried on the criminal docket this term.

The court is on civil business as we go to press.

THE RASCOE CASE.

The grand jury found a true bill against William Rascoe for the wilful and malicious murder of John Taylor at Gibson. The case was continued for defendant, who is represented by Maj Shaw. W. H. Neal will assist the State.

Later—Court adjourned for the term Wednesday afternoon. Sentence of Samuel Ford reduced to 4 years in the pen.
