Yours Truly,
THE ANGLO-SAXON CO.

Strange how folks will state a thing exactly opposite some times. For instance, the Richmond Times, congratulating the country on the gold standard measure now being railroaded through Congress, says that it gives notice to the world that we intend to pay our obligations according to the contract, when the one aim and end of the aforesaid measure is to provide for the payment of our obligations entirely contrary to the terms stipulated in the contract. And it will not give any honest man any better opinion of our honesty because the measure is in the interest of our creditors. It is none the less robbery because the people are robbed for the benefit of our bond holders than it would be if the bond-holders were robbed for the benefit of the people. This bill declares that every government obligation shall be payable in gold. This government has never in all its history written a contract payable in gold. The great bulk of our public debt, created in the 60's, was subject to be paid in a depreciated paper currency.
After the war the bondholders had a bill passed making them payable in "coin." Now they are made to read payable in "gold coin." Is that according to contract? It is the greatest robbery of modern times. We need not go back to war times to get an idea of its immensity.
Take a single bond issue under Cleveland's last administration.
He did not have authority to sell bonds payable in gold. In a special message to Congress he asked that the authority to sell gold bonds be given him, giving as his reason that he could sell them at a higher price if to be paid in gold than if to be paid in "coin" as the law provided.
Congress refused. He sold the bonds for $16,000,000 less than they would have brought if made payable in gold. Now the Republicans make them payable in gold only, which is a clear robbery of $16,000,000 on this one bond issue and that a recent one. What will it amount to on the entire public debt? The Republican party is perhaps suffering some remorse of conscience because it depreciated one of the metals in which our obligations are payable, and overleaps itself in this drastic remedy. They are giving a new meaning to Mr.
Bryan's cross of gold.

Pritchard wants the Senate to declare that if we adopt the amendment we won't have a "Republican" government in this State. That's "surplusage," Senator. We haven't got that now (the Lord be praised for his mercies) outside the jurisdiction of the Supreme court, and we propose to revise that at the earliest opportunity.

Vance won the love of his people and the respect and esteem of his colleagues by defending the honor and integrity of his people in the forum of the Senate, Pritchard succeeded him there as the accredited representative of this State, and instead of raising his voice in our defense he asks that body to offer insult to his people.
What a contrast!
