Don't neglect to have good old Santa Claus come to see you on the appointed time, and come down the chimney in the good old way. It's just as new and delightful to the little ones now as it was to you—well, many years ago. He's not a myth, anyway, as so many thoughtlessly believe, for it is a real joy and gladness that he distributes all over the juvenile world and a myth could not do that.

Samuel Ford, the check forger convicted at our last term of court, will now begin serving his sentence of four years in the penitentiary. After he was convicted and sentenced and carried back to jail he wrote a note to Judge Timberlake, which he intended as a plea for mercy of the court, but which the Judge understood to be a request for an appeal, and although there was not the slightest grounds for an appeal, the Judge granted the order. His case came up before the Supreme Court Monday and was dismissed on motion of the Attorney General. He will now be carried to the penitentiary.

MISS MOORE AND MR. EVERETT TO WED.

Attractive invitations have been issued as follows: "Dr. and Mrs. William H. Moore request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Lillie Marion, to Mr. James LeGrand Everett, on Wednesday evening, January 3, 1900, at 8 o'clock, Methodist Episcopal church, South, Rockingham, N. C."

The marriage will be one of the most brilliant social events of the season, as both of the contracting parties are well known and much liked throughout the State. Mr. Everett is a son of Capt. W. I. Everett, president of Great Falls Manufacturing Company, a most efficient young business man, being secretary of the Robberdel Manufacturing Company, and quite prominent in business and social circles. Miss Moore is the lovely and accomplished daughter of Rev. W. H. Moore, D. D., has a host of friends and is universally admired by all who know her.

A Library for Rockingham.

Mr. Chas. S. Henning, of Nashville, Tenn., has been in town during the present week in the interest of the Parmelee Library Co. He is securing a list of members for the purpose of making our town one of the stations of their great system of traveling libraries. We are glad to announce that the membership has been secured and the library will be here about the first of January. This something which Rockingham has been needing for a long time and it will be greatly appreciated by all who enjoy good books.

PEE DEE MILL NOTES.

Bud Milton and family have gone on a two weeks visit to Alamance county to see his parents and friends.

Mr. Henry Lyles has gone to Pee Dee station for a short time to recuperate his health.

Hog killing is all the go now, and we are informed that a man on Pee Dee village killed two hogs a few days ago that were so small that two boys of 5 years each could hold the gambling sticks while they were being dressed. This is what we have heard, and we would like to hear if it is so.

We will soon hear the Christmas bells ringing, but we have not heard of any wedding bells yet. Very seldom it is that a Christmas passes at Pee Dee without a wedding, but it seems likely to be so this time.

Well Xmas will soon be here, the day of the Yule log and mistletoe, and plum pudding, turkey, etc. Every country has its own way of celebrating Xmas. The Yule log had its origin in the Scandinavian feast of Yul when they burned huge bon fires in honor of Thor. We discover the descendants of the Norsemen are doubtless responsible for the custom in England. They carefully preserved half of the log to be burned at the next Yule tide, and so we have the old English proverb put in poetical form:

"Part must be kept wherewith to tend The Xmas log next year, And where 'tis safely kept the fiend Can do no mischief here." This goes to show that the custom was to burn half and keep half of the log till the next year as they called it good luck.

"Democracy" wishes to say to you all that he hopes you will have a merry Xmas and happy New Year, as it has been his pleasure to spend many Xmases, several in his own country and several in his adopted country, and it is a glorious day in all civilized countries, and in writing this my mind wanders back to under the mistletoe of nearly fifty years ago,

When the bright Xmas fires are glowing And the fields are white with snow, Down beside the fair river Irewell, There comes back the long ago, From halls and gilded castles Do I longing flee again To the by-gone dreams of childhood 'Mid the hills of Lancashire.

And I will close by saying that no race on earth enjoys Christmas like the Anglo-Saxon.

"Christmas Give."

"Christmas Give."

These are the words that make every heart glad. We all expect to give and receive when Christmas comes. Everybody has a friend or relative, brother or sister, wife or child, or that dear old mother or father, whose heart would be gladdened by some token of appreciation—a christmas present, let it be small or great. Now we are all puzzled to know what to buy and where to buy it.

You Can Find it at J. T. West's

Furniture store. We have the handsomest line of Reed Rockers Cushion Rockers, Morris Chairs, oak and mahogany rockers ever shown in Rockingham.

We have just received a big lot of 10 and 12 piece toilet sets the beauty of which is untold. Just step in and look through our crockery, china and fancy goods department. We venture there has never been such a line of goods shown in a town of this size as we have put before you.

COME QUICK

While you have a big assortment to select from, as these goods are going very rapidly, we have a beautiful line of pictures, taken from real life, in large handsome frames. Also a choice selection of medalions, large and small sizes.

Don't Fail to See Our Line of Buffets,

Sideboards, Hall Racks, Chiffoniers, Wardrobes, etc. If you don't want to buy to-day you may want to buy to-morrow.

We are at your service. Call in when you feel like it, and make your calls often. We'll be glad to see you.

Yours for business,

J. T. WEST.
