

GOEBEL SUCCEMBED; PEACE NOW IN SIGHT

Democratic Governor Passed Away at Frankfort. PARTY LEADERS CONFER

Both Sides Seem to Be Sincerely Trying to Adjust Trouble—Taylor Refuses to Revoke Order Convening Legislature at London.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 5.—William E. Goebel, who was shot by an unknown assassin last Tuesday, died at 6 o'clock Saturday evening. The only persons present at the death-bed were Governor Goebel's sister, Mrs.

WILLIAM E. GOEBEL, Bruckner, and his brother, Arthur Goebel, of Cincinnati, who have been in constant attendance at Governor Goebel's bedside.

Justice Goebel, another brother, who has been hurrying from Arizona as fast as steam would carry him in a vain hope of reaching his dying brother in time for some token of recognition, arrived 40 minutes too late.

Among bitter partisans of both parties deep grief is manifested, and already a movement has been started to erect a fitting monument for Governor Goebel's memory on the spot in the same one hour where he was shot. Twenty-one hours after the death of Mr. Goebel J. C. W. Beckham as governor of the state, the cabinet administered by S. J. Shackelford, clerk of the court of appeals.

Governor Taylor today gave an emphatic denial to the report that he had revoked the order convening the legislature at London, Ky., and ordering the legislature to sit at Frankfort tomorrow. He made a written statement to this effect, and afterward, in an interview with an Associated Press representative, he said:

"At the present moment there is no turning back. The legislature will convene at London, where it will continue to sit unless there is a change of policy in the future not yet determined upon. Adjutant General Collier this morning would not say whether or not the legislature would be permitted to meet, but called special attention to the fact that since Saturday no demand had been made by the members of the legislature for the right to meet. He would not be molested, saying that it was ample time to decide what to do with the demand for admission to the grounds had been made.

It is believed both sides are sincerely trying to find a basis on which negotiations for a peaceful settlement may be conducted. A desire on both sides to make advantageous terms is but natural and the leaders are proceeding cautiously. The differences between the camps taken by the two parties are radical that progress necessarily slow, but the events at Frankfort within the past 24 hours have made for peace and an amicable adjustment of the trouble respected.

Governor Taylor's statement that the order convening the legislature at London has not been revoked is not regarded by those who know the nature of the latest peace negotiations as lessening the chances of such an adjustment.

Governor Taylor Enjoined. FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 5.—Judge Cantrell of the circuit court this morning granted a temporary injunction restraining Governor Taylor from interfering with the meetings of the legislature and from removing the seat of the legislature to London, Ky. The temporary injunction is to remain binding until Feb. 8, when the hearing to make it permanent will be heard before Judge Cantrell at Georgetown, Ky.

M. Kirby Keeps Hands Off. WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—After the cabinet meeting today the following statement was made: "The president has decided that no cause has yet arisen to justify the intervention of the national government in Kentucky, and has so informed the governor." Some significance may attach to the use of the word "governor" in this statement inasmuch as the reply was directed to Taylor.

Goebel Sworn Into Office. FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 1.—William Goebel was, shortly before 9 o'clock last night, sworn in as governor of Kentucky and J. C. W. Beckham a few minutes later took the oath of lieutenant governor. The oath was administered to both men by Chief Justice Haskett of the court of appeals.

A Jours the Legislature. FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 31.—Governor Taylor this morning issued a proclamation declaring that a state of insurrection existed in Kentucky, and particularly in the city of Frankfort, and because of this he adjourned the legislature to meet at London, Laurel county, on Feb. 6.

Petition For Injunction. FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 2.—The Democratic attorneys this morning filed with Judge Cantrell in the Franklin county circuit court a petition asking for an injunction to restrain Governor Taylor from interfering with the meetings of the legislature.

TAYLOR REFUSES TO RATIFY AGREEMENT

Governor Says He Wants Time to Consider It.

LOUISVILLE CONFERENCE

Seven Republicans and as Many Democrats Sign a Paper Which May Bring About a Settlement—Beckham to Be Chief Executive.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 6.—Governor Taylor has refused for the time being, at least, to sign the agreement reached last night in Louisville. He was closeted for a long time this morning with General Daniel Lindsay, T. L. Edelen and T. H. Baker of Louisville, and finally told the gentlemen that he wished time to consider and would let them know when he had reached a decision. Mr. Baker, after leaving the conference, was asked his opinion of the probable result and replied:

"I hope and believe that everything will be settled peaceably."

The others expressed a similar opinion, although all of them stated that they were giving personal opinions and not speaking in any sense for Governor Taylor.

The news of the agreement reached last night in Louisville was received with great relief in Frankfort. The strain of the last ten days has been very great and any lessening of tension was most welcome to members of both parties. Not a single member of the legislature, Democratic or Republican, is in the city and none are expected before late in the afternoon or tomorrow.

Governor Taylor refused to discuss the agreement until it had been brought to him. He said it was neither right nor courteous for him to do so. He, however, made the assertion that if the Goebel law was repealed and an election law given to the people of Kentucky which would insure a fair and honest election, he would not stand in the way of a peaceful adjustment of the troubles.

It was 10:30 o'clock before Judge Yost and Mr. Sweeney, the Republican Democratic party representatives of the General Daniel Lindsay of Louisville being with them. They had the agreement and carried it at once to Governor Taylor's office and the door was locked upon all outsiders.

It was generally believed that Governor Taylor would accept the agreement, although he had given no positive assurance that he would do so.

Agreement Signed. A peace conference held at the Galt House in Louisville last night between seven representatives of the Republican party and seven representatives of the Democratic party resulted in the unanimous signing of an agreement embodying six specific propositions, which promise a settlement of the party differences which have brought about two state governments in Kentucky. This agreement is in substance as follows:

1. That if the general assembly in joint session shall adopt a resolution ratifying their recent action adopting the contest reports seating Goebel and Beckham, the contestees, W. S. Taylor and John Marshall, shall submit without further protest.
2. That all parties shall unite in an effort to bring about such a modification of the election law as will provide for non-partisan election boards and insure free and fair elections.
3. That conditions shall remain in statu quo until Monday, the general assembly meeting and adjourning from day to day until that time.
4. That nothing shall be done to hinder or prevent a joint session of the general assembly for taking action on the ratification resolution.
5. That the state troops shall meet and adjourn from day to day until Tuesday without taking any action on the ratification resolution.
6. That the state capital shall be removed to the state capital at once, though with all necessary precaution for the public safety.
7. That the Republican officials and officers of the state guard shall have immunity from charges of treason, conspiracy, or any other such offenses.

The agreement was signed by the following: Republicans—John Marshall, Judge W. J. Barr, General Daniel Lindsay, T. L. Edelen, Dr. O. H. Baker, David W. Farleigh, T. C. Ballard. Democrats—J. S. C. Blackburn, J. C. W. Beckham, Sam J. Shackelford, Urey Woodson, James B. McCreary, Phil Thompson, Robert J. Breckinridge.

Taylor's Attitude. The agreement in full was not given out last night, as it was desired first to submit it to Governor Taylor for his signature. It was stated by the Republicans present that Governor Taylor would agree to anything that all of them signed.

It was stated in the conference that the London session of the general assembly would be called off at once. The conference began at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Galt House and lasted until 2:30 o'clock this morning, when a typewriter was sent for and the agreement was prepared and signed.

Until Monday, while the situation is in statu quo, Governor Taylor will remain in possession of the executive buildings, while the Republicans will recognize Governor Beckham as governor.

After the conference Governor Beckham at once took a train for Frankfort, Senator Beckburn and ex-Governor McCreary remained in Louisville over night.

The course of events in the immediate future depend largely upon Governor Taylor.

An important influence in shaping the Republican policy has been, no doubt, the lack of support from the national administration for the course pursued by Governor Taylor since he assumed office.

The latest manifestation of feeling at Washington is the following telegram from Senator Daboe, which was in the

THE WAR IN SOUTH AFRICA

Buller Recrosses the Tugela and Hopes to Relieve White.

The British forces under Buller have again advanced and will make a final, desperate effort to reach General White and his beleaguered garrison before the latter is compelled to surrender to the Boers, who are reported to be constantly strengthening their positions.

The war office is silent as regards General Buller, but there is every reason to believe he is continuing his movement upon Ladysmith. Those who are a point on the Tugela confirm his reported recrossing of the Tugela river and believe he was engaged Friday. The message from Ladysmith Thursday again and that the besieging force was considerably diminished, tends to confirm it.

Warren's troops on Wednesday were heading south of the Tugela, while General Lyttleton's brigade held its position on the north bank.

General Buller has gone to the Boer camp on the Upper Tugela, an apparent indication that he expects another attack on his right.

Major Bathurst, who was wounded at the battle of Colenso, has arrived at Southampton on the 6th. The general says there are 30,000 Boers at the Tugela river, but that General Buller can get through if he is prepared to sacrifice 5,000 or 6,000 men.

General Charles Tucker, who came from India to command the riding division, has gone up the Modder river. The reported activity of Colonel Plumer's forces near Oranienburg is a good sign that a strong effort will be made by him to push through to Mafeking.

Burglar Casualties. A dispatch from Ladysmith, undated, via Spearman's Camp, Feb. 2, says: "Native deserters report the following field conditions killed in last week's fighting: Lombard of Waterburg; clear from the Boer camp; Opperman of Pretoria; Daniel Erasmus of Magaliesburg, and one Free State coronet. The British artillery broke seven Boer guns. The Boer casualties were approximately 1,000; though this information is not altogether reliable."

Commandant Olivier of the Orange Free State, in a speech to the Boers at Lady Grey, said that his men were almost surrounded at Stormberg and unless recruits were forthcoming he would be compelled to retreat to the Tugela. It is reported that in the recent fight at Ladysmith the Boers lost 1,100 killed and 600 wounded.

Many colonists who fought at Stormberg are said to have gone back to their farms and refused to return to active service, though threatened with death. Among these are some conspicuous burghers, who originally invited the Free State to invade Cape Colony.

Ferry traffic on the Tugela in South Africa has been given out in London during the past 24 hours. Much work is in progress on the southern frontier of the Free State, but the details are being held back until reports can be reported. The impression is that such dispatches as are allowed to come through from Stormberg and French's camp, near Colenso.

The report that the Boer losses at Spion Kop of Wednesday had exceeded 1,000, though unconfirmed, has created a favorable impression and very few are disposed to discredit it.

Field Marshal Lord Roberts has notified the war office that 40 Highlanders who were previously reported killed at Stormberg are prisoners at Pretoria. Desperate Fighting. A special dispatch from Durban, Natal, dated Feb. 5, says:

"There is no definite news from General Buller, but it is reported that there was heavy fighting yesterday."

It was just one week today that General Buller was reported to have been at Ladysmith in a week. He has not kept his word.

The war office statement that it has received no confirmation of the report that General Buller has recrossed the Tugela river, but that operations of tremendous importance are proceeding at the Tugela and it is thought that either the denial was prompted by a desire to keep the military movements as secret as possible, or that the aggregate of the items tend to confirm the belief that movements of importance are in progress.

It is true that the correspondents at Ladysmith are in a position to give an impression that his main force is still south of the Tugela, but it is easily conceivable that the dispatches are all censored.

Napoleonic Campaign. No news at all has been received from the armies co-operating in Cape Colony and there is much speculation in London as to the plans of Lord Roberts and the mysterious movements of Lord Kitchener. The general idea is that they are preparing some Napoleonic campaign that will bring the war to a speedy close from Spearman's Camp, dated Friday, Saturday and Sunday, are published in London this morning.

On Friday telegraphic communication with Ladysmith was resumed, messages being sent by the Boers were being shelling the town, and burial parties of Boers were burying their dead at Spion Kop, though nine days had elapsed since the battle.

On Saturday the bombardment of Ladysmith was lighter. From Chieveley General Barton cannonaded the Colenso lines, employing the naval gun. The Boers, as usual, appeared at Colenso, but retreated when the British artillery opened.

The day was quiet at Potgieters. There was no cannonading by the British guns.

The Boers enjoyed this immunity from attack and could seem in large numbers digging their blankets and trying to strengthen and add to their defensive works.

ANDREWS ISSUES A DENIAL.

Southern Has Not Bought North Carolina Railways.

RALEIGH, Feb. 8.—Vice President A. E. Andrews of the Southern railway returned here today. When asked as to the accuracy or inaccuracy of rumors that the Southern had bought the Abbeville and Asheboro and the Carolina and Northwestern railways, he said both were inaccurate.

As to the latter road, he said it was understood that Mr. Barber had bought it for some New York parties, whose names are not known here.

The Southern last month arranged for a through car service over the Abbeville and Asheboro in order to get a share of the Southern Pine and Pinehurst business.

Sympathy For K-nuckians. COLUMBIA, S. C., Feb. 1.—The conditions in Kentucky have aroused the sympathy of the people of this state. The legislature last night unanimously adopted a resolution expressing its sorrow and regret at the attempted assassination of Hon. William Goebel, governor-elect of Kentucky, and tendering the sympathy of the state to the sister state, Kentucky, and the party which Goebel has headed in the interests of home rule and good government.

North State's Sixth Mill. RALEIGH, Feb. 1.—The state has granted a charter to the Arlington cotton mill at Gastonia, capital $180,000, stockholders G. W. Ragan, L. L. Jenkins, C. E. Adams, J. D. Moore and A. A. McLean. The mill is authorized to make yarn, rope and cloth; to dye, bleach, print and finish, to gin cotton and to make cotton oil. This is the sixth mill chartered this year.

Branch Roads to Be Built. RALEIGH, Feb. 5.—The Cape Fear and Northern railway, which is owned by the Dukes of Durham, and the present terminus of which is Angler, in Harnett, will build a 14-mile branch to Cokesbury. It will also build another branch to Fuquay Springs, a health resort. It was at one time expected that this road would go to Southport.

Greensboro Store Burned. WINSTON, N. C., Feb. 5.—Fire at Greensboro yesterday destroyed the large clothing store of C. M. Vanstarey & Co. The firm's loss is estimated at $30,000, with $20,000 in cash, $10,000 in stocks and the Sample Brown Mercantile company, dry goods, and J. W. Scott & Co., grocers, were badly damaged by water.

Special Prayer For Goebel. COLUMBIA, S. C., Feb. 2.—The legislature of South Carolina today had special prayer for Governor Goebel offered by the chaplain.

Employers of Cotton Mills. RALEIGH, Feb. 6.—The labor commissioners' report, just completed, says there are 33,757 employes in North Carolina cotton mills, nearly half being women and nearly one tenth children under 14. The number of men employes has increased 50 per cent in three years and that of children has, during the same period, decreased 50 per cent. Wages of child males average $1.10 a day, women 65 cents, children 31 cents. Labor hours range from 10 to 12, 11 1/2 being the average.

44 R-publicans at London. LONDON, Ky., Feb. 6.—As nearly as can be learned seven Republican representatives and one Republican senator arrived on the early morning train. This makes 34 representatives and ten senators in London, all Republicans but Senator Hayes, who is a Brown Democrat. Lieutenant Governor Marshall was expected to arrive, but he has telegraphed from Louisville that he will not be here today.

"I think I would go crazy with pain were it not for Chamberlain's Pain Balm" writes Mr. W. H. Stapleton, Herminie, Pa. "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for several years and have tried remedies without number, but Pain Balm is the best medicine I have got hold of." One application relieves the pain. For sale by S. Biggs.

JOHNSON BOYS CONVICTED.

Young Men Found Guilty of Killing Their Uncle.

GREENVILLE, S. C., Feb. 3.—The trial of George, Marshall and Avery Johnson, three young men charged with the murder of their uncle, Jess Johnson, has occupied the criminal court for three days and has attracted much interest.

Solicitor Ansell and Senator Dean conducted the prosecution and Messrs. Shuman and Mooney for the defendants.

The witnesses were mainly from the Johnson family, in which there were many disagreements and there was trouble over a matter of business. The jury returned in an hour with a verdict of manslaughter against George and Marshall Johnson and Avery Johnson was acquitted.

A motion for a new trial will be made. George Johnson did the shooting and Marshall was abetting.

MORMON ELDERS CONFER. President Anderson of the Southern Mission Speaks. COLUMBIA, S. C., Feb. 5.—Forty-four Mormon elders working in South Carolina met here yesterday. President Anderson, of the southern mission field, made an address. They rejoiced to work in a section they were unmoored, and the people were liberal in views.

There were, he said, 1,300 Mormons in South Carolina and 10,000 in 11 northern states. They believed in polygamy as the south had believed in slaves. Like the south, they fought for what they believed in, had lost and surrendered, not their principles, but their teachings.

The Mormon church was making great progress and was the best organized of any church. Five hundred elders were in the field, receiving not a cent of compensation. Three sessions were held during the day. All the elders stopped at one of the best hotels.

A JOCKEY CLUB DISBANDED. Property Donated to the Charleston Library Association. CHARLESTON, Feb. 3.—Some valuable and historic property was transferred here yesterday when the South Carolina Jockey Club Racing association, which flourished in Charleston for 13 years, decided to disband the organization and donate its holdings as an endowment fund for the Charleston library.

The property, which includes the old Washington race course, is worth $100,000. Under the laws of the jockey club its property could not be sold and on this account the efforts to purchase the race course a few years ago by one of the Dwyers failed.

The club was organized in 1834 and the races given here were the greatest events of the kind of that day and time. The donation was accepted by the library association.

AN AGED LADY CREMATED. Mother of Furman University's President Burned. GREENVILLE, S. C., Feb. 1.—Mrs. Mildred C. Montague, 80 years old, mother of Dr. A. P. Montague, president of Furman university, was burned to death last night. While standing with her back to the fire her clothing caught and she died several hours later from the burns.

Mrs. Montague was a native of Virginia, a member of the renowned Broadus family. Her father was one of the most distinguished preachers in the south, and her brother is Dr. Andrew Broadus of Carolina county, Va. Mrs. Montague's home was near Richmond. Since her son has been president of Furman she has spent part of each winter here.
