POWERS IS HELD AS AN ACCESSORY

Remanded For Complicity In Goebel Murder.

OFFERED NO TESTIMONY

With Conclusion of the Evidence For the State, Defense Presented a Pardon Issued by Taylor, Which Court Refused to Recognize.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 27.—The fourth day of the examining trial of Republican Secretary of State Caleb Powers began with the courtroom cleared of all people excepting attorneys, newspaper correspondents and officers of the court. The court adjourned yesterday to meet at 9 o'clock, but it was nearly 10 when Judge Moore called for order. The attorneys for the defense held a consultation, and afterward called County Attorney Polsgrove.

Immediately after the consultation Governor Brown, for the defense, arose and announced that no testimony would be introduced for the defense and they would waive further examination. The pardon issued to Powers by Governor Taylor was tendered by ex-Governor Brown as a bar to the prosecution and asked that the defendant be dismissed.

Colonel Campbell said that the commonwealth denied Governor Taylor's right to issue a pardon at the time the pardon was granted. Governor Brown moved that the prisoner be dismissed upon the evidence. The motion was overruled. Bail was asked for Judge Moore said:

"It is not my belief that Powers fired the shot which killed Governor Goebel, but from the evidence it is my opinion that he was connected with the conspiracy to kill him. I shall therefore order that he be held over without bail to the Franklin county grand jury that the case be investigated."

STAMPEDED THE AUDIENCE.

Heated Argument Between Attorneys Caused Great Excitement.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 27.—During the afternoon session of court, while witness Golden was being cross-examined in the trial of Powers for complicity in the murder of Goebel, Attorneys Campbell and Denny got into an argument and the he was almost passed. Great excitement prevailed and people rushed for the doors and windows while Judge Moore rapped for order. Quiet was finally restored. Governor Brown informed Colonel Campbell that he had misconstrued Colonel Denny's remarks, and Colonel Campbell at once arose and apologized to Colonel Denny and the court.

A PROFESSOR'S ROMANCE.

How George Mueller Wood and Won His Bride.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 27.—A romance, the equal of anything in probable literature, has just come to light here. George Mueller, a German professor of a New Jersey college, met and fell in love with Miss Paula Gies, but the young lady's parents objected to the match, and an elopement followed. Search was instituted for the elopers, but all traces of them were lost in this city.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 27.—A meeting of representatives of the Virginia and Truck line railroads is in session at the Battery Park hotel. The sessions will probably last two or three days. GOLDEN TAKES THE STAND.

His Testimony Tends to Show Conspiracy to Kill Goebel.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 24.—The prosecution in the case against Secretary of State Caleb Powers, charged with complicity in the Goebel assassination, introduced its principal witness today, F. Wharton Golden of Knox county, an intimate friend of Secretary Powers, who is said to have made a confession. The attorneys for the commonwealth say that Golden's testimony is practically the keystone of the whole structure of evidence and expect to prove by his testimony, not only that a conspiracy existed, but also who were implicated in it.

At the opening of his testimony Golden stated in reply to questions that Colonel Powers had instructed him to go to Harlan to select 10 witnesses in the contest case. These witnesses were to be some of the regular mountain feudists. Colonel Powers said:

"Well, men who would stand up and if necessary go into that legislative hall and kill off enough Democrats to make it in our favor."

"Do you mean United States army men?"

"No, mountaineers."

In answer to a further question he said Powers gave him $150 to give to Judge Bingham in Bell county.

The witness identified a receipt for $50 given by Bingham. Witness also said he gave Howard $75.00 for tickets to Frankfort and return. He knew some of the men from Bell county. A good many of them were feudists. In all about 1,200 or 1,500 men were brought to Frankfort. They were fed back of the state house, Captain Davis and Charles Finley furnishing the provisions.

Continuing, Golden said:

"On the evening of the 23d of March, I was called by Powers, Captain Davis, Bill Cullin and Governor Taylor. Finally Taylor and Powers decided to send them back. All except 10 or 15 from each county. I called the men to come from Knox county."

"Did you have any further conversation with Powers regarding the work to be done by the men remaining here?"

"No, sir; we understood what they were kept here for. We knew that those men were here to go into that executive hall and, if necessary, clean out those fellows."

"What follows?"

"The Democrats; enough to make a majority in the legislature. The answer created a sensation in the courtroom."

Golden said he was in the executive building before the shooting. He met Caleb Powers in Governor Taylor's anteroom.

Witness Golden Is Ill.

FRANKFORT, March 28.—Judge Moore called his court to order promptly at 10 o'clock to resume the trial of Republican Secretary of State Caleb Powers, charged with being an accessory to the murder of Governor Goebel. Wharton Golden one of the prosecution's star witnesses, who finished his direct testimony yesterday, but was taken sick and was unable to be cross examined, was the first witness called this morning, but was not in the courtroom and a deputy sheriff was sent to the hotel after him.

County Attorney Polsgrove at 11 o'clock announced that Golden was ill, but the doctor thought he would be able to appear at 1 o'clock and asked the judge to adjourn court until that hour, which was done.

She went out to nurse General Buller's wounded, but becoming the worse for liquor she was shut up by that commander in the room of the local station master. "Housework is hard work without Gold Dust"

Care of Lamps
Many housekeepers think there is nothing to learn about the care of lamps, but if the little details here mentioned are adhered to there will be a great difference in the light. First, a lamp must be cleaned and filled every morning; the burners should be cleaned once a week, and the best way is to boil them in water to which Gold Dust Washing Powder has been added. Put a teaspoonful into a quart of water and boil ten minutes. The fire should be put into a pan of cold water and heated slowly until they boil, then take off and allow to cool gradually; this toughens the glass.
